

Soon Birmingham and nearby towns will start over to learn how to keep the evening news... their tired husbands to finish the afternoon's golf game.

FIFTY-FIRST YEAR—NO. 49

BIRMINGHAM, OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, MARCH 21, 1929

$1.50 PER YEAR SINGLE COPIES 5c

GLADYS PACKS A MEAN LEFT

Recount Fails To Change Election Results In Village

TWO ISSUES UNTOUCHED

Newly elected Commissioners Robert E. Allen and Harry Allen and re-elected Commissioner Laurence Hulbert are in office today following the recount held Saturday night which left the original results for the elections of March 11 practically unaltered.

SCHOOL NEED TOLD TO LIONS

Rolla J. Coryell, president of the Birmingham board of education, was the guest speaker at a luncheon at the Birmingham Club yesterday at the Chamber Tea Room.

THIEVES BUSY DURING NIGHT

Robbery of two Birmingham motor agencies reported last Thursday continue to baffles police today.

POSTAL STAFF NAMED IN HILLS

Announcement is made today of the hiring by the Bloomfield/Hills village of Mrs. Florence Stoll as assistant postmaster and Earl Parks as mail messenger.

COUNTY ART WEEK GETS UNDER WAY

Oakland County's first art week is being observed today and tomorrow at the Central Methodist Church, at Pontiac, under the sponsorship of the Oakland County Community Arts Association.

REVISION WOULD BE MORE DIFFICULT THAN REVISING BOARD FEELS

Birmingham will need an entire new village charter, it was indicated at the commission meeting Thursday by Lee A. White, chairman of the committee studying the charter with the idea of making necessary revisions.

MRS. J. H. LYNCH IS RECOVERING FROM ACCIDENT

Police Continue Search For Hit-Run Driver Who Victim Injured

MR. LYNCH UNINJURED

Mrs. James H. Lynch, of Pontiac, wife of the president of the Oakland County Bar association is recovering today from injuries sustained in an auto accident, while police are seeking the driver of the car which crashed into the Lynch machine at Woodward avenue and the Fourteen Mile road.

SECOND CHILD BITTEN BY DOG

Police Continue Warfare On Unmuzzled Dogs Running At Large

SCHOOLS CLOSE FOR INSTITUTE

The Birmingham Public Schools will close Friday to permit the teachers to attend the regular County Teachers' Institute which will be held at the Baptist Tabernacle, Pontiac.

FATHER OF EIGHT TO FACE COURT

Ruben E. Richardson, of Berkley, is in Oakland County jail today in default of $100 bail, awaiting trial before Justice Floyd S. Rock on a charge of non-support of a wife and eight minor children.

NEW PROJECTS PLANNED HERE

Community House Studies Day Nursery And Nursing Service

RENAMED TO OFFICE

Charles E. Plunstead was named village treasurer.

VILLAGE PLAYERS READY FOR FIRST PUBLIC PERFORMANCE SATURDAY

Members of the Village Players are eagerly awaiting a few minutes on their first three-act piece tomorrow evening at the Playhouse.

NEW DIRECTORY READY TOMORROW

The new 1929 Directory and Blue Book published annually by the Birmingham Eccepsite will be ready tomorrow and will be sold for fifty cents.

CHURCHES GIVE JOINT SERVICE

Good Friday To Be Observed Here By United Prayer

SCHOOL NEED TOLD TO LIONS

Rolla J. Coryell, president of the Birmingham board of education, was the guest speaker at a luncheon at the Birmingham Club yesterday at the Chamber Tea Room.

THIEVES BUSY DURING NIGHT

Robbery of two Birmingham motor agencies reported last Thursday continue to baffles police today.

POSTAL STAFF NAMED IN HILLS

Announcement is made today of the hiring by the Bloomfield/Hills village of Mrs. Florence Stoll as assistant postmaster and Earl Parks as mail messenger.

COUNTY ART WEEK GETS UNDER WAY

Oakland County's first art week is being observed today and tomorrow at the Central Methodist Church, at Pontiac, under the sponsorship of the Oakland County Community Arts Association.

REVISION WOULD BE MORE DIFFICULT THAN REVISING BOARD FEELS

Birmingham will need an entire new village charter, it was indicated at the commission meeting Thursday by Lee A. White, chairman of the committee studying the charter with the idea of making necessary revisions.

NEW PROJECTS PLANNED HERE

Community House Studies Day Nursery And Nursing Service

RENAMED TO OFFICE

Charles E. Plunstead was named village treasurer.

VILLAGE TREE REPLANTING PROGRAM ON

Expect To Place 500 In Ground Here During Spring

$2,000 COST APPROVED

Replanting of trees is under way today in Birmingham with $2,000 appropriated for the work by the village commission.

