

SOCIETY IN BIRMINGHAM AND THE HILLS

MacMANUS-FOX WEDDING READ AT HOLY NAME CHAPEL TUESDAY

Miss Alice MacManus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore MacManus, of "Glenview," Bloomfield Hills, was married Tuesday morning in the Church of the Holy Name to Mr. William Francis Fox, Jr., of Indianapolis. A telegram containing the blessing of Pope Pius XI was received by the couple after the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Fr. W. W. Ryan and the Rev. Fr. H. Anthony Dean, of Toledo.

The bridal party assembled in the church, which was banked with a clipped cedar hedge, surrounded with cypress and fern. Misses of pink and blue hydrangea and Easter lilies formed a colorful note at the base of the greenery. Burning ivory candles in silver holders threw a soft light over the scene.

Miss MacManus, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her bridal robe of antique ivory satin, a Lanvin model, fashioned on medieval lines. Attached to the waist line, she wore a voluminous ivory tulle veil, which fell from a Juliet cap of rose point lace. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and gardenias, bowed with ivory satin.

Her sister, Miss Theodore MacManus, as maid of honor, and Miss Mary Garrity, of Chicago, as bridesmaid, were strikingly attired in Corbous gowns made with pleated flowerlike skirts and snugly fitted jackets over the slim bodices. Miss MacManus' frock was of dusty pink and Miss Garrity was in a lighter shade of pink. Their flowers, pink roses and blue delphiniums, were arranged in arm bouquets, tied with wide bands of pink satin.

Mrs. MacManus wore a gown of aquamarine Elizabethan crepe, trimmed with Alencon lace of the same shade. Her coat and hat were of a matching shade.

John Hennessey, of Indianapolis, was best man, and Michael Duffey, of Evansville, Ind., was ring bearer. John R. MacManus and Hubert MacManus, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

Decorations similar to those in the church were used at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club, where a reception and breakfast followed the ceremony. The receiving line formed before a hedge of greenery and in the various rooms spring flowers added a bright note.

The breakfast table was embellished with large baskets of pink and blue snapdragons and delphiniums.

Mr. and Mrs. Fox left for a honeymoon trip to Virginia and the Carolinas. The bride wore a Patou suit of tulle, blue Rodier fabric with a collar of silver, gold and navy blue braid. On their return they will live in Indianapolis.

Out-of-town guests were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Francis Fox, Mrs. Frances Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fox, W. J. Robinson, Mrs. John Rebeleshaus and the Rev. Fr. Edward O'Connor, all of Indianapolis; Miss Helen Garrity, Miss Helen Bicht, Miss Dorothy McParlin, Miss Margaret Tuohy, Mrs. Edgar Frecher, Mr. and Mrs. Howard O'Neill, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Moore, of South Bend; Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Baker of Battle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Merton Carmody, of Grand Rapids; Miss Margaret McCarroll, of Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. A. Gardner and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Porter, of Toledo; Mrs. T. J. Macnoe and Francis MacManus, of Buffalo; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McFarland, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. B. Merritt, of Lima, O.; the Rev. James H. Ryan, of Washington, D. C.; the Rev. Fr. George Doherty, of Toronto; Miss Louise Lynch, of Moonmouth, Ill.

EASTER DINNERS GIVEN IN HILLS

Celebrating a day of festivity and religious observance, second annual Easter dinners were given in the Hills. Many Bloomfield Hills people entertained at family dinners Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Bromley had with them their sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sanderson, and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Mico.

Ten guests were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Thompson, of Evansville, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. Stoppel also entertained 10 at their home in the Hills.

Other family parties congregated at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Braun, at "Linda Vista," Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Robinson, of Lone Pine road.

More Society items on next page, and on page two, part three.

IS SOLOIST

Marie White Clark, who will be one of the soloists at the Community House concert, is accompanied by Gail Farhady Bangs.

COUNTRY CLUBS PLAN OPENINGS

Elaborate Dinner-Dances Will Inaugurate Summer Activities

Country clubs of this vicinity are planning their formal Spring openings for May. A dinner-dance will constitute the opening of the Oakland Hills Country club on May 10, and another dance will be given May 3. Tonight, members are invited to attend a showing of motion pictures, preceded by a dinner at the club. Birmingham members who had reservations at the Easter party Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. McLaughlin, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. DeVosier.

