CLUB SEASON HITS PEAK

Business and Professional Women's Benefit Bridge Thursday

The benefit bridge to be given next Thursday at the Community House by the members of the Business and Professional Women's club marks the peak of the organization's fall activities. Proceeds from the affair are to be donated to the Community House.

Mrs. Margaret Smith is chairman of the committee at work on the bridge. Assisting her are the Misses Mary Bradwood, Nellie Bryant and Myrtle Kraft.

Tomorrow evening 11 members of the club will attend a Detroit theater. Miss Thelma Whiting is in charge of arrangements for the event.

Club activities also include a football game at Ann Arbor, 10 members motoring there Nov. 22 to attend the Iowa-Michigan game.

At their regular luncheon meeting last Thursday the club had as its guest Mrs. T. R. Donovan, Mrs.

Grace Trumbull and Miss Ida Camp.

In honor of Mrs. Stanton Latham, of New Garden, N. Y., who is the house guest of her mother, Mrs. Walter Scholm, at Kewness-avenue, Mrs. F. R. Mixer, of Poppleton avenue, entertained Tuesday at a luncheon bridge at her home. Tallman passed and French blue tapers marked for 18 guests.

Yesterday E. W. Seasholtz, of Kenosha avenue, entertained for Mrs. Latham at a luncheon bridge at her home.

LIBRARY AID IS SELECTED

Announcement is made today of the appointment of Miss Alice Hagelshaw, of Battle Creek, general assistant at the Baldwin Public Library. Miss Hagelshaw will take up her duties Nov. 25. She is a graduate of the library science school at the University of Michigan.

SCHOOL CAST W. C. T. U. HOLDS WATTS PLAY ANNUAL MEET

Final rehearsals are under way today for "The Song of the South" at the Adams Junior High School annual freshmen play which will be presented at 8 p. m. Nov. 22 at the school.

The play has for its setting the ancestral home of the Dorrinda family in Hanington, Va. Rose, the daughter, has had to accept considerable loss of her family fortune because to dwindle. Her ability to cope with situations furnishes the plot for the production.

The bill is being directed by Mrs. Ann Gerovont and Mrs. Della H. Wilson. Parts in the vehicle are taken as follows: Rose, Betty Burns; Mammy, Janet McCarthy; Ruthie Beveridge, Beth Hanny; Grant Lee, Donna Russell; Aunt Hickock, Robert Backborough; Burton "Bud" Dorrinda, Bill Crickshank; Stephanie DeBarrie, Julia Preston; Halle Burke, Gust Martin; Elizabeth Paynter, Mary Palmer and Major Dorrinda, Robert Ziegler.

The Troy Methodist Church will hold the forty-ninth annual two-day convention of the Oakland County Women's Christian Temperance Union which closed yesterday with a record attendance of 150 members.

Yesterday's session featured the registration with messages from many of the delegates followed by the reading of reports. Outstanding among the speakers were Mrs. Ada Mumford, vice president of the state organization, and Mrs. Mabel Gardner, of Royal Oak, president of the sixth district. Highlights of the national convention were given by Mrs. Myrtle A. Lockwood, of Holy.

A program presented by 25 children from the Troy school and featuring temperance songs and yells was also included on the program.

"I shall all be made alive" (I Cor. 15:22).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Through discernment of the spiritual opposite of materiality, even to study brainology; for Christ, Truth, man will reopen with the key of divine Science the gates of Paradise which human belief have closed, and will find himself unfallen, upright, pure, and free, not needing to consult almanacs for the probabilities either of his life or of the weather, not needing to study brainology; for Christ, how much of a man he is" (p. 171).

VILLAGERS AT MACCABEE MEET

A number of villagers were present at the meeting of the Oakland County association of Maccabees last Thursday in Pontiac. A business session was held in the morning followed by a luncheon. In the afternoon the initial degree was conferred upon five candidates with the floor work presented by the Louise Minor Guards, of Detroit. The Pontiac Hive also gave a short program. Members were present from Detroit, Port Huron and Saginaw.

Nearly 75 guests were present at the tea which was one of many affairs being given throughout the country in observance of national founder's day of the sorority. Among the villagers who are members of Mu Phi Epsilon are: Mrs. Warren P. Gibson, Mrs. Thomas C. Corin, Mrs. Clayton H. Gracy, Miss Betty Lamborn, Mrs. Fred Boynton, Mrs. Frank Shuell and Mrs. John Gordon.
