

Baldwin Downs Milles Second Victory

FROSH PARTY IS PLANNED

Annual Masquerade To Be Held At Baldwin Oct. 11

The annual Freshman masquerade will be held Oct. 11, in the auditorium of the Baldwin High school. Only students of the Baldwin Junior High and of the 9th grade at Adams are eligible to attend. Although costumes are not stressed, prizes will be given for the best and funniest costumes and for most originally dressed couple.

A committee of three teachers, Miss Frieda Hugget, Mrs. Leta Bloomfield, and Miss Rhoda Demore have been appointed to take charge of the decorations and refreshments.

STUDENT CAMPAIGN NETS 289 SALES

As a result of one week's canvassing in the high schools, 289 "Baldwinians" have been sold.

The theme for this year's campaign is based upon the growth of the high school in spirit and character and the growth and character of Birmingham.

DRAMATIC CLUB BEGINS YEAR

Miss Dorothy Allen, English instructor and H. Earle Corrovent, instructor of public speaking, are the advisors elected by the High School Dramatic club, the purpose of which is to stimulate the presentation of better plays in the school. Gahn Klannson is president and Esther Rasche, business manager.

Plans for the program are to devote the first semester of this year to the discussion of such questions as, "How plays should be selected, how characters should be chosen and the problem concerning just what plays are adaptable to high schools auditoriums, and the technique of stage craft." The plays will then be read and evaluated according to standard set up at the first of the year. During the term, one or more plays will be presented.

Any senior high student wishing to join the club may submit his name to the organization for consideration as a possible member. It is announced. The club meeting will be held every second Tuesday at 7 p. m.

JOHNSON'S MEN OUTCLASS '11 FROM PONTIAC

Schwarze Scores Touchdown Of Game Which Ends With 6-0 Count

PT. HURON GAME NEXT

By GORTON GREENE

The Birmingham High School football team appropriately opened the home season by handing the Maize and Blue gridgers of Grosse Pointe, a 6-0 defeat last Friday afternoon at Pierce field in the second tilt of the season. Birmingham dominated Pontiac in the first game and will meet Port Huron next Saturday in Port Huron.

the ball on their own two yard line and Hermet pointed to the 25 yard peg. Brian nabbed the punt and ran it back a short distance. Schwarze and Gore were good for a small drive on a cross-back. Gore ripped 11 yards off-guard for first down and then Schwarze drove the ball to the blue seven yard line on off-tackle drives. Gore bunched around to the six inch line and then back for a short loss. From the one yard line Schwarze dove through and placed the ball six inches over the line for the first touchdown of the game. Birmingham failed to carry the ball over and the score remained 6-0.

CLASSES NAME NEW OFFICERS

Stoddard White, Curtiss Mathew, Bob Hart, and Ward Clark were carried off the honors as presidents of their respective classes. Next Wednesday the scout troops under Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Lita Blooifield will be entertaining at a picnic to be given by Mrs. Fowler and Mrs. Lambie.

Other class officers are, Virginia Hugg, vice-president, and Durwood Harris, secretary and treasurer, of the 11A class, Morris Winborn vice-president, and Shirley Brown, secretary and treasurer for the 11B class, Barbara Jackson, vice-president, and Miller Townsend, vice-president, and Jane Fowler, secretary and Esther Hainey, treasurer, of the 10A class, and Bill, treasurer of the 10B class.

SCOUT TROOP IS ORGANIZED

The Girl Scout troop under Mrs. Lita Blooifield held their organization meeting. As a result of the elections, Peggy Mills, Harriet Clark, and Marjorie Allen are now patrol leaders, and Marion Bany, Eleanor Porter, and Esther Miller corporals.

GIRL RESERVES NAME OFFICERS

Mrs. Harold S. Gray, of Birmingham, spoke on her work in China at the first Girl Reserve meeting of this year at the Community House. Mrs. Gray related some of her experiences with the Chinese girls in the College and described conditions under which it was necessary for the girls to work while endeavoring to obtain an education. Miss S. Grille of the Girl Reserve department in Detroit, and Mrs. Robert F. Grindley, former advisor of the club, were also present.

Margaret Cooney was elected secretary, Katherine Hunt, treasurer, and Miss Eleanor Miller, faculty advisor to work with Miss Emily Walker who has been advisor of the club for several years. In answer to an invitation from Mrs. Gray, the members held a roast at her cottage at Lake Angelus.

Shepherd ran the kickoff to his 35 yard line and then sliced three yards off-tackle. From the 38 yard line he ran a 22 yard drive. Grosse Pointe drove 23 yards off-tackle for a first down. Gore pushed through through the Maize line for a five yard gain and then Hanneman made a 45 yard mark. Hanneman shot off a pass to Hertman for 20 yards but was downed by Brian before he could make the final half.

