

SOCIETY IN BIRMINGHAM AND THE HILLS

BY DOROTHY E. WILLIAMS

SEELEY-MILLS NUPTIALS HELD

Villager Weds Detroit Girl At Holy Name Chapel; To Reside Here

A recent wedding of interest to villagers is that of Miss Jacqueline E. Seeley, daughter of Mrs. Mable Sheldon Seeley, of Detroit, and Thomas J. Mills, of Birmingham, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mills, of Ann Arbor. The ceremony took place at the Holy Name chapel with Rev. William Ryan, pastor, officiating.

Miss France Mineau, of Detroit, attended the bride, and Richard Mills, brother of the groom, acted as best man. A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony.

Mr. Mills is a graduate of the University of Michigan and a member of the Alpha Chi Sigma fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills will be at home in Birmingham after Oct. 1.

ORGANIZATION START SEASON

Birmingham Branch Gets Under Way With First Meeting

Activities of the Birmingham branch of the American Association of University Women open Wednesday with a meeting at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. F. H. McKinney, of 788 Puritan road.

New members will be honored guests upon the occasion. Any village woman having two years of college work in any accredited school are invited to be present at the meeting, according to Mrs. Hugh H. Wellman, president of the association.

The four past presidents of the organization, Mrs. Charles J. Shain, Mrs. Hugh Lynch, Mrs. Arthur J. Halgren and Mrs. Fred D. Farrar, will give a resume of the work of the group. New officers and committee heads will outline their plans for the year.

Mrs. Shelton Wright, of Asper, will be hostess for the affair.

ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED

Miss Martha Palms To Become Bride Of William B. Williams

An interesting affair of last Saturday evening was the buffet supper party and treasure hunt which made known the betrothal of Miss Martha Palms to William Brown Williams, II.

The affair was given at "Eastway Farms," the home of Miss Palms' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brunette. It is a descendant of one of Detroit's oldest families and is a member of the Tau Beta association. She is one of last fall's debutantes and is popular in social circles both in Detroit and the Hills. She attended the Light school in Detroit and later the Arden school in Lakewood, N. J.

Mr. Williams is the son of Harrison Williams, of Lapeer, and Mrs. W. E. Barkus, of Birmingham. He was graduated from Oberlin College, Oberlin. Although no date has been set for the nuptials they will probably take place next June.

Among the guests upon the occasion were: Miss Delphine and James Vhay, Miss Nora, Miss Louise and Alfred Glancy, Edward A. Skac, Jr., Edward J. Hammond, Jr., Miss Virginia Kingswood Booth and John Lord Booth, Bruce Chalmers, Miss Mary Alford, Miss Louise Wells, Miss Betty Frederick, Miss Annette Phillips, Robert G. Kales, Charles Webster, George V. Anderson, Jr., Robert L. Messine, Jr., Miss Virginia, Miss Rosemary and Miss Josephine, Miss Mary Stevens, Charles Adams, Thomas Mills, Charles Winningham, Miss Mary Luecke, of Cincinnati, who arrived Saturday to visit Mr. Winningham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Winningham, and Robert Stephens.

VILLAGE COUPLE WED IN TOLEDO

Announcement is made of the wedding of Mrs. Fannie Laing, of Oakland avenue, and Milton Rastborough, of Boston, Mass. The ceremony was solemnized last Saturday at the home of Mrs. Laing at 156 Oakland avenue.

The bride and groom left on a wedding trip through the east. They will be at home after Sept. 9 at 156 Oakland avenue.

BUCK-BAILEY WEDDING TOLD

University Romance Culminates in Nuptials

An announcement of interest to Birmingham's younger set is that of the wedding Wednesday in Germantown, O., of Miss Emily Bailey, daughter of Mrs. Edgar G. Bailey, and Stratton Buck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Buck, of Birmingham. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride-elect's sister, Mrs. Robert H. Ross, of Germantown, before members of the immediate families.

Mrs. Ross will attend her sister while Elton Buck, a brother of the groom-elect will act as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Buck, parents of the groom-elect, will go to Germantown for the wedding.

