DINNER GIVEN FOR FAREWELL

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Strelinger Honored At Affair

One of the most interesting affairs of the week was the bon voyage dinner given Tuesday night at their home by Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Boynton, of Dorchester road, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Strelinger.

Mrs. Strelinger and her daughter, Nancy, is leaving Friday for New York. On Monday they will sail on the Empress of Australia for a trip around the world. They plan to return late in April.

The table decorations were most unusual the centerpiece resembling a miniature ocean. The centerpieces which the voyagers will touch bordered the ocean. Various colored tapers flanked the centerpiece. Among the guests upon the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Strelinger, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Slau, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pease, Mr. and Mrs. W. Francis C. Bagby.

SOCIAL SEASON HITS PEAK EACH THANKSGIVING DAY

In spite of the ever increasing round of gay social festivities one season of the year seems set aside for family gatherings. That season is Thanksgiving.

It is the season of jolly family reunions, of gay young sons and daughters home from school and of relatives brought together for the annual day of feasting and reminiscences.

Simplicity is the keynote everywhere. Family dinners predominate with the more extensive entertaining confined to the clubs and even there simplicity prevails.

At the Bloomfield Open Hunt club a supper dance is being given tomorrow evening, honoring the officers of the Polish cavalry, winners this year of the International military trophy at Madison Square gardens. Preceding the dinner the team will give an exhibition of jumping at 7 p. m. in the riding ring.

Among those who have made reservations for the supper dance are: Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wingham, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Thom, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Slocum Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Donovan, Dr. and Mrs. George P. Raynald and Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Judd.

Oakland Hills Country club was the scene of the annual feather party last Saturday evening. Nearly 400 persons attended. Mr. and Mrs. Carl S. Fairbanks, of Yorkshire road, were among those who entertained upon the occasion, complimenting Walter F. Lloyd, of Dayton, O. Places were marked for 10 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Jessup, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bladon, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ustick and Mr. and Mrs. J.

H. DeVisser were among the villagers at Oakland Hills.

Miss Alta Parks and Miss Mildred Patterson, of Michigan State College, are returning to the village of Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Shuart and their young son, John, are leaving today for Battle Creek where they will be the guests of Mr. Shuart's parents, Prof. and Mrs. W. L. Shuart, for Thanksgiving week end.

On Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Otter are entertaining at a large family dinner party at their new home, "Apple Downer."

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Micou, of Puritan road, will give as their guests Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Bromley, Walter Bromley and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sanderson.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Gordon Sanders left yesterday for Kansas City to be the Thanksgiving guests of Mrs. Sanders' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones. Mrs. Sanders plans to remain there a fortnight.

Hazelton, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hazelton of the Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Tillson will give a Thanksgiving dinner at their home, "Highwood" Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Hazelton are leaving next week for their home at Coral Gables, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Braisted, of Pilgrim road, will have as their guests Thanksgiving week end Mrs. S. J. Wilson, E. H. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wilson and their young sons, Robert and Philip, at St. Johns, Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson, of Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Wallace of the Hills, are entertaining at a family dinner on Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Fred Rollins, of "Red Gables," will spend Thanksgiving with her son, Fred, Jr., who is a student at the Principia School, St. Louis, Mo.

Miss Catherine Lipka, formerly of Birmingham and now a student at Michigan State College will be the guest of Miss Catherine Brown, of Greenwood avenue, over Thanksgiving week end.

Among the younger set who are returning home for Thanksgiving are: Gladys and James Evans, students at Princeton; Jack Blanchard and Ned Roehm of Michigan. Robert W. Muzzy, a student at Tome School, near Baltimore, Md., is also planning to spend the holiday with his parents.

Miss Evelyn Payton is returning from Butler College, Butler, Ind., to spend Thanksgiving in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Hobbie, of Oakland avenue, will spend the holiday at Gilbert Lake as the guests of Mrs. Edith Bookham.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Conning, of Ravine road, will have as their guests Thanksgiving week end the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Trevegn, of Cadillac.

Frederick Whittlesey, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Whittlesey, of Hickory Grove road, has returned from the University of the South, Sewanee, Tenn. to spend Thanksgiving with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond B. Collins, of Abbey road, are among those who are entertaining at a family dinner for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Livingston, of Greenwood avenue, will have as their guests over Thanksgiving Mrs. Livingston's mother, Mrs. C. M. Healy, of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Ilett, of Henley drive, are motoring to Oak Park, Ill., to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. Ilett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ilett.

Her brother, Frederick Cox, a freshman at the University of Michigan was also in the village over Thanksgiving.

PLAYERS OPEN DANCE SEASON

Colorful Harvest Scene Will Feature First Party Saturday Night

Society is deriving a certain impetus from the opening of the Players' dance season Saturday night. The dance which will be held then in the Playhouse will be the inspiration for many delightful dinner and supper parties.

For the occasion the Playhouse will be converted into a colorful harvest scene under the direction of Mrs. John T. Egarty and the decoration committee.

Mrs. Fletcher Richards will act as hostess for the evening while Mrs. Stowe D. Baldwin is general chairman of the dance series. Mrs. E. C. Ryan, refreshment chairman, Howard Simpson, music chairman, and Mrs. D. C. Murray, stunt chairman, complete the general committee.

Preceding the dance Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Justus, of Oakland Tooting lane, will entertain at a supper party at their home. The party will be marked for 20 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Murray, of Pilgrim road, are also among those entertaining preceding the dance. They are giving a dinner for 10 guests. Covers will be laid for Mr. and Mrs. F. Farrington Holt, Mr. and Mrs. W. Laurance Shaffer, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Egarty, and Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Richards.

Another group of villagers are planning a subscription dinner at the Fox and Hounds Inn preceding the affair. Among the party are: Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pease, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Shuart, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hillis, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Salisbury, Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Clark.

HOME SCENE OF WEDDING

The home of the bride's parents will be the scene of the wedding at 8 o'clock this evening of Miss Marie Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bradley, of Park street, and Vernon Griffith, Rev. Henry S. Evans, pastor of the United Presbyterian Church, will perform the nuptials.

The bride's only attendant will be Mrs. George Hale, while Lloyd McQuarior will act as best man. Upon their return from a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Griffith will be at home at 468 Park street.
