Solid Comfort
The minister had observed that the most regular attendant at his church was a hardworking wash-erwoman, who, Sunday after Sunday, was always to be found in her pew. The minister felt he must commend her. "Mrs. Brown," he said, "I notice you at church every Sunday. Do you enjoy the beautiful music?" "No, it's no that." "Perhaps—perhaps you enjoy my sermons?" "No, it's no that." "Well, what is it that brings you here every week?" "Well, it's like this, I work hard a week, and it's no 'often I get a little comfortable late wi' aae Arizona still insists on spelling it "Boulder Dam."
