RING IS CENTER OF SOCIAL LIFE

Hills Groups Flock To New Structure At Club

Interest of Hills equestrian circles is at fever pitch following the opening of the new indoor riding ring at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club. The house has become a scene of social activity with many members using the new ring for riding.

Children's rides are held on Saturdays, while the most important of the riding events are the Musical Rides, followed by a dinner at the club every Thursday evening.

Weekly a large contingent of the Hills social set attend this ride. Among those present last Thursday were: Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hammond, H. A. and Miss Betsey O'Dell, Dr. and Mrs. George P. Raynolds, Charles Winningham, C. C. Winningham, Miss F. H. Skae, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. DeVasser, James Vernon and Jimmie Vernon, Mrs. T. R. Donovan, A. G. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. G. Hall Roosevelt, B. E. Hopper, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Booth, and Miss Frances Booth. Miss Peggy Ainsworth, Mrs. G. S. Hughes, Miss Annette Phillips, G. A. Powers, C. L. Gray and Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Gagner.

HOLY LAND TOPIC OF CHURCH TALK

The Holy Land is the subject of a lecture to be delivered by A. L. Moore, of Pontiac, Sunday evening at the Southfield Methodist Church. The lecture will be illustrated by stereoscopic views taken by Mr. Moore in his travels through Palestine. The public is invited to attend, those in charge announce.

Social Briefs

Mr. S. M. Baker, of Dorchester road, returned Sunday from a sojourn of two weeks at West Baden, Ind.

Mrs. Harlow Davock, of Dewey street, returned Tuesday from a brief stay at the home of Mrs. George Moore, of Cleveland, formerly of Birmingham.

The Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church will meet at 2:30 p. m. next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Delbert C. Morris, of Madison avenue. Members of the society will read papers on the American negro.

BIRTHS

LITERARY CLUB ENTERTAIN STUDENTS ON DRAMA DAY

Seven members of the senior class of the Edna Chaffee Noble School of Expression, Detroit, were the guest artists of the Woman's Literary club at their annual Drama Day program Tuesday at the Baldwin Public Library.

Proceeding the meeting, the Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church served luncheon to approximately 60 members. Mrs. Fred Crawford, headed the program committee assisted by Mrs. Milton Schatz, and Mrs. M. M. Morgan.

Miss Margaret Ross, and Mrs. G. Esser, Olson, both of Birmingham, were among those to appear in "The Happy Day," a one-act play which featured the bill. The play was a farce centering about the social activities attendant upon the wedding of Sylvia Marlowe, played by Miss Margaret Ross.

The unusual last minute complications arise with the group elect refuses to attend any more social functions, being given in their "no." The cast includes: Mrs. W. E. Parker, Mrs. Ned Henry, Mrs. H. W. Chapman, Mrs. A. C. Jones, Miss Elizabeth Alor, Mrs. A. C. Jones and Miss Ross.

Miss Ross also appeared with Mrs. H. W. Chapman, of Rochester, in a skit, "Sour Grapes," which dealt with a conversation regarding the persons attending a fashionable evening.

A reading by Miss Lucille Alor and a group of songs by Mrs. Samuel McCall of Birmingham, completed the program. Mrs. Arthur Shirlcliffe, of Milford, accompanied her.

The next program of the club scheduled for May 13 will deal with the most recent news items in the charge of the World Works department.

SUPPORT GIVEN CANDIDACY

Women's Organizations Back Mrs. Cora Farrar in Election

Two women issued statements today endorsing the candidacy of Mrs. Cora Farrar for a place on the Birmingham board of education. She is a candidate in the election of June 10.

Mrs. Hugh H. Wellman, president-elect of the A. A. U. W. of Birmingham should be re-elected by a woman on its board of education, and especially so if Mrs. Fred D. Farrar, should be that one.

In Northfield and Duluth, Minn. and Kenilworth, a residential village near Chicago, I have seen the splendid results that have been achieved by a woman on the board have achieved.

At the national convention of the A. A. U. W. in New Orleans, La., Mrs. Farrar received special recognition for her work in education.

"Our village is fortunate in having a woman who is not only a student of but also a worker in educational affairs as a candidate for a position on the board of education."

The president of the Barnum School Parent Teacher association, Mrs. Frank C. Smith, says of Mrs. Farrar: "I feel that a woman on the board of education will be a fine thing for our community. The membership of the Parent Teacher Association is almost entirely composed of women and the teaching force is also largely women."

"Mrs. Farrar has proved her deep interest in children and education in her parental study group work."
