

Seen in the Shops of Birmingham

By GERRY

YOU won't have any time to be looking at yourself when you first get a glimpse in the mirrors at the Taylor Antique Shop in the Wabash building—you'll be just that delighted with these old favorites. They have a new supply that just arrived including large and small ones from way back in colonial days. We saw one, oblong type, with a heavy frame of gold leaf style that maybe Martha Washington herself glimpsed in. There are oval and square styles in both large and smaller sizes, some with ornate frames, and others framed in rich mahogany. The attractive one had an oval top with square bottom. These are all 75 years old, and many of them can boast of still another quarter of a century. The Taylor Shop invites you to just come in and spend a pleasant hour looking around.

YOUR worries are over—you can partake of all the sweets and delectable dainties you wish to, without a thought of losing the maidenly figure. Here's the answer in the marvelous exerciser and reducer that you'll see in the display window at the Hawthorne Electric Company at 242 West Maple. The vibrating belt reduces by manipulation of the body tissues, perhaps the oldest method of molding the body to desired proportions. Of course cosmetic drugs, diets, and occasional strenuous exercise will make temporary changes in appearance, but in most cases are injurious to your health, and most wonting undesirable. This exerciser and reducer is recommended by the medical profession as beneficial to your health. And maintaining your figure by a few minutes exercise every day relieves one big worry of our lives, doesn't it?

OH, but you have a treat in store for you at the Gift and Art Shop at 49 West Maple Avenue. They have the loveliest jewelry for spring, the most delightful little necklaces, necklaces, rings, bracelets, ear drops. You can get ensemble sets of chokers, neckties, ear drops and rings too, all to match the style and coloring can be selected to harmonize with any dress or new spring outfit at you may have. They come in genuine synthetic stones of garnets, rubies, emeralds, sapphires and many others, some with antique finish, channels that are intricately beautiful, and sport jewelry that will surprise you. Designs follow the modernistic trend. Just take a little jaunt down at the Gift and Art Shop for a peep at yourself, and look in the Fashion department of this issue for still more about their attractive jewelry line.

GEE! don't you wish you were a kid again when Easter comes around, and at Shaip's Drug Store on West Maple they display such darling little Easter bunnies, eggs and novelties? There's baskets fairly filled with eggs, big and little ones, of just every color there is. There's big chocolate covered eggs, bunnies and chickens, and they're made of chocolate too. Well maybe you can't go back to the days of your childhood, but we'll wager you'll be surprised to find in the Easter candy from Gilbert's, Whitman's, Stover's and Lovell and other famous lines. One novelty is a chocolate shell filled with sorbet chocolates. Yes, it's Easter alright.

YOU haven't half an idea just how much help Chas. M. Scott in the Field Building can be with your housecleaning if you'll just leave all of your furniture problems up to him. Your furniture does play an important part in the appearance of the big change that repaired, and new upholstery will do. Along with your other spring housecleaning, you'll have a new home when he returns your furniture to you looking just like new. Mr. Scott can match almost any upholstery in plain frize, mohair, tappings and furniture that is the next thing to new, will be a source of pleasure and comfort to the entire family. You better call Mr. Scott right now and arrange for some spring housecleaning help.

GUESS C. L. Miesner in the Field Building is spring with Mr. Scott to help the housewives with their spring housecleaning. Mr. Miesner has an attractive line of window shades and spring housecleaning is never complete without window shades just right. You can get them in all the pastel shades too, to harmonize with any home decorations. And you needn't worry about the light shades either because they're washable. A dip in the sud, and they're just like new again. These shades are made of play-silk, short Joanna cloth, with scalloped bottoms, plain, or fringed, and they're noted for their long service. If you wish an extraordinary size, Mr. Miesner can get them for you by special order. Just get in line for the new spring window shades.

GET the spring fever? Just bowl it off at the Birmingham Recreation at 177 South Woodward. You know when you get that spring feeling in your blood, lots of pep, and you don't know just what to do, that's the time to wander down into the local Bowling Alley. You'll enjoy a good game and meet your friends. Bowling puts the pep in a fellow too, and it's the one exercise that Birmingham offers you at all times. A game a day will make you feel like a "million dollars," so they say. It'll put the sparkle in your eye and you'll notice your muscles developing too. The alleys are in fine shape for rolling up the high scores, and you're invited any evening or afternoon. The ladies too are invited because they do have spring fever too. Bowl it off—that's the thing.

WHEN Milady steps out on Easter Sunday morning, she'll be the breath of spring itself if she has purchased her accessories at the Gustine & Miller Store at 152 N. Woodward. Such pretty scarves you'll find, in the triangular and square styles, made of crepes and georgettes, in all the spring pastel shades with moderatistic designs and figures in harmonizing lines. Scarves are so popular again this spring, that you'll want to take one of every hue along to have a scarf for every costume. Then they have a pretty assortment of flowers too that seem to have been made just for their scarves, pretty chrysanthemums, little violets, rose buds, in silk and velvet flowers that you'll just love. Accessories go such a long ways to give you that chic that it behooves we ladies to decide on good looking ones like these.

SPRING and the open road—the thrill of a motor and the long stretch before you—and if you're riding in a Studebaker such as they have at the Jewell and Mosher Display Room at 160 West Maple Avenue, everything will be complete. Just take for instance Studebaker's Erskine Six, the finest, fastest car under $1000. Studebaker offers the man who prefers to invest only a moderate sum in his motoring the utmost in comfort and fine performance. The Erskine Six is an example of this. Prove this to your lasting satisfaction by a thorough demonstration with your own hands on the wheel. The Erskine Six is its only best selling car. It will give you all the pleasures of driving that you're longing for these spring days.

YOU ought to drop in at Grinnell's at 144 S. Woodward and just see the wonderful Grand pianos they're showing. Then sit down and glide your fingers over the keys, and you'll realize the joy and pleasure of having one of these Grand pianos of such superb tone quality in your own home. They bring keen enjoyment to the entire family, and daughter, sister or wife will have many happy hours in store for them. A grand piano is the hominess, luxury, and comfort of the living room too. It provides a welcome to guests thru the wholesome entertainment it affords. Lastly, there's its dependable service. You just must see and hear Grinnell's Grand Pianos.

YOU might not be able to be home on Mother's Day, May 12th, but the next best thing to a personal visit is the Theater Photographs. Arnold's Studio in the Theater Building are making arrangements for portraits of sons and daughters who will be pleasing their Mothers on their very own day, and you ought to be next in line. Just think how much Mother will appreciate it! They say absence makes the heart grow fonder, and if so, how much more she will appreciate your remembering her with such a personal gift though miles do separate you. It's time now to make your appointment for a fitting. All you need to do is drop in at the Pure Food Restaurant. They serve only high quality meats, and their chef knows how to prepare them just right, and a time convenient for you will be arranged, and you'll be mighty pleased too, when Mother's day comes along, and you have made her happy.

DON'T you get hungry for a good steak some times? Well when you do, you have a standing invitation to visit the Pure Food Restaurant at 116 N. Woodward. Their steaks have won for them a reputation. In fact their chef prides himself on the preparation of all of their meats. The meat is the important feature of the menu too, so if you're looking for a good dinner, just drop in at the Pure Food Restaurant. They serve only high quality meats, and their chef knows how to prepare them just right, and a time convenient for you will be arranged, and you'll be mighty pleased too, when Mother's day comes along, and you have made her happy.

DRIED BEEF WITH EGGS
(Mrs. Mary Morton's Weekly Tested Recipe)
Pick thinly sliced dried beef in small pieces, cover with hot water and let simmer five minutes. Then pour off the water and put one heaping teaspoon butter in pan with beef. Let it cook a very few minutes, then pour into the dish four partly beaten eggs and stir like scrambled eggs. When done to taste, serve over toast.

A current magazine publishes a girlish statement contained in the early diary of Peggy Joyce, who has married nearly everybody: "As a matter of fact, I shall never marry, because all men do is deceive their wives." Which illustrates the saying that a lady always has the right to change her mind, and generally does.
