SPEECH CONTEST AWARDS MADE

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—Merritt D. Hill, owner of Stewart's Sweet Shop: "It strikes me little care is given to cleaning streets of the village. There is too much loose dirt on the pavement surface. It would seem that during the summer season at least, the streets could be washed down once a day and kept clean. For me the dusty streets mar an otherwise lovely village."

FIREMEN MAKE MONTH'S REPORT

A heavy property loss from fire is reported today for February in the village and township. According to figures of the village fire department, property valued at $20,800 was destroyed by fire. Insurance covered $9,000 of this an unpaired street, I believe that the proposed amendment to the charter would be most unjust. The present method of pavement assessment of one-sixth from the property owners is the affected territory is satisfactory. I heavily endorse the two bond issues, however. Without a doubt the village should purchase the proposed territory for the civic center. I also feel that a warehouse is advisable.

AMENDMENT DEFEAT SEEN

DEMOLAYS HEAR REPRESENTATIVE

M. A. Becker, of Kansas City, Mo., field representative of the grand council of De Molay, spoke Tuesday night before the James

S. Hassberger chapter in the Masonic Temple. Mr. Becker's talk took on the nature of an informal discussion, his work being to act as advisor to De Molay groups.

On March 16 he will address all the chapters in the district at a convention in the Masonic Temple in Detroit. The Birmingham chapter will supply the music for the occasion, those in charge an audience.
