

SOCIETY IN BIRMINGHAM AT THE HILLS

BY DOROTHY E. WILLIAMS

AUXILIARY NAMES HEADS

Legion Women Elect Mrs. Thelma Bailey President

Mrs. Thelma Bailey is president today of the American Legion Auxiliary following elections held at the annual meeting in Bloomfield Park.

Other officers elected are: Mrs. Joseph McGregor, vice-president; Mrs. A. I. Seman, treasurer and Mrs. E. V. Myers, secretary. Members of the board are: Mrs. Lloyd L. Stanley, Mrs. Oscar Peterson and Mrs. Ernest Buttraw.

W. C. T. U. MEETS

Mrs. J. C. Matthews will be hostess and have charge of the program at the regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. at the Baldwin Library Wednesday, Oct. 2 at 2 p. m.

FOOD

Like Mother used to prepare at home!

Service - That is prompt and courteous!

Visit us at meal time.

PURE FOOD RESTAURANT North Woodward near Maple

Stage Set For Woman's National Open Here Monday

Birmingham's sporting world is anticipating one of the most important events to be brought to this locality in a number of years—the Women's National Amateur Golf championship tournament.

Play opens at the Oakland Hills Country club Monday, continuing through the week, with four village golfers lined up among the entrants who will compete for the national championship.

Miss Glenn Collett, national champion, will defend her laurels against more than 40 entrants. Miss Helen Hicks, the sensational young player from Hewlett, L. I., is also among those competing.

Mrs. Hanley Entered Mrs. Stewart Hanley, of Bloomfield Hills, former state and district champion, and Miss Madge Miller, both of Oakland Hills Country club, and often known as the twins of the links, feature prominently among the entrants.

The 18 holes of medal play start off the event at 10 a. m. Monday, with the best 32 scores qualifying in the tournament.

On Tuesday the women's championship first round of 18 holes match play will be held, opening at 10 a. m. The afternoon's event features match play against women's par with 18 holes. Prizes for this event will be presented by the Oakland Hills Country club.

Second round of the match play for the championship is scheduled for 10 a. m. Wednesday. A best ball four ball match, with prizes presented at the club, will open at 1:30 that afternoon.

Third Match Thursday marks the opening of

MUSIC GROUP STARTS YEAR

Committee For Year Are Named For Thursday Musicals

With the announcement today of committees for the Thursday Musicals, all is in readiness for the 1929-1930 season which opens with the meeting Oct. 10 at the Baldwin Public Library.

A course of six lectures on "Music Appreciation" by Mrs. Bertan Eckhardt Wilkinson, of Detroit, formerly of the Victor Talking Machine company, will be a feature of the program. These lectures will be illustrated by club members.

Subjects Given Her subject will include: "Instruments of the Orchestra," "Symphony Form," "Opera and Oratorio," "Program and Folk Songs" and "Nationality in Music." There will also be two open programs featuring outside talent. No arrangements are made concerning these.

Mrs. W. Whiting Raymond heads the program committee. She is assisted by Mrs. C. H. Bangs, vice chairman, Mrs. George Dweley, Mrs. Norman Lois and Mrs. L. Kemp.

The membership committee is comprised of: Mrs. John Gilray Edinger, Mrs. Bailey Zerbe, Mrs. Arthur J. Beazley, Mrs. Robert White, Mrs. H. G. Wood is chairman of the social committee and is assisted by Mrs. C. J. Burgess, vice chairman. Others on committee members are: Mrs. Angus D. Cleveland, Mrs. F. H. Mellinger, Mrs. James Oliver, Mrs. Robert Preble, Mrs. William Rowland, and Mrs. William G. Wall.

HOUSE THRIFT SHOP TO OPEN MONDAY

Opening of the Community House Thrift Shop is scheduled for Monday when the department will locate in their new quarters at Merrill and Chester streets. The department will be under the direction of Mrs. Grace Trumbull and will be open daily throughout the winter. Sales will not open until Wednesday, however, Mrs. Trumbull said.

The Thrift Shop project, which is headed by Mrs. Otto F. Beier, covers the collecting and resale of second-hand articles of clothing at a small sum. Mrs. Beier is assisted by Mrs. B. R. Whinnor and Mrs. James White. The Thrift Shop was operated in the First National Bank building under the direction of Mrs. Beier.

Society Awaits Benefit Tea

Society is awaiting with interest the benefit bridge tea to be held Wednesday at "Montross," the home of Mrs. Ralph Seaman Bird, on Vaughn road.

The affair is for the benefit of the Holy Name Chapel and is being given under the auspices of the Altar Society of the church. Play will begin at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. Bird will be assisted by the following persons as hostesses: Mrs. Ralph L. Polk, Jr., Mrs. Walter E. Finlay, Mrs. Harrie W. Bird, Mrs. Harry W. Taylor, Mrs. Max J. Stringer, Mrs. Robert H. Fisher, Mrs. Daron, Mrs. Harold H. Corson, Mrs. William H. Dean and Mrs. M. J. George.