The couple will reside in Knoxville, O. Mr. Buck has an instructorship in French at the University of Tennessee.

Miss Bailey has studied at the Sorbonne in Paris and received her master's degree at Columbia University. Mr. Buck is a graduate of the University of Michigan and also received a master's degree from Columbia.

BRIDAL PARTY IS ANNOUNCED

Plans Completed For Mc-Brade-Brewer Wedding Here

Miss Maybelle Gray Brewer, of Pontiac, whose marriage to Donald Bassett McBride, will be an event of Sept. 25, has chosen her bridal party. Miss Irene Lucke, of Birmingham, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Brewer, of Pontiac, while Mr. McBride is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar C. McBride, of Birmingham and Pine Lake.

The wedding will be solemnized at four o'clock at the First Baptist Church before an assemblage of more than 200 guests. Rev. David Leon Woodward, pastor, will read the nuptial service.

Miss Clarice Tapsen, of Detroit, will attend the bride-elect as maid of honor. The Misses Ellen MacBrewer and Mary Brewer, both of Pontiac, sisters of the bride-elect, will act as bridesmaids.

Lloyd Reid, of Birmingham, will be best man, while Donald Sempliner, of Detroit, and Donald Bell, of Birmingham, will act as ushers.

A nephew of Miss Brewer, Bobby Brewer Thompson, of Pontiac, will be ringbearer.

Many affairs have honored the popular young bride-elect. On Tuesday evening Mrs. I. E. Terry, of Pontiac, was hostess at a miscellaneous shower for 14 guests.

Mrs. Marquerite Smith, of Birmingham, will honor Miss Brewer tonight at a buffet supper and shower for 28 guests.

WEDDING DATE IS DECIDED

Colby-Campbell Nuptials To Be in Detroit Saturday

Among the fall weddings of interest to villagers is that of Miss Elizabeth Irene Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Campbell, of Detroit, and Edward William Colby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin O. Colby, of Oakland avenue, which will be solemnized at five o'clock Saturday afternoon in Detroit.

A dinner will be given for the wedding party and guests at the Cadillac Athletic club followed by a reception at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Arthur C. Nelson, of Detroit.

BARR-WALTON NUPTIALS SET

Ceremonies To Be Performed Sept. 21 In Pennsylvania

Mrs. Edwin A. Walton, formerly of Detroit, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Mary Archbold Walton, to Dewey Mason Barr, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Barr, of Linden road. The nuptials will be read at five o'clock the afternoon of Sept. 21 in the Ford Memorial Chapel, Meadville, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Barr will be at home after Dec. 1 at 632 Lakeview avenue, Birmingham.

Shrine Of Little Flower To Be Scene Of Carolin-Stanton Wedding

EASTERN STARS PLAN SUPPER

The Shrine of the Little Flower, Royal Oak, will be the scene of the wedding at half after ten o'clock Saturday morning, Sept. 28 when Miss Dorothy Grace Stanton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Stanton, of Detroit, and Rev. Fr. Charles Coughlin will be united in matrimony.

Margaret Lois Peterson, of Detroit, will act as honor maid, while the Misses Alice Baker and Lenore Hayes, also of Detroit, will serve as bridesmaids. The groom will be attended by Wilfrid Dilworth, as best man, and Girard Korkin and Marjux Inley, all of Detroit, as ushers.

A breakfast for 125 guests will be served at the Oakland Hills Country club following the ceremony.

The bride-elect attended Maryland College, Baltimore, Md., while Mr. Carolin is a graduate of the law school of the University of Detroit. They plan to live in Birmingham.

Miss Stanton is the inspiration of many charming affairs. Mrs. George Filippault, of Detroit, a sister of the groom will honor her at a luncheon bridge and shower at her home next Thursday. On Sept. 14 Miss Dorothy Sheehan, of Detroit, will honor Miss Stanton at a luncheon at the Detroit Boat club. Mrs. Harry Price, of Birmingham, will give a similar affair on Sept. 18, and Miss Margaret Peterson will honor Miss Stanton at a bridge luncheon Sept. 21 at her home in Detroit.