CHURCHES GIVE JOINT SERVICE

Good Friday To Be Observed Here By United Prayer

SCHOOL NEED TOLD TO LIONS

Rolla J. Coryell, president of the Birmingham board of education, was the guest speaker at a luncheon at the Birmingham Club yesterday at the Chamber Tea Room.

THIEVES BUSY DURING NIGHT

Robbery of two Birmingham motor agencies reported last Thursday continue to baffles police today.

POSTAL STAFF NAMED IN HILLS

Announcement is made today of the hiring by the Bloomfield/Hills village of Mrs. Florence Stoll as assistant postmaster and Earl Parks as mail messenger.

COUNTY ART WEEK GETS UNDER WAY

Oakland County's first art week is being observed today and tomorrow at the Central Methodist Church, at Pontiac, under the sponsorship of the Oakland County Community Arts Association.

REVISION WOULD BE MORE DIFFICULT THAN REVISING BOARD FEELS

Birmingham will need an entire new village charter, it was indicated at the commission meeting Thursday by Lee A. White, chairman of the committee studying the charter with the idea of making necessary revisions.

NEW PROJECTS PLANNED HERE

Community House Studies Day Nursery And Nursing Service

RENAMED TO OFFICE

Charles E. Plunstead was named village treasurer.

VILLAGE TREE REPLANTING PROGRAM ON

Expect To Place 500 In Ground Here During Spring

$2,000 COST APPROVED

Replanting of trees is under way today in Birmingham with $2,000 appropriated for the work by the village commission.

CHURCHES GIVE JOINT SERVICE

Good Friday To Be Observed Here By United Prayer

SCHOOL NEED TOLD TO LIONS

Rolla J. Coryell, president of the Birmingham board of education, was the guest speaker at a luncheon at the Birmingham Club yesterday at the Chamber Tea Room.

THIEVES BUSY DURING NIGHT

Robbery of two Birmingham motor agencies reported last Thursday continue to baffles police today.

POSTAL STAFF NAMED IN HILLS

Announcement is made today of the hiring by the Bloomfield/Hills village of Mrs. Florence Stoll as assistant postmaster and Earl Parks as mail messenger.

COUNTY ART WEEK GETS UNDER WAY

Oakland County's first art week is being observed today and tomorrow at the Central Methodist Church, at Pontiac, under the sponsorship of the Oakland County Community Arts Association.

REVISION WOULD BE MORE DIFFICULT THAN REVISING BOARD FEELS

Birmingham will need an entire new village charter, it was indicated at the commission meeting Thursday by Lee A. White, chairman of the committee studying the charter with the idea of making necessary revisions.

NEW PROJECTS PLANNED HERE

Community House Studies Day Nursery And Nursing Service

RENAMED TO OFFICE

Charles E. Plunstead was named village treasurer.

VILLAGE TREE REPLANTING PROGRAM ON

Expect To Place 500 In Ground Here During Spring

$2,000 COST APPROVED

Replanting of trees is under way today in Birmingham with $2,000 appropriated for the work by the village commission.

CHURCHES GIVE JOINT SERVICE

Good Friday To Be Observed Here By United Prayer

SCHOOL NEED TOLD TO LIONS

Rolla J. Coryell, president of the Birmingham board of education, was the guest speaker at a luncheon at the Birmingham Club yesterday at the Chamber Tea Room.

THIEVES BUSY DURING NIGHT

Robbery of two Birmingham motor agencies reported last Thursday continue to baffles police today.

POSTAL STAFF NAMED IN HILLS

Announcement is made today of the hiring by the Bloomfield/Hills village of Mrs. Florence Stoll as assistant postmaster and Earl Parks as mail messenger.

COUNTY ART WEEK GETS UNDER WAY

Oakland County's first art week is being observed today and tomorrow at the Central Methodist Church, at Pontiac, under the sponsorship of the Oakland County Community Arts Association.

REVISION WOULD BE MORE DIFFICULT THAN REVISING BOARD FEELS

Birmingham will need an entire new village charter, it was indicated at the commission meeting Thursday by Lee A. White, chairman of the committee studying the charter with the idea of making necessary revisions.

NEW PROJECTS PLANNED HERE

Community House Studies Day Nursery And Nursing Service

RENAMED TO OFFICE

Charles E. Plunstead was named village treasurer.

VILLAGE TREE REPLANTING PROGRAM ON

Expect To Place 500 In Ground Here During Spring

$2,000 COST APPROVED

Replanting of trees is under way today in Birmingham with $2,000 appropriated for the work by the village commission.

