

ALREADY THE ECENTRIC HAS PUBLISHED SEVERAL "GLEANERS" LETTERS. HOW THE SEASON HAS, AS ONE PHRASER SAID: "AFTER ALL, AS THE SEASONS GO, YOU CAN'T BE TOO EARLY TO GET INTO THE ACT. WE ARE TO GO."

Phasant—At $40, A Phasant, Is Expensive!

Phasant, ordinarily, is a very expensive fowl. People who eat phasant, ordinarily, are very prosperous people, or—they are hunters. But the point is phasant is a very expensive fowl.

PLEASANT RIDGE OFFICER HIT BY ASSAULT, BOND FOR ASSAULT

PORR ALSO IN ROW

Charles Stephens, chief of the Pleasant Ridge, is out on $300 bond today awaiting examination before Justice Floyd S. Buck on a charge of assault on L. Wilson, chief assistant prosecutor of Oakland County.

Stephens ordered Wilson to get out of the booth and struck him. Wilson was arrested by Sheriff's men.

Stephens was made at a special meeting of the Pleasant Ridge Village Commission.

SIX MEN FINED AS DISORDERLY

Week-end Celebrators Pay $300 In Justices Court

Six men, charged with being "orderly persons," were given fines totaling $300 Monday when they were arraigned before Justice Floyd S. Buck in the Birmingham Justice Court.

Stafen Motyl, of the Dixie Hotel, Flint; John Rozo, 1540 N. Saginaw street, Flint; were given the options of $35 fine in jail each, and Cass Rackalick, 122 Baker street, Flint, was fined $75.

Concerning Birmingham

By HOPE F. HALGREN (Village Commissioner) The Village Commission is the subject of the statement that Birmingham is and will undoubtedly continue to be a high type residential community. It is determined that, lying as the village is between the growing industries and future plans and development, it should take into consideration the Village Commission last year authorized the planning commission to employ an expert to prepare a master plan for this area.

G. T. SPEEWEY TAKEN BEFORE COUNCIL

Whether Detroit will vote on the ordinance submitted to the council by Joseph Bower, builder of the Ambassador bridge, which would permit the proposed highway over the Grand Trunk tracks between Detroit and Pontiac to cross Detroit streets is being considered today by the officials.

BOWER ASKS FOR VOTE ON RIGHT-OF-CROSS STREET INTERSECTIONS

Justice Buck heard the story today of a phasant that was impounded. He ordered the three double-barreled shotguns of the phasant to be destroyed.

EARLY EDITION!

The next edition of The Eccentric will be issued Wednesday morning, November 27, because of Thanksgiving falling on regular publication day.

LOVETT LAUDS BUDGET BILL FOR COUNTY

William F. Lovett and C. E. Rightor, national figures in governmental circles, were in Detroit, were the guest speakers Tuesday at the first annual meeting of the Michigan Council of Women at the Methodist Episcopal Church.

CAR COLLISION ENDS IN DEATH

Coroner J. Lee Voorhees was to begin an investigation today into an automobile collision at the Ten Mile road, because of the day which caused the death of one man and seriously injured another.

FLIES TO FRIEND DESPITE STORM

Bruce Shaw Goes To Aid Of G. W. Erwin, Hurt While Hunting

At a special meeting of the Oakland County Board of Commissioners Monday, Luther D. Allen, of Bloomfield Hills, and Isaac Bond and Howard C. Hillman, members of the road commission, announced the organization of the County Board of Planning and Zoning Commission.

CHILDREN EAGER TO LEARN, LIBRARY REPORT INDICATES

Birmingham's little folks, boys and girls under 16 years of age, are very busy these days in acquiring the things we call books.

OUTLINES HIS PLANS

Justice Buck heard the story today of a phasant that was impounded. He ordered the three double-barreled shotguns of the phasant to be destroyed.

RIGHTOR ALSO TALKS

William F. Lovett and C. E. Rightor, national figures in governmental circles, were in Detroit, were the guest speakers Tuesday at the first annual meeting of the Michigan Council of Women at the Methodist Episcopal Church.

ONE MAN KILLED, ANOTHER SERIOUSLY HURT IN CRASH

Coroner J. Lee Voorhees was to begin an investigation today into an automobile collision at the Ten Mile road, because of the day which caused the death of one man and seriously injured another.

SHOWS BUDGET VALUE

To illustrate the value of budgeting in accounting for county funds, Mr. Rightor pointed out that nearly 50 per cent of the total expenditures in Wayne county were for welfare work.

SIX ARE APPOINTED NEW PARK ADVISORS

At a special meeting of the Oakland County Board of Commissioners Monday, Luther D. Allen, of Bloomfield Hills, and Isaac Bond and Howard C. Hillman, members of the road commission, announced the organization of the County Board of Planning and Zoning Commission.

COMMISSION AGAIN HAS RECORD MEETING

Anotat record for brevity was established by the Village Commission at Monday's session which lasted only 18 minutes.

BANKS BEGIN DISTRIBUTION OF CHRISTMAS CLUB FUNDS

Bank began distributing $17,000 of the previous year's Christmas Club funds.

BOARD HEARS VISITING NURSE NEXT MONDAY

Further Information Sought On Village Welfare Work

DETROIT WOMAN HERE

Miss Emelie G. Sargent, superintendent of the Visiting Nurse association of Detroit, will appear before members of the Birmingham village commission at 2 p. m. Monday to discuss the superintending of the visiting nurse work with the village.

ASK 200 FOOT ROAD

Birmingham's village commission, in order to establish a definite plan for the wider Woodward boulevard project, the plan offered by Arthur C. Conroy of Boston, village planner, yesterday presented to the commission.

BALDWIN TEAM AGAIN IS LOSER

Yields To Hazel Park Grid-Ders In Close Contest, 7-0

CLUB TO OPEN FOR TEACHERS

Oakland County Schoolmen Begin Season Next Week With Banquet

Can't Even Score

Birmingham failed to score during the remaining minutes of play but their efforts were fruitless. The same running back that figured prominently in the Fordson game proved worthless in their finishing struggle.

Punks Are Frequent

Both aggregations pointed frequently. On a mythical contest between the two schools, the Baldwin band paraded in front of the Fordson school and slid down the field between the halves of the field.

FURNITURE STORAGE

Birmingham's tuning attack (Turn to Page 6, No. 3)

EDITOR RESIGNS IS TAKEN OFF BALDWIN CARD

Announcement is made today of the resignation of Raymond Girardin as editor of The Eccentric. Mr. Girardin assumed duties Monday in the editorial department of The Detroit Times.

FOOTBALL RELATIONS WITH BATH CITY TEAM SEVERED

Football relations between Baldwin High School and the Mount Clemens High School have been definitely severed for at least two years as a result of a decision reached by the Board of Education of the Baldwin High School.

SUGGESTIONS FOR HIGHWAY ARE OFFERED

H. T. Ellerby, Sends Highway Commissioner Plans For Village

STILL RESISTS LETTER

Mr. Conroy's master plan and a copy of the report of the planning committee included in the letter which follows:

CLUB TO OPEN FOR TEACHERS

Oakland County Schoolmen Begin Season Next Week With Banquet

Can't Even Score

Birmingham failed to score during the remaining minutes of play but their efforts were fruitless. The same running back that figured prominently in the Fordson game proved worthless in their finishing struggle.

Punks Are Frequent

Both aggregations pointed frequently. On a mythical contest between the two schools, the Baldwin band paraded in front of the Fordson school and slid down the field between the halves of the field.

FURNITURE STORAGE

Birmingham's tuning attack (Turn to Page 6, No. 3)

Vertical text on the right edge of the page.