

Johnson's Trackmen Getting Ready for Season Opener

PRACTICE TILT IS SCHEDULED FOR FRIDAY

When Coach Johnson will take his team to Mt. Clemens. Track work is expected to get under way in earnest after the meeting on all can be done for places on the team will take to the cinder track with a new zest.

For Early to Talk
Coach Johnson was reticent to discuss prospects for the coming season or to make predictions pending the outdoor work. "It is too early now to say what kind of team we will have," he declared. "We will know a great deal more about it when basketball season is a few more weeks out of the way and the weather enables us to go outdoors."

Hard Season Faces Baldwin Trackers Now At Work

SIX VETERANS ARE BACK

Coach George Johnson today is whipping into shape the aspirants for the 1929 track team of Baldwin High School as a preliminary indoor meet approaches.

The Rochester High School men will appear on the floor of the Baldwin gymnasium tomorrow afternoon for a "limbering up" tilt with the Baldwinites. This will be the only indoor meet of the season in preparation for the strenuous outdoor battles to start April

Six veterans from last year's team will again wear the Baldwin colors. They are Portius, in the sprints; York, hurdles; Winborn, half mile; Rollins, mile; DeBerg, 440 yard dash, and Berger in the pole vault. The remainder of the team will be selected from the recruits whose ranks are increasing constantly.

The season is expected to bring forth keen competition, many strong teams being listed on the schedule. The meets follow:

- April 26.—Mt. Clemens. There. May 4.—Grosse Pointe. There.
- May 11.—Monroe, Ferndale, Birmingham at Ypsilanti.
- May 17.—State Regional meet at Ferndale.
- May 24-25.—State Meet at East Lansing.
- June 1.—Open.
- June 8.—S. E. A. A. Meet at Ypsilanti.

The first spelling contest in the News Bee will be held at the Hill School on Friday. The grade champions in the fifth and sixth grades will be chosen in this contest.

MANY TO SEE MYSTERY PLAY

Juniors Await Rise Of Curtain For 'Thirteenth Chair'

A large audience is expected to witness "The Thirteenth Chair," to be presented by the Junior Class at Baldwin High School tonight. The play which is the first of the mystery type presented in the school is directed by H. Earle Correvont and Miss Vida McGiffin.

The story centers around the murder of Edward Wales in a spiritual scene, and the solution of the mystery. The lead is played by Peggy Hart as Rosalie, the spirit medium. Other members of the cast are Doris Hoffman, Howard Santeney, Frances Murray Edith Gaskill, Robert Voss, Earl Maxwell, Oak DeBerg, Harry York, Paul Savage, Geraldine Kessler, William Dean, James W. White, Fred Johnson, Lubeck, Katherine Guthrie, and Herman Schwarze.

Mr. Correvont, who is also public speaking and debating coach, reports that the cast chosen shows unusual ability and rehearsals are showing great promises for a successful presentation.

Many of the cast have already had considerable experience in dramatics, in the Junior Play of last year, the Junior Washington Group play, and Senior Washington Group minstrel show.

"The Thirteenth Chair" will be the fourth major dramatic presentation this season.

Chairmen of the different committees in charge of the play are as follows: Publicity, Stoddard White; Printing, William Dean; Properties, Jay Bassett; Tickets, Helen Strand; John Bangs; Usher, Joy Stewart.

Supervision of the properties is under E. T. Engel. Art and stagecraft is being done in the staging section of the art department under Mrs. Helen Kidder. Musical numbers will be furnished by the Baldwin High School orchestra, directed by Mr. A. W. Berndt.

BALDWIN GRADS GRADED HIGH

Reports To Hart Show College Students Rank Among Leaders

Principal Melvin Hart has been receiving reports of the work which graduates of Baldwin High did during the first semester as freshmen at various institutions of higher learning.

Of a total of 50 marks reported in academic subjects, there were six of the coveted A's and 20 B's received by Baldwin graduates of last year.

