ALDWIN BOWS TO RIVERITES

The Baldwin nine, with the aid of some poor decisions and a pile of unluckily "boots," was defeated by Ezzore baseball team 5 to 4 score last Tuesday. Although the local "fingers" played better brand of ball and committed fewer errors than the River Team they were unable to overcome the lead Ezzore already taken.

The bid for the game by Baldwin came in the last inning when Ed and Brian singled, and Edheim got on with an error. Ed scored the first two batsmen. Then Nordheim scored on an error and a wild pitch. Nordheim ended the game by popping a fly to second.

The local Nine plays Wyandotte this Friday at Barzun Field.

Arithmetic was the subject of discussion at the principals' meeting held at Baldwin High School Monday evening. At this meeting representatives of several leading firms were present, presenting their claims. The teachers principals looked over twelve different sets of arithmetic books, in which they were superior the present volumes.

All I know about this case is I know nothing," announced Bert Andrews, witness in a trial in St. Louis.

WEATHER MAP TO BE SHOWN

A feature of the physiography class which will be shown in the Baldwin High school exhibit tomorrow evening is a weather map, developed by the members of the class in order that they may learn something in connection with active weather observations.

BALDWIN TO ISSUE SCHOOL HANDBOOK

Proofs are now being read on the handbook which is to be distributed to beginning students at Baldwin High School starting next fall, by Principal Melvin C. Hart and Miss Heulah Packard, the general chairman. The book is expected to go to the compositors the last of this week. Orders have been placed at 1,000.

Printing of the handbook will be done in the High School print shop. The booklets will include descriptions of every activity and club in the school, informative to new students.

Ray A. Palmer and L. M. Randall were chosen by the Birmingham board of education to represent them at the national convention of business managers being held May 20-23 in Columbus, O.

R. O. THINCLADS DOWN BALDWIN

By a narrow margin Baldwin's Thincclads were defeated by the Hazel Park nine by a 6-4 score. Last week they were vanquished at Barzun Field by the Baldwin Junior High squad to the tune of 11-5.

Stewart and Waldorf, third baseman and fielder respectively, for the Purple aggregation, exhibited stellar play. Stewart cracked the ball for several long hits, including a three-bagger, and Waldorf stored two hits out of two times at bat. Other members of the team also exhibited superior play.

Adams has as fine a baseball team and as potential possibilities we rank with the best in the League.

TROPHY TO BE PRIZE FOR SCHOOL EVENTS

An interesting variation from the usual run of outdoor class parties is planned for the near future by the members of the seventh grade at Baldwin Junior High School. A trophy will be awarded to the winners in competitive games and stunts. It is planned that this trophy will be perpetual, used from year to year at similar events.

The committee for the party has been named and is as follows: Billy White, Jack Mills, Dorothy Dalee, Philip Seamer, Beatrice Grooms, and Maxine George.

Tow Pillon of Chicago (re-named) and movie and laughed heartily while others wept, and he was finally put out of the water. He sued the management and the judge upheld Pillon's right to laugh, regardless of the nature of the show, and awarded him $300.

Every One Throughout the country you Experienced will find in nearly every community a Golden Rule funeral director—never more than one in any community, however. You can depend upon him, always.

One reason for this is that he is experienced. We could not hold fellowship in the Order of the Golden Rule without long years of experience behind us.

GIRLS' 9 WINS 3RD STRAIGHT

Last Tuesday the Baldwin High School girls baseball team defeated the Farmington nine by a 22 to 14 score. This is the third straight for the local team.

The game was played in ideal football weather and was too cold to permit errorless ball. Both teams erred continuously.

The aggressiveness of the Baldwin team was the outstanding feature of the game. Margaret Coryell knocked out four batters while Lilah Johnson rapped out one.

The home team's big inning came in the fifth when 13 batters went to the plate. Nine runs were pushed across before the rally could be stopped. At the beginning of the sixth inning the Alaroon and White squad was leading by 13 runs which was too great a lead for Farmington to overcome. Her bid for the lead came when 7 runs were scored amidst a score of errors.

Thus far this season Baldwin has defeated all comers, setting Rochester down 17 to 8, Northville 21 to 8, and Farmington 22 to 14.

The local team journeys to Hazel Park Tuesday to add another scalp to their list.