May 10 will also be the opening date of the Pine Lake Country Club, while the Orchard Lake country club will open May 24 both with formal dinner dances. Plans are being made to entertain 250 members at the formal opening of the Birmingham Golf Club next Saturday and reservations are being received in large numbers by Mr. Joseph Webb, club manager.

On Sunday last, the club presented a delightful program of music at which 100 attended. The program was made up of song and piano recitals by Vera Richardson, pianist and Aileen Whitley.

MISS PAYTON WED TO PHILADELPHIAN

Village Girl Marries Dr. Alfred R. Robbins in Church Ceremony

Saturday evening at 6 p. m. Miss Mildred Ann Payton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Payton, of 243 Ravine road, was married to Dr. Alfred R. Robbins, of Philadelphia, in St. James Episcopal Church.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Evelyn Payton, who returned from Buck's University, where she is a student, for the ceremony; and Dr. W. Gregory Morgan, of Detroit, was best man. Ushers were Archibald Phelps and Herbert Davis, of Detroit.

A reception was held in the Payton home following the wedding. The couple left immediately afterwards for Philadelphia, where they will spend their honeymoon for the next two months.

Out-of-town guests who were here for the wedding and remained as weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Payton were Miss Stella Lott, of Evansville, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Saleen, of Indianapolis, Ind.; and Mrs. Corinne Weil, of Chicago.

Community House Calendar Filled

The Community House continues to be the center of activity of the village social life. The following items have been noted from the House calendar.

Twenty members of the A. A. U. W. Pre-Adolescent Child study group entertained Dr. Elizabeth Black, of Detroit, at the regular court, at luncheon, following the meeting of the class Monday noon.

The Holy Name Parish gave a bridge and dance Tuesday evening for members and their friends, when William F. B. Ene was general chairman.

Yesterday the Women's Civic League in their first meeting of the year, held a bridge tea, arranged by Mrs. G. R. Ferguson.

A silver service was presented the Community House by the League.

The Women's International League for Peace and Freedom met yesterday for luncheon, and last evening, wives of Exchanges met their husbands with a dinner dance.

The Zonta club plans a party in the House this evening. On Saturday evening, the regular Saturday night dances will be resumed. A new tap dancing class, which has just been formed, will meet Monday night and last Monday between 11 a. m. and 12 m.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE FOR PEACE MEETS

Precinct Speakers Are Heard At Assembly Held Yesterday

A distinguished assembly attended the luncheon at the Community House yesterday for the Women's League for Peace and Freedom. Mrs. Hersey, of Philadelphia, spoke on the alien registration bill now before the Senate, to which Senator James Couzens and members of the League are opposed. Mrs. Hersey is in Detroit this week attending the Y. W. C. A. convention.

Other guests were Mrs. Swift, recently returned from Russia; Mrs. Olga Benning, former Russian baroness who is now the public health nurse here; Mrs. Ogle and her daughter, of Dr. Ogle, Asiatic curator of art in the Detroit Museum of Art; and Mrs. George T. Hendrie, of Bloomfield Hills.

Arrangements for the luncheon were made by Mrs. George T. Hendrie, of Bloomfield Hills. Gutzwiller, are guests this week of Mrs. J. N. Hadjisky, of Bates street.

Social Briefs

Mrs. William O. Stevens is expecting a visit soon from her aunt, Mrs. Hugo Osterhaus, of Washington, D. C.

A supper, sponsored by the Guild of Christ Church, was held last evening in Guild Hall of the church. After the supper, the present attended the lecture given by Capt. Edwin T. Pollock, of the Cranbrook School faculty, on "Samosa, our Smallest, but Most Interesting Possession."

The class for women interested in Girl Scouting is being continued at the Community House. Two more meetings will be held, Monday at 2 p. m.

Mrs. Nathan F. Oakes, of Franklin, will entertain Friday at a bridge tea and linen shower for Mrs. Drayton Preblich, of West Maple avenue, formerly Mrs. Mable Rodiger, of Franklin.