Washingtonites Plan Action

Although the Senior Washington group is not busy with any particular project at present, several are in view for early action. An organization has been planned which is composed of the presidents of all the Washington groups and the advisors, to decide what each group will do during the year so no one group will have a monopoly on all projects.

The Senior group is sponsoring a vaudeville show to which each class and school club will be asked to contribute an act. Prizes will be given for the best act.

HI Y STARTS ACTIVITIES

The Birmingham Chapter of the Hi-Y club opened the school year with a steak roast at Springdale Park. The purpose of the meeting was to introduce new membership into the club which consists of only seven members. The program included a baseball game, golf, tennis, and other forms of entertainment, terminating with a meeting.

Officers of the club are: Hart, w. Ladd, President; L. Stewart Clark, secretary; and Earl Zeigler, treasurer. H. Earle Corrovent and Arthur Stratton are faculty advisors.

Birmingham ran against a hard team when it met Grosse Pointe. The opponents were able and gave the Maroons a tough time through all four periods. Baldwin drove down to Grosse Pointe's 15 yard line many times only to lose to the defenders who punted out of the danger zone. Schwarze attempted a field goal in the first quarter but failed. The invaders depended on an aerial attack in the final stanza, completing two of three consecutive tosses. Lines of both teams were solid. The two teams were almost equal in first downs. Birmingham completing five to Grosse Pointe's six.

Returns Kick Off

When the game opened, Hanneman took Schwarze's kickoff to his own 25 yard line where Shepherd sliced off three yards. Hanneman and Cameron completed a first down in a few seconds. With the ball on the 38 yard line, Hanneman tried an off-tackle plunge and lost five yards after which the Maroons held Shepherd for no gain, with the ball on the 35 yard line.

Receiving the Birmingham kickoff in the third quarter, Shepherd whipped around for ten yards on a trick play before Harris threw him to the ground. Shepherd attempted a drive around Grosse Pointe held another penalty and went back to the maroon 45 yard mark. Hanneman shot off a pass to Hertman for 20 yards but was downed by Brian before he could make the final half.

Birmingham and Grosse Pointe divided the final period about equally as to possession of the pig skin. This quarter featured a final spot to score by the Maize and Blue.

Start Air Play

The Maroons held Shepherd to a two yard off-tackle advance and then overpowered Hanneman for no gain. The Blues went into a huddle after which Hanneman fell short in a pass to the 25 yard line. The beginning of an air attack. Wernet punted to Harris on the 14 yard line. Schwarze roused end to take 13 yards and make a few feet and was thrown on the 16 yard line. Schwarze roused end to take 13 yards and make a few feet. On an off-tackle thrust by Birmingham, both teams were off side. The two lines crashed together like locomotives when Gore tried to rush around end/Schwarze punted to Wernet on the 38 yard line who helped himself to five yards before the Maroons nailed him but a five yard penalty on Grosse Pointe saved it back. Hanneman continued the air raid but passed to Schwarze on his own 45 yard line. Schwarze and Brian drove the ball for two yards and Gore rammed around end for two more. Grosse Pointe was made to give up five yard penalty. Three Maize and Blue players were injured on the last play. Shepherd, fullback, star player for Grosse Pointe, was removed from the field. Fink substituted.

PLAN SALE

At the Junior Washington group meeting held Monday plans were made for collecting old newspapers and selling them to a company in Detroit. At present the group is active in the selling of candy, christmas cards, magazine subscriptions, and memorabilia. Meetings are held every Monday evening, the first Monday of each month being set aside for social group meetings.

Margaret Wintermeyer, 22, of New York recovered her speech after an airplane ride, during which she received the "aerial scare cure."

Gore later slipped around end for 13 yards and Schwarze failed to gain in an off-tackle plunge. Birmingham pushed Brian for two yards and putting the ball on the Blues' 44 yard peg where Brian cut loose with an incomplete pass but Schwarze made good and punted to Shepherd on the blue 28 yard mark. Shepherd was good for three yards off-tackle and Hanneman failed in a line plunge and later failed in Grosse Pointe's first pass. Schwarze endeavored a field goal from the 15 yard line but failed. Grosse Pointe fell back and punted from their own three yard mark and then took time out, with Birmingham guarding the ball. Schwarze and Brian cut off drives, putting the ball in off-tackle drives, putting the center of attraction on the 25 yard line when the quarter ended.

Schwarze Scores

The Blues took possession of the ball on their own two yard line and Hermet pointed to the 25 yard peg. Brian nabbed the punt and ran it back a short distance. Schwarze and Gore were good for a small drive on a cross-back. Gore ripped 11 yards off-guard for first down and then Schwarze drove the ball to the blue seven yard line on off-tackle drives. Gore bunched around to the six inch line and then back for a short loss. From the one yard line Schwarze dove through and placed the ball six inches over the line for the first touchdown of the game. Birmingham failed to carry the ball over and the score remained 6-0.
