ARMISTICE DAY

MONDAY NOVEMBER 11th

TODAY-

*Eleven Years of Progress and Happiness
Under the Reign of Peace How Precious and How We Must Perpetuate This Thought of Nations!*

Sleeping—in that last, long sleep—in the thousands of graves in this country and in Europe, are the men who gave their lives that the rest of us might live. Fighting, fighting, against a common enemy, they left our American shores by the hundreds of thousands—two million of them—and many of them never returned.

To them, we bow our heads this Armistice Day, in grateful tribute for their supreme sacrifice that we might live. To them, may we dedicate our present and future thoughts and actions so that the dreadful enemy, War, may be naught but a haunting memory of the past to all nations

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."—(JOHN 15:13)
