RAIDERS NAB FOUR MEN AS RIQUOR SELLERS

Simultaneous Visits Made To Alleged Resorts Near Here

NEIGHBORS ARE TAKEN

"Jim, dad's knocked off. Came over and help us," came the voice over the wire.

"Can't. I'm knocked off myself," was Jim's answer.

This was the story told in Justice Floyd S. Buck's court Monday by Deputies Clayton Stokes and Floyd Harger in describing their simultaneous raids Saturday afternoon on two alleged speakeasies located at Troy and Monier roads.

"Jim" is James Cooper, 30 years old, of Troy road. He and Herbert Barry, alleged operators of places where intoxicating liquors are sold will be examined at 10 a. m. Sept. 27 before Justice Buck.

Ball for both Barry and Cooper was set at $1,000, the former furnishing the necessary bond. Cooper is in Oakland County jail, however, in default of bail.

At the Cooper home officers took into custody Mrs. Marie Cooper, 28, Jack Inman, 31, and Mrs. Marine Inman, 21, all of whom gave their address as Troy road. Mrs. Cooper will also be examined Sept. 20 on a violation of the prohibition law charges, while Inman and his wife will be examined the same day on disorderly counts.

George Albright, 47 years old, Crooks road, was arrested, charged with keeping a place in violation of the prohibition law during the series of raids. Officers destroyed a quantity of alleged liquor at his place. Monday his examination was set for Sept. 20, and his bail fixed at $1,000, by Justice Buck.

Deputies Stokes and Harger made the arrests.

HORSE SHOW AT LOCHAVEN GIVES THRILLS

Spectacular Events Seen By Many; "Our Roy" Takes Steeple Chase

"DEEP RUN LADY" WINS

Excitement and thrills featured the annual horse show at the Lochaven Country club which was witnessed Saturday by a large crowd.

A number of accidents and spills occurred during the afternoon, the feature event, the mile and half steeple chase, particularly offering a colorful event with only three horses finishing the gruelling course. E. S. Nichol's "Our Roy" ridden by Wilbur Kirby came in first in this event with "Baine," the Grassie Pointe Hunt club entry, runner up. The only other horse to finish the event was Volney Bailey's "Cheerleader."

First place in the half mile flat race was won by George W. Slaughter's mare, "Deep Run Lady," with 12-year-old Hazel Wellwood riding. She passed the wire and running wild cleared a line of cars in her path, and jumped a five foot wire fence, throwing her rider. It was Miss Wellwood's fourth fall during the day, and she was so badly shaken that she was removed to a hospital.

But it was race of mishaps. "Dr. Gray," Mrs. Charles E. Jackson's horse, broke a leg in the event and was killed soon afterwards.

In the junior jump class, 11-year-old, Mary Jane Bennett rode to first place on W. Bourne's "Our Pat." She also won the laurels for second place in the event with Mrs. F. E. Jackson's "Red Bud." Frank Atwood's "Freckles" was winner of third place.

Lucille Owen, winner of the blue ribbon in the children's saddle class and in the junior saddle class shared honors with Miss Bennett in the children's event. Rita Teichert was second in the children's saddle class with "Don" and Betty Rothmeyer was the third with "Lady Jane."

MANY ENROLL IN HILLS SCHOOL

Opening of the fall season at the Bloomfield Hills school finds the total enrollment of 115 students. The new grade was added to care for girls who had completed the work through the ninth grade last spring. The new building now houses the lower grades while the higher grades are housed in the old building. Miss Grace Fry and Miss Josephine Waldo have been engaged as teachers of the new grade. According to Miss Jessie Winter, head of the school, it is planned to make the seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth grades a unit of the Girls' School of Cranbrook.

VILLAGE MAN WINS TOURNEY

Alphonsus J. Fowler, of 664 Pierce street, Birmingham is Pontiac's new match play golf champion following his completion Sunday of the final round of the 36-hole play.

Cliff Inman, city medal champion was matched against Fowler in the championship fight.

More than 200 persons witnessed the tournament which offered innumerable thrills to spectators, at the end of the morning round finding Inman with a one-hole margin after being four up at one point during the first nine.

During the afternoon the lead changed hands several times, neither one of the players getting more than a one-hole margin until the thirty-second hole when Inman placed his drive three feet from the pin to win the hole and become two up.

Although shifting wind prevented good scores, it was a hard fought match. The cards for the 36 holes follow:

First Round	Par put	434	434	455	36
Inman	454	534	445	38
Fowler	645	535	356	43
Par in	434	434	455	36	72
Inman	444	544	456	40	78
Fowler	444	443	455	37	80
Second Round	Inman	453	634	655	41
Fowler	544	533	556	40
Inman	445	434	468	42	83
Fowler	544	543	448	41	81

CHORAL LEADER

Frederick A. Protheroe, a teacher of voice at the Detroit Institute of Musical Art, is the new director of music at the First Baptist Church. Mr. Protheroe begins work here immediately and will meet all the members of the First Baptist Choir for the first time for dinner and rehearsal at 6:30 today at the church.

Mr. Protheroe has studied both in the United States and abroad for a number of years and has had extended experience as a director of sacred music. He comes to Birmingham from the East Grand Boulevard Methodist Church of Detroit where for nine years he has directed a choir of 50 voices. His experience includes a period of two years study in Europe under some of the masters of music; a season with a French Repertory Opera company, and several orchestral and recital performances in London. He returned to America during the war and continued his studies for five years in New York City.

Mr. Protheroe has made a study of the finer forms of church choral music and has been successful in its rendition, having produced the oratorios "Elijah," "Messiah," and "Creation" as well as many lesser works with his choir in Detroit. He is a believer in the possibilities of volunteer choirs carefully and conscientiously trained.

Mr. Protheroe and his family expect to make Birmingham their home in the near future. His studio will be located at the First Baptist Church.

TWO JAILED AFTER ARREST IN HILLS

Two men are serving terms in the Oakland County jail, following their arrest Saturday by Patrolman Irma Banks, of Bloomfield Hills.

Earl Martin and Gary Sharp, both of 123 Clairmont avenue, Detroit, are serving 20 day terms in jail. Wayne Sharp, of the same address paid a fine of $25 and Taylor Hawkins, 1564 Bellevue avenue, Detroit, driver of the automobile, paid a $75 fine Monday in Buck's court.

Fines were also collected from Albert Chron, 2805 1/2 east Grand boulevard, Detroit, and Joseph Lordon, 1217 1/2 east Forest street, Detroit, on disorderly charges. They paid fines of $25 each when arraigned Saturday before Justice Buck.

A fine of $15 was handed out Monday by Justice Malcolm Hunt to Jack Watt, 515 Pierce street, Birmingham, following his plea to disorderly conduct. He was given an alternative of 10 days.

ROTARIANS ENTER BOWLING CONTEST

Beginning next Monday night the Birmingham Rotary club will enter a team in the Businessmen's League, a group of local men who bowl every Monday night during the fall and winter months. Phil J. Williams will manage the Rotary team, while James W. Cobb will act as coach, and Frank J. Mulholland as trainer.

Other members of the team are Dr. Warren F. Gibson, Percy W. Parmenter, James V. Bayley, Charles B. Randall, Louis Hascall, Glenn Rottier, Bob Aldrich, Walter L. Connelly, and Clare H. Ogden.