Those who will act as patronesses for the affair are: Mrs. Frank, Mrs. Edmund P. Hammond, Mrs. Frank Cousins, Mrs. William R. Yaw, Mrs. Wil-Briggs, Mrs. Joseph Mack, Mrs. Raymond Sisson, Mrs. Frank Bird, Mrs. Otto Kern, Mrs. Elliott Storey, Mrs. Joseph A. Braun, Mrs. John P. Glendon, Miss Laura Donnelly and Mrs. William F. Blake.

McBRIDE-BREWER CEREMONIES CELEBRATED AT BAPTIST CHURCH

HOUSE DRIVE TEA PLANNED

The First Baptist Church was the scene at four o'clock yesterday afternoon of one of the loveliest weddings of the season when Miss Maybelle Gray Brewer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brewer, of Pontiac, became the bride of Donald Bassett McBride, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar C. McBride, of Birmingham and Pine Lake.

Two candelabra of cathedral tapers cast their light upon the wedding party as they stood before the altar beautifully banked with yellow chrysantheums, of palms and ferns. The ceremony was performed by Rev. David Leonard Woodward, pastor of the church.

The bride, who proceeded down the aisle on the arm of her father, was charmingly gowned in a Paton model of ivory chantilly lace, fastened in princess style with a train of fallie taffeta. Her long tulle veil fell from a cap of chantilly lace, bound with orange blossoms. Roses and valley lilies formed the bridal bouquet.

Miss Marjorie Tapon, of Detroit, who attended the bride as honor maid, wore a frock of yellow chiffon. A wide brimmed hat of matching horsehair and satin slippers of the same shade completed her ensemble. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses.

The Misses Ellen Mac and Mary Jane Brewer, sisters of the bride who attended her as bridesmaids, were gowned alike in models of green and yellow taffeta featuring the unchanging harmonies. They wore hats of matching felt and satin slippers.

Mary Louise Brewer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis M. Brewer, of Pontiac, and a niece of the bride-elect who acted as flower girl, was fittingly gowned in a flowered crepe. She carried a colonial bouquet of roses.

Bobbie Brewer Thompson, son of Mrs. Lila Brewer Thompson, of Pontiac, and a nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

The bridegroom was attended by Lloyd Brownlee Reid, of Birmingham, his best man, William Sempier, of Detroit, and Donald Bell, of Birmingham, served as ushers.

BAZAAR PLAN TO BE MADE

Further plans for the annual fall bazaar of the St. James League of Women will be discussed by Mrs. Francis C. Chester, streets, following this a luncheon meeting to be held next Wednesday in the church parlors.

There will be a meeting of the executive board at noon, according to Mrs. Charles E. Buck, president. Following this a luncheon meeting will open at 2 p. m. with Mrs. Buck presiding.

Preliminary plans for the bazaar have already been announced by Mrs. Francis C. Chester, streets. The affair will be staged Dec. 7 in the new Community House, the League being the first organization to use the new House.

A bridge tea will feature the afternoon. Details of the function are being planned by Mrs. L. N. Pyle, while Dr. Harriet Hawkins and Miss Louise Peppers are in charge of the refreshments. In the evening an informal dance will be held. Mrs. Milton Goodrich is in charge of the refreshments. Refreshments for the evening are being planned by a committee comprised of: Mrs. Edward Kelly, Mrs. Irving B. Babcock, Mrs. Seymour Hart, Mrs. James Stone, Mrs. Warren Hillis, Mrs. George Salisbury and Mrs. William Salisbury.

HOUSE DRIVE TEA PLANNED

BRIDE IN IVORY

The bride, who proceeded down the aisle on the arm of her father, was charmingly gowned in a Paton model of ivory chantilly lace, fastened in princess style with a train of fallie taffeta. Her long tulle veil fell from a cap of chantilly lace, bound with orange blossoms. Roses and valley lilies formed the bridal bouquet.

Miss Marjorie Tapon, of Detroit, who attended the bride as honor maid, wore a frock of yellow chiffon. A wide brimmed hat of matching horsehair and satin slippers of the same shade completed her ensemble. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses.

The Misses Ellen Mac and Mary Jane Brewer, sisters of the bride who attended her as bridesmaids, were gowned alike in models of green and yellow taffeta featuring the unchanging harmonies. They wore hats of matching felt and satin slippers.

Mary Louise Brewer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis M. Brewer, of Pontiac, and a niece of the bride-elect who acted as flower girl, was fittingly gowned in a flowered crepe. She carried a colonial bouquet of roses.

