WISE WOMEN STUDY CHARACTER OF HANDS

By MADAME RUBINSTEIN
Hands of all kinds, expressing all manner of things. It's no wonder that fortune telling makes a study of the hands—they express more than any other feature, except perhaps the eyes, which a person's life has been and what it may be.

The wise woman takes care of her hands so that they will not betray any not nice secrets about her. Not that she can change their shape, for that is more or less determined, but she can keep them firm in contour and soft in skin texture, smooth, supple and well manicured. And she can use them gracefully and expressively, to show her poise and inner grace.

There are fragile, soft, slender hands, white (or maddened) leisure, tipped with pointed polished rose tinted nails. Hands that never work, whose only excuse for being is their useless beauty. For they are often very beautiful, these delicate, lazy, oriental hands.

But I know other sorts of lovely hands—lovely, because they show the charm and character of their possessors. Slender, supple, brown hands, long fingered and sensitive—slim, tapering, artistic hands, delicately expressive—sturdy, firm, capable hands—with smooth, square-tipped fingers—little, fragile, long-nailed hands, fluttering, wistful, futile—large, strong hands—small, chubby ones.

What do you want your hands to express? What do you want people to think about you when they see them? You want them for one thing to see that you are a fine, fastidious person, do you not? That you are capable, certainly, but that you are also particular and dainty, appreciative of beauty and smart appearance.

Untidy hands, red, chapped hands, fingers badly manicured, with ragged or overgrown cuticle, say that you are careless, lazy or indifferent to beauty. In short, they suggest that you are insensitive to good grooming, and lack of good grooming is the next thing to vulgarity.

Of course you are not vulgar because you neglect the good grooming of your hands—but such neglect is a characteristic of personal carelessness. Never permit a small appearance of neglect to mar the beauty that should be yours.

Take care of your hands. Let them express the nicest things about you—let them be a charming outer manifestation of your inner loveliness and personality.

DEATH TAKES R. W. HAACK, 24

Brief Attack Of Meningitis Fatal For Birmingham Man

Richard William Haack, 24 years old, was buried Sunday in Roseland Park cemetery. Services were held at 2 p. m. at the S. O. Wylie Bell home for funerals with Rev. J. Shallenberger Vance, pastor of the Southfield United Presbyterian Church officiating.

He died Saturday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Haack, of Knox avenue, following a three day illness, from spinal meningitis.

He was born in Southfield Township, attended the public schools there and later Baldwin high school from which he was graduated in 1924. He was a charter member of the Harry Brooks memorial society of Southfield and was employed as a landscape gardener in the village.

Besides his parents he is survived by: four brothers, George and Alfred, of South Lyon, William, of Howell, Edward, of Birmingham, and two sisters, Eleanor and Winifred both of Birmingham.

WAITE HOYT

Waite Hoyt, the veteran "school-boy pitcher" of the New York Yankees, ranks with Dazzy Vance, Brooklyn ace, as the best of right-handed pitchers in the majors today. He is Miller Huggins' whole pitching staff this spring. He alone among the Yankee twirlers has been a consistent winner.

STUDEBAKER

world's largest builder of Eights offers championship performance at One-Profitee prices in The Commander Eight

$1495 at the factory

COMMANDER EIGHT CONVERTIBLE CABRIOLET, $1645. Six wire wheels and trunk rack standard equipment. COMMANDER EIGHT COUPE, $1495. Price at factory. Bumpers and spare tires extra.

TODAY'S Commander Eight has swept to a popularity eclipsing even that of its predecessor, the car which sped 25,000 miles in 22,968 minutes.

Studebaker, Builder of Champions, holder of every official speed and endurance record for fully equipped stock cars, now sells more 8-cylinder cars than any other manufacturer on earth.

The first Studebaker straight eight was introduced at last year's motor shows. Its champion performance started the nation's swing to Studebaker. Smart, youthful style added still greater impetus. But Studebaker's One-Profitee value is the real reason for Studebaker's supremacy.

The Commander Eight blends flashing style and supple power with comfort unknown until Studebaker introduced ball bearing spring suspension.

Hydraulic shock absorbers further enhance its travel ease. Double-drop frame is lower, costlier, but steeper and safer. Easier, more powerful brakes; steel-core steering wheel; non-shattering windshield—Commander quality makes its One-Profitee price quite as remarkable as its performance.

And Commander performance is something you can never forget, once you enjoy it for an hour. May we place a Commander at your disposal?
