FE from these Two Thieves

What a comfortable feeling it is to know that in your ox at the bank there are policies in theft and from fire!

Side by side, these two thieves of the night are ever ready to place grasping fingers upon your home—your valuables uables. Fire and Burglary insurance may be had in so many convenient and sconomical forms that it seems almost inconceivable that people should neglect to take advantage of them.

Which Policy is Best ?

When an insurance man comes to see you and talks his business, you may be very much inclined to grow impatient with him—not see him at all, perhaps.

perhaps.

But, to an important extent, he is doing his best to safeguard you from yourself.

To do without fire insurance is as short-sighted as to do without life insurance. Indeed, insurance of all kinds is man's best protection against what he pleases to call either "face" or "ill-luck."