Bobbie Brewer Thompson, son of Mrs. Lila Brewer Thompson, of Pontiac, and a nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

The bridegroom was attended by Lloyd Brownlee Reid, of Birmingham, his best man, William Sempier, of Detroit, and Donald Bell, of Birmingham, served as ushers.

ST. JAMES WOMEN TO MEET WEDNESDAY FOR ANNUAL AFFAIR

Further plans for the annual fall bazaar of the St. James League of Women will be discussed by Mrs. Francis C. Chester, streets, following this a luncheon meeting to be held next Wednesday in the church parlors.

BRING YOUR FAVORITE PICTURES HERE FOR FRAMING

The reason for this is found in the delicious goodness of these marvelous candies.

Mrs. Stover's Bungalow Candies

They'll find them better than you ever thought could be.

THE NEW VICTOR RADIO is amazing logic music-lovers! You must HEAR IT! $155. less tubes. Terms to suit.

HOUSE DRIVE TEA PLANNED

BRIDE IN IVORY

The bride, who proceeded down the aisle on the arm of her father, was charmingly gowned in a Paton model of ivory chantilly lace, fastened in princess style with a train of fallie taffeta. Her long tulle veil fell from a cap of chantilly lace, bound with orange blossoms. Roses and valley lilies formed the bridal bouquet.

Miss Marjorie Tapon, of Detroit, who attended the bride as honor maid, wore a frock of yellow chiffon. A wide brimmed hat of matching horsehair and satin slippers of the same shade completed her ensemble. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses.

The Misses Ellen Mac and Mary Jane Brewer, sisters of the bride who attended her as bridesmaids, were gowned alike in models of green and yellow taffeta featuring the unchanging harmonies. They wore hats of matching felt and satin slippers.

Mary Louise Brewer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis M. Brewer, of Pontiac, and a niece of the bride-elect who acted as flower girl, was fittingly gowned in a flowered crepe. She carried a colonial bouquet of roses.

Bobbie Brewer Thompson, son of Mrs. Lila Brewer Thompson, of Pontiac, and a nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

BAZAAR PLAN TO BE MADE

Further plans for the annual fall bazaar of the St. James League of Women will be discussed by Mrs. Francis C. Chester, streets, following this a luncheon meeting to be held next Wednesday in the church parlors.

There will be a meeting of the executive board at noon, according to Mrs. Charles E. Buck, president. Following this a luncheon meeting will open at 2 p. m. with Mrs. Buck presiding.

BRING YOUR FAVORITE PICTURES HERE FOR FRAMING

The reason for this is found in the delicious goodness of these marvelous candies.

Mrs. Stover's Bungalow Candies

They'll find them better than you ever thought could be.

THE NEW VICTOR RADIO is amazing logic music-lovers! You must HEAR IT! $155. less tubes. Terms to suit.

The CHILDREN'S SHOP
by Alis Kraft

Wind Breaker Sets
for Fall Days

CHRISTMAS TOYS.

Phone 1168 Field Bldg., Room 1

If you are not slender... you may call upon the services of the

Mildred Bennett
DRESS SHOP

To dress you smartly and to fit you correctly.

FIRST STATE BANK BUILDING
Second Floor - Room 3
Entrance from Woodward Avenue

MISS NETTIE BAUER will reopen classes in Harmonic Expression in October. Further announcement will be made in next week's Birmingham Eccentric.

Fall Fashions Demand Permanent Waves

Fall and winter dresses, hats and apparel demand soft, lustrous, wavy styles!

As a very special pre-season offering, we announce our custom-created Society Permanent Wave at $10 Complete

including two shampoos and finger wave set. (Ideally suited now for School-day Misses)

ESTHER BEAUTY SALON
256 WEST MAPLE AVENUE
Telephone 1419

Distinctive Window Treatments

Chintzes, linens, damasks, cretonnes from the leading New York importers. Our work-rooms are equipped to execute any type of curtain or hanging.

Estimates given without charge to client

Studio of
INTERIOR DECORATING
Claire Purmort

266 SOUTH WOODWARD TEL. 2162

C. L. Misener

Basement of Field Bldg. PHONE 346

Mrs. Stover's Bungalow Candies

They'll find them better than you ever thought could be.

Clean Blankets for chilly nights

Send your soiled ones to the Modern Laundry

We do know how to launder blankets, curtains, and household and table linens as well as personal things that need special care. We use Ivory Soap and Specialized Methods.

In Our Rough-Dry Department all wearing apparel is washed and hand-kernchiefs and flat work are ironed all for 10c lb.

BIRMINGHAM ADDRESS: Field Bldg., W. Maple Ave. Telephone 1750
DETROIT Edgewood 2928

F. W. Brudis, Jr., Secy. and Treas.

Bloomfield Hills School
LONE PINE ROAD

Will Present
The Patterman Marionettes

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 5TH

at 2:30 p. m.

