

BOOK WEEK IS ANNOUNCED

Opening Of School Weeks Circulation in Village Library

Activities at the Baldwin Public Library today center about the annual children's book week which will be held there Nov. 17 to 23. A similar display of children's books, similar to that arranged last year in the first observance of the week, is being planned, according to Mrs. Nancy B. Thomas, librarian.

Opening of the school year has swelled the circulation of the library considerably, the October report shows. Books distributed through the branches maintained at the Pierce, Quanton and Adams schools numbered 2,651 while the total circulation for the month was 8,938.

According to Mrs. Thomas, October's circulation was the best in the history of the library, the circulation of 7,486 for April 1929 being the previous record. A gain of 2,513 in circulation is reported over October, 1928. The branch libraries at the Adams and Quanton schools which have been opened during the past year are responsible for considerable increase," Mrs. Thomas said.

During the month 169 books were added to the shelves, while reports show 144 new persons registered. Total registration is 3,782.

Among the biographical volumes added are "Queen Elizabeth" (Catherine Anthony), "Up to Now," the autobiography of Alfred E. Smith, former governor of New York, and "Mad Anthony Wayne" (Thomas Boyd).

Some of the books placed in the travel section are "The Ends of the Earth" (Roy Chapman Anderson), "An Arctic Expedition" (Streeter), and "The Falcons of the Giving" (Experiences of the Lafayette Flying Corp., Nordhoff).

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lawrence of Belfast, who celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary, have never quarreled.

He Indicted 299

Indictment of 299 persons by a federal grand jury at South Bend, Ind., on prohibition and graft charges, resulted from an investigation of several months' duration by United States Attorney Oliver M. Loomis, above, into the alleged breakdown of law enforcement in northern Indiana. Special investigators from Washington aided him.

THE WAY OF THE WORLD

By GROVE PATTERSON

AS TO GENIUS

Many young people spend a lot of time wishing they had genius. The only success they seem able to visualize or understand is the sudden success that sometimes comes through the possession of unusual talent. Their attention might be called to this paragraph by Julian Ralph: "I do not despise genius—indeed, I wish I had a basket of it instead of a wish, but yet, after a great deal of experience and observation, I have become convinced that industry is a better horse to ride than genius. It may never carry any one man as far as genius has carried individuals, but industry—patient, steady, intelligent industry—will carry thousands into comfort and even into celebrity, and this it does with absolute certainty; whereas genius often refuses to be tamed and managed, and often goes with wretched morals. If you are to wish for either, wish for industry."

A GOOD POLICY

A successful man was one asked to set forth in a few words the policy that has accounted for his success. He said: "My policy has been to take up one thing after another and handle it the best way I could, without excitement or worry or running around in circles. Just one thing after another—doing the best I could." That is a simple policy, simply stated. There is a great deal in it. It works.

TEXTS

Once in a great while one goes to church and hears the preacher take a text from the little known Bible and build a sermon around the text in the old-fashioned way. And then one wonders whether modern preaching is better preaching—or is it just something different?

IN TWENTY MINUTES

It is said the Spanish war was won in 20 minutes. It took only that long to destroy the fleet. One thinks of that when he hears over-talkative people trying to do business in a conference. So many of us are not content with stating our position, simply and firmly. We insist in elaborating, repeating, bringing in matter which does not belong in the discussion wasting time and befuddling the issue. So many questions can be perfectly answered by "yes" or "no." Most matters can be handled in a sentence—if we just had willpower enough to stop talking.

CO-OPERATION

If you live in a town which has an automobile club, join it. Every day you are on the road your driving is made more comfortable and more safe because of the long-continued efforts of auto clubs. Roads in this country are coming to be splendidly marked, abuses corrected, and accidents cut down in number by the work of motor organizations. You who do not belong to the club and pay no dues go out on the road and enjoy the benefits of something you have not helped to pay for. It is not fair.

Wife: "It's my birthday today, and you haven't remembered!" Hubby: "My dear, how could I remember? You don't look a day older!"

A Profit-Sharing Method of Advertising

This sale has been developed by the United Drug Co. as an advertising plan. Rather than spend large sums of money in other ways to convince you of the merit of these goods, they are spending it on this sale in permitting us to sell you two fullsize packages of high quality merchandise for the price of one, plus one cent. It costs money to get new customers, but the sacrifice in profit is justified, because we know these goods will please you.

The Rexall Store is a link in the largest chain of co-operatively operated retail drug stores in the world. There are over 10,000 stores in the chain scattered through the United States, Alaska, Canada, Newfoundland, Great Britain, Ireland, Bermuda, British Guiana, Mexico, Hawaii, South Africa, Egypt and China. The Rexall Store has the exclusive sale for all United Drug Company trade-marked merchandise, most of which is made at its own factories.

These goods are supplied direct to us—a most economical method of distribution. Rexall products have been favorably known for years as representing the highest quality merchandise at lowest consistent prices. In order to introduce and acquaint more people with the merit of these goods, the Rexall Stores from time to time conduct special selling events of which the present sale is one. You can always save money with satisfaction at Your Rexall Drug Store.