CHURCHES GIVE JOINT SERVICE

Good Friday To Be Observed Here By United Prayer

SCHOOL NEED TOLD TO LIONS

Rolla J. Coryell, president of the Birmingham board of education, was the guest speaker at a luncheon at the Birmingham Club yesterday at the Chamber Tea Room.

THIEVES BUSY DURING NIGHT

Robbery of two Birmingham motor agencies reported last Thursday continue to baffles police today.

POSTAL STAFF NAMED IN HILLS

Announcement is made today of the hiring by the Bloomfield/Hills village of Mrs. Florence Stoll as assistant postmaster and Earl Parks as mail messenger.

COUNTY ART WEEK GETS UNDER WAY

Oakland County's first art week is being observed today and tomorrow at the Central Methodist Church, at Pontiac, under the sponsorship of the Oakland County Community Arts Association.

REVISION WOULD BE MORE DIFFICULT THAN REVISING BOARD FEELS

Birmingham will need an entire new village charter, it was indicated at the commission meeting Thursday by Lee A. White, chairman of the committee studying the charter with the idea of making necessary revisions.

NEW PROJECTS PLANNED HERE

Community House Studies Day Nursery And Nursing Service

RENAMED TO OFFICE

Charles E. Plunstead was named village treasurer.

MISSES AS TRAIN HITS SEDAN

Helen Canfield, Other Woman Killed In Detroit Accident

VILLAGE TEACHER HURT

While funeral arrangements were being completed today for Miss Helen Canfield, 27, sister-in-law of Walter Moreland, assistant cashier of the Birmingham Savings Bank, who died with another woman when a train struck their sedan in Detroit, doctors were fighting to save the life of Miss Violet Reh, 23, a former Baldwin High School teacher, injured in the same accident.

CHURCHES GIVE JOINT SERVICE

Good Friday To Be Observed Here By United Prayer

SCHOOL NEED TOLD TO LIONS

Rolla J. Coryell, president of the Birmingham board of education, was the guest speaker at a luncheon at the Birmingham Club yesterday at the Chamber Tea Room.

THIEVES BUSY DURING NIGHT

Robbery of two Birmingham motor agencies reported last Thursday continue to baffles police today.

POSTAL STAFF NAMED IN HILLS

Announcement is made today of the hiring by the Bloomfield/Hills village of Mrs. Florence Stoll as assistant postmaster and Earl Parks as mail messenger.

COUNTY ART WEEK GETS UNDER WAY

Oakland County's first art week is being observed today and tomorrow at the Central Methodist Church, at Pontiac, under the sponsorship of the Oakland County Community Arts Association.

REVISION WOULD BE MORE DIFFICULT THAN REVISING BOARD FEELS

Birmingham will need an entire new village charter, it was indicated at the commission meeting Thursday by Lee A. White, chairman of the committee studying the charter with the idea of making necessary revisions.

NEW PROJECTS PLANNED HERE

Community House Studies Day Nursery And Nursing Service

RENAMED TO OFFICE

Charles E. Plunstead was named village treasurer.

COMMISSION LAYS PLANS FOR HAZARDOUS GROWTH OF BLOOMFIELD

A city planner is to be hired by Bloomfield village, it was announced yesterday by Mr. W. M. Norton, chairman of the planning commission. The purpose of which is to study the village of Bloomfield, which is now being annexed by the city of Birmingham.

COMMISSION LAYS PLANS FOR HAZARDOUS GROWTH OF BLOOMFIELD

A city planner is to be hired by Bloomfield village, it was announced yesterday by Mr. W. M. Norton, chairman of the planning commission. The purpose of which is to study the village of Bloomfield, which is now being annexed by the city of Birmingham.

COMMISSION LAYS PLANS FOR HAZARDOUS GROWTH OF BLOOMFIELD

A city planner is to be hired by Bloomfield village, it was announced yesterday by Mr. W. M. Norton, chairman of the planning commission. The purpose of which is to study the village of Bloomfield, which is now being annexed by the city of Birmingham.

COMMISSION LAYS PLANS FOR HAZARDOUS GROWTH OF BLOOMFIELD

A city planner is to be hired by Bloomfield village, it was announced yesterday by Mr. W. M. Norton, chairman of the planning commission. The purpose of which is to study the village of Bloomfield, which is now being annexed by the city of Birmingham.

COMMISSION LAYS PLANS FOR HAZARDOUS GROWTH OF BLOOMFIELD

A city planner is to be hired by Bloomfield village, it was announced yesterday by Mr. W. M. Norton, chairman of the planning commission. The purpose of which is to study the village of Bloomfield, which is now being annexed by the city of Birmingham.

CHARLES E. PLUNSTEAD, NEWLY NAMED VILLAGE TREASURER.