Mrs. Edwin T. Pollock will give luncheons in her home in Oak Knoll farms today and tomorrow.

Mrs. C. S. Riley, of Cincinnati, a delegate to the national convention of the Y. W. C. A. in Detroit, is the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Jardine, of Henrietta street, of Minneapolis. Riley is president of the suburban district of the Y. W. C. A. near Cincinnati.

Mrs. John H. Meyerling, of West Maple road, entertained at dinner Tuesday evening.

Mrs. George Blending of Lansing is the guest, this week, of his aunt, the Misses Sly of West Maple road.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Fairbanks, formerly of Yorkshire road, are spending the Easter holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Don O. Scott, of Filigree road.

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Fairbanks, Mrs. John Z. Lander.

DISTINGUISHED WOMEN HONORED

Susan B. Anthony, Miss Julia Lathrop.

The National League of Women's Voters plan to honor the pioneers in the women's suffrage movement by the establishment of a memorial fund. A partial list of those to be so honored has been compiled, among them being the late Susan B. Anthony, Miss Julia Lathrop, of Rockford, Ill., first chief of the U. S. children's bureau; Alice Stone Blackwell, of Boston, wife of Dr. and Mrs. Armenia Smith White, New Hampshire, suffrage worker.

Left above, Mrs. A. L. Searies; right, Alice Stone Blackwell. Below, left to right, Mrs. Armenia Smith White, the late Susan B. Anthony, Miss Julia Lathrop.

A group of village people, including Mrs. H. H. and Mrs. G. Heimiller, of Overhill road, and Mrs. and Mr. C. C. Rees, of Wilbur street, will be invited to be given Friday night at Oriole Terrace by the Detroit Alumni of the University of Illinois.

More Society items on next page, and on page two, part three.

MISS HELEN MINTON WILL WED MR. F. J. McDONOUGH MONDAY

Miss Helen Minton, of Bloomfield Hills, will become the bride of Mr. Francis Joseph McDonough, Jr., son of Mr. Francis J. McDonough, Jr., at a quiet wedding ceremony Monday at the Holy Name Church. The nuptial feast will be celebrated by the Rev. Father William Ryan, in the presence of the family and friends.

Miss Minton will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Elliot Slocum Nichols, and Mr. Charles Minton, brother of the bride, will be best man. She will wear a white chiffon dress of silhouette fashion with a cape effect forming sleeves, and a cap veil forming a train. The mother of honor will wear beige chiton. Following the ceremony a luncheon will be given at the home of Miss Laura Donnelly for the family and a small group of guests.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonough will reside permanently in Birmingham following their wedding trip. Arrangements for the luncheon were made by Mrs. George T. Hendrie, of Bloomfield Hills. Gutzwiller, are guests this week of Mrs. J. N. Hadjisky, of Bates street.

Yorkshire road, entertained at her Sunday night Mrs. Janet Edwards, of Grosse Pointe, was hostess at luncheon Tuesday. Mrs. Scott gave a luncheon at the Colony Club yesterday, her guests being some of Mrs. Fairbanks' old friends.

Stoddard White was host Saturday night at dinner to the patrol leaders of Boy Scout Troop 6, who are Theodore Ewert, Dumont Mills, Donald Stewart, and Howard Senter.

Mrs. Donald T. Stanton, Mrs. Charles Burgess, Mrs. Norman Lyle, and Mrs. Milton Coulson were Birmingham guests Tuesday at a luncheon given by Mrs. J. J. Newberry, of Grosse Pointe, for the advisory council of the Women's Symphony Association.

Invitations have been sent out by Mrs. Robert Clayton, of Oakland avenue, for a May breakfast, to be held May 1 at the Fox and Hounds Inn.

Members of the troop committee of Troop No. 6, will entertain the Girl Scout leaders at the Girl Scout headquarters in the Community House at dinner Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Fat Eden, of Yorkshire road, and Mrs. John Boy, have gone to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. McClinton, of Milwaukee.

Dr. Carl Malcolm Kulavager, of Green lake, recently returned from Florida with her two children, Bert and Isabel.

William Keal, of Port Huron, a student from Savenally school in Manassas, Va., is the guest of Burns Holm, of Brookside drive, Birmingