

TROY MAN IS EXONERATED

Charges Dropped Against E. B. Davis When Witness Fails To Appear

Charge of fraud was dismissed against E. B. Davis, Troy Township farmer, Friday when he appeared in circuit court, Pontiac. The action was taken when complaining witnesses failed to appear against him. Davis was arrested on a complaint signed by Mrs. A. C. Born, of Trowbridge Farms, who charged ed he sold her a horse for $5,000 which was not worth that amount. He waived examination earlier Friday in Justice Floyd S. Buck's court. The Pontiac court room was crowded when the case was dismissed and numerous friends congratulated him. He has been a resident of Troy for 17 years.
