HERE IS WHAT MOTHERS AND FATHERS AND CIVIC-MINDED MEN AND WOMEN SAY:

The Young Men's Christian Association is a vital part of the life of any modern community. This has been an especially good year for the Y. M. C. A. in Birmingham. Through the Y. M. C. A. groups, which meet during the winter, and the Summer Camps, a distinct contribution has been made to the life of the young men and boys in our community. The Churches appreciate the splendid co-operation of the Young Men's Christian Association.

REV. ROBERT M. ATKINS.
"I had a wonderful time on the Camp Canoe trip directed by the Y. M. C. A."
ROBERT HILTY.
"We are greatly pleased with the leadership and the progress of the Y. M. C. A. Camp."
MRS. J. W. PARRY.
"A most important adjunct to the public school is the character program of our Y. M. C. A."
CLARENCE VLIET.

The activities of the Birmingham Y. M. C. A. find expression in our community day after day although we may not be directly aware of it. These expressions contribute to the intangible quality of fitness and character which marks this healthy minded community, and which is being reflected especially in the characterful lives of our youth.

GEORGE AVERILL.
"The Y. M. C. A. work is a very real asset to our community."
H. T. ELLERBY.
"Thornton enjoyed his camp experience this summer and we are thoroughly sold on the Y. M. C. A. Camp."
MRS. GEORGE DWELLEY.
"Our boys are not found in the juvenile courts and the Y. M. C. A. program has had a vital part in making this condition a possibility."
CHARLES J. SHAIN.