TICKETS 50c

Championship

laundry work puts your appearance at better than par. Send sweaters, dress shirts, broadcloth and flannel-attached shirts—25c.

Call Birmingham 9017
Pontiac 5383-W
Detroit, Randolph 8980

The Crawford Laundry Co.
707 East Jefferson Avenue - Detroit

"Prescriptions Precisely Prepared"

Every Prescription We Fill Bears This Label:

For your protection, this prescription has been accurately filled by a registered pharmacist and checked and rechecked to eliminate the possibility of harmful errors.

This is your assurance that you are getting exactly what the doctor ordered for you—no more, no less. No chances are taken on your health.

Call 1917
We Will Call for and Deliver Your Prescriptions

Wabeek Pharmacy

BURNETT BEAUTY SHOP

Field Bldg. PHONE 9063

for appointments You Can Enroll in the Unique School of Beauty Culture until Oct. 15th

The school is under the personal direction of Gertrude Burnett

Slip Covers

Of course, the original purpose of slip covers was utility. As covered by us, however, they are not only useful, but they are beautiful. So, too, we give to drapering and hangings refreshing and original style.

Stevens' Drapery Shop
Buses at Shelia Bldg. Phone 9063

PIANOS TO RENT

by day, month or season. Best priced applied piano.

GRINNELL BROS.
144 So. Woodward Ave. Phone 2176

Society Awaits Benefit Tea

Society is awaiting with interest the benefit bridge tea to be held Wednesday at "Montross," the home of Mrs. Ralph Seaman Bird, on Vaughn road.

The affair is for the benefit of the Holy Name Chapel and is being given under the auspices of the Altar Society of the church. Play will begin at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. Bird will be assisted by the following persons as hostesses: Mrs. Ralph L. Polk, Jr., Mrs. Walter E. Finlay, Mrs. Harrie W. Bird, Mrs. Harry W. Taylor, Mrs. Max J. Stringer, Mrs. Robert H. Fisher, Mrs. Daron, Mrs. Harold H. Corson, Mrs. William H. Dean and Mrs. M. J. George.

Those who will act as patronesses for the affair are: Mrs. Frank, Mrs. Edmund P. Hammond, Mrs. Frank Cousins, Mrs. William R. Yaw, Mrs. Wil-Briggs, Mrs. Joseph Mack, Mrs. Raymond Sisson, Mrs. Frank Bird, Mrs. Otto Kern, Mrs. Elliott Storey, Mrs. Joseph A. Braun, Mrs. John P. Glendon, Miss Laura Donnelly and Mrs. William F. Blake.

Mrs. and Mrs. Ira McDonald family were last present in Evans Lake in the Irish Hills. Other members of the party were: Mrs. Rose May, Miss Eva McKenzie, Cecil Hazard, and Edward Peterson, all of Detroit.

PIANOS TO RENT

by day, month or season. Best priced applied piano.

GRINNELL BROS.
144 So. Woodward Ave. Phone 2176

St. James Women To Meet Wednesday For Annual Affair

Further plans for the annual fall bazaar of the St. James League of Women will be discussed by Mrs. Francis C. Chester, streets, following this a luncheon meeting to be held next Wednesday in the church parlors.

There will be a meeting of the executive board at noon, according to Mrs. Charles E. Buck, president. Following this a luncheon meeting will open at 2 p. m. with Mrs. Buck presiding.

Preliminary plans for the bazaar have already been announced by Mrs. Francis C. Chester, streets. The affair will be staged Dec. 7 in the new Community House, the League being the first organization to use the new House.

A bridge tea will feature the afternoon. Details of the function are being planned by Mrs. L. N. Pyle, while Dr. Harriet Hawkins and Miss Louise Peppers are in charge of the refreshments. In the evening an informal dance will be held. Mrs. Milton Goodrich is in charge of the refreshments. Refreshments for the evening are being planned by a committee comprised of: Mrs. Edward Kelly, Mrs. Irving B. Babcock, Mrs. Seymour Hart, Mrs. James Stone, Mrs. Warren Hillis, Mrs. George Salisbury and Mrs. William Salisbury.

BRING YOUR FAVORITE PICTURES HERE FOR FRAMING

C. L. Misener

Basement of Field Bldg. PHONE 346

Mrs. Stover's Bungalow Candies

They'll find them better than you ever thought could be.

THE NEW VICTOR RADIO is amazing logic music-lovers! You must HEAR IT! $155. less tubes. Terms to suit.

GRINNELL BROS.
144 So. Woodward Ave. Phone 2176

S HAIN'S DRUG S

Phone 61 WEST MAPLE AVE.