

GREEK PARLIAMENT MOVES TO START NEW AGORA WORK

ATHENS—The Greek Parliament has finally ratified the terms of the concession under which the American School of Classical Studies at Athens is to excavate the Agora, or business center, of that ancient city.

The word "Agora" is usually rendered into English as "market place" and so conjures up visions of stalls and booths where the products of their farms upon the Attic plain. The Agora, Athens, however, had nothing in common with the modern conception of a public market. The word itself is more properly translated as "gathering place" and it was in the Agora that most of the social, civic and religious life of the day was carried on.

Schwartz tossed an incomplete pass. Harris lost eight yards and Schwartz punned out of the field on the 21 completing Birmingham's only truly threatening drive of the game. Mr. Clemens' line became stronger. Mallett broke away for two yards and then Mr. Clemens' line snapped back five yards to their own 20 yard peg. Another five yards was ruled against Schwartz on the 35. Deer received a 10 yard pass from Schwartz for the Maroons' last yard of the initial period.