This percentage of A's and B's is considered distinctly above the normal received by college freshmen. The reports came from six different institutions.

ADAMS GIRLS CLOSE SEASON

The girls' basketball season at Adams Junior High School came to a close with a game between the eighth and ninth grades with a final score of 18-1 in favor of the freshmen.

Stars of the game were Sally Baker, captain of the eighth graders, Betty Burns, eighth grader, and Dorothy Schwarze, who rimmed the sphere for 14 of the ninth grades' 18 points.

The standings of the teams will be announced later.

LETTERS GIVEN ADAMS TEAM

Announcement of letters from the Adams Junior High School basketball team has been made by Coach E. S. Wiseman.

The students to receive the awards are Captain Anderson, Frederick Schwarze, Billy Moss, Donald Stewart, Harold Davis, Eugene Smith, Charles Rose and Donald Parry, who will receive a manager's letter.

Emblems will be presented to the following: Maurice Garil, Bob Hilty, Thomas Schaeley, Harry Showers, Warren Brown, Tom Stoberg, Richard Phillips, and Charles Tomes.

GIRL RESERVE CLUB ATTENDS EXERCISES

Miss Margaret Strand was general chairman of the annual city-wide Girl Reserve Banquet which was held Saturday, March 9, at the Ionic Temple in Detroit.

The guest of the Birmingham club was Mrs. Erie Layton Gates, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., who presented the Girls Reserve shield for the greatest improvement in scholarship. Warren Brown, of the East Commerce High School Club. There were 20 girl reserve clubs represented at the meeting.

INTER-CLASS MEET TO CLOSE SEASON

An interclass basketball tournament will be held next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in Baldwin gymnasium. The junior high, and Senior high boys' and girls' teams will play. The tournament will close the basketball season.

Briefly Told

Cranbrook students were entertained with their weekly moving picture program, in the auditorium of the school Saturday night.

A tea was given in the lobby of the Cranbrook auditorium Friday afternoon and evening for the members of the older forms and their guests. A delightful time was reported.

On March 22 the Cranbrook School annual gymnastics and indoor circus will be held in the gymnasium, it is announced. Plans are being formulated for the function. It will be in the form of an indoor circus and athletic contest.

Miss Edith Rhett, publicity manager for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, will be the speaker at a concert and musical program to be held in the Cranbrook School auditorium on the evening of March 19. Violin numbers and several vocal solos by William G. Lerchen have been arranged.

Students of Baldwin High School took part in a program for the Royal Oak High students at Royal Oak Wednesday afternoon. Vadine Scott contributed vocal solos, Jack Russell, trombone selections, and dance numbers were given by a group of girls under the direction of Miss Helen MacIntyre.

A new scoreboard has been installed in the gymnasium of the Adams Junior High School. The board was constructed by Merlyn Smiley, manual arts instructor, in the school shop. The score is reported by four wooden discs, each numbered to nine, and operated by strings.

The champion Adams Junior High School basketball team will be guests at a banquet at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Eugene E. Smith of Abbey road on March 30.

Varsity men of Baldwin High School received their "varsity hats" on Monday, of the same style as those worn by students of Michigan State College, maroon Crull.

with a white "B" on the front. The hats will be worn by the club members for about a month.

The Junior Washington group started selling candy in their new Ark last week, which is in the form of an ancient auto painted in maroon and white, Baldwin colors, taking the place of the old Ark that burned last spring. Definite plans for the future have not been made. The Junior Group will be left in full charge when the Seniors leave for Washington, April 6.

Two vocal numbers were given by the Senior Girls Glee Club of Baldwin High Monday night at the Baptist Church. "Thanks be to God," and "Lift Thine Eyes," were the names of the hymns. Monday was Educational Day at the formal opening of the Church.

A Junior high assembly was held Friday afternoon by the Eight School Orchestra, movies from the high school auditorium, under the direction of Howard Crull.
