TRACKSTERS LOSE FIRST

The Baldwin High School Trackmen received the first defeat ever suffered from a Rochester aggregation in the opening indoor meet of the track season last Friday, losing 41.5 to 39.1. Only six men took part in the events due to the fact that basketball season had not yet closed, and the squad contains many of the candidates for track. The meet was considered a practice tilt.

Birmingham however made firsts in four events, Milton Porteous scoring in the 25 yard dash, and Harry Roy coming second. Porteous also came out first in the 228 yard run, James Winborn in the 80 yard run, and Porteous, Welch, York and Schwarz composing the Relay team, won second place. Rochester claimed the points for other second, and third place positions due to the fact that the Junior Class for the annual Junior and Senior banquet which men did not permit more than one entrant in most of the events.

STUDENT COUNCIL HOLDS ASSEMBLY

Speakers Appear On Program At Meet In Baldwin

The first assembly of the Student Council of the Baldwin Junior High School held in the Junior session room had for its purpose an account of the accomplishments and aims of the council.

William DeLee president of the council was chairman of the meeting. Speakers were Roxane Lambie, David Curry, Betty Wood, Ward Conwell and Principal McIntyre.

The council is a representative body chosen by the classes of the Junior High School who meet to carry out the plans and suggestions of the student body as a whole to better the school conditions.

Advisors are Mrs. Goldie Holchuck, Louis Hicks, Miss Vida McGiffin, Howard Crull and Principal Hart.

ART STUDENTS HOLD CONTEST

Three contests are being held in the Art classes of Baldwin High. A billboard, a cover for an advertising book, and a seal for the school are the main topics. The seal of the high school of Birmingham England has been ordered, and is to be used as a model for designing the Baldwin High seal.

The Art classes also make all the stage settings for the plays and operettas that are presented.

ADAMS NAMES HONOR STUDENTS

The Adams Junior High School announced the names of its four honor students for the first five week period of the second semester today. Students having an average of "A" are Betty Sears, Hester Giles, Mary Palmer, Mary Ann Reed. Those having "B" averages are Mary Lee Cole, Rosemary Neal, Bill Parry, Mary E. Robinson, Frederic Schwartze, Virginia Sweeney, Julia Preston, Betty Burns, Beth Ranney, Doris Bickley, Elizabeth McClure, Betty Rours, Dorothy Schwartze, Donald Stewart, Louise Stone, Frederick Boynton, Bob Asham, Roberta Chissus, Jack Cammer, Jane Pope, and Robert Ziegler.

BALDWIN GIRLS DOWN ADAMS

By sinking the sphere for four points in the last minute and one half to play the Baldwin Girls' second team was able to down the Adams Junior High Girls with a score of 10-6 last week.

The game opened with a whirlwind of passing by the Maroons and excellent defense by the Purple. The Baldwin team was leading at the end of the half 6-0. The Adams girls tied the score with two minutes more to play, but Baldwin forwards sank two baskets that netted them a hard won game.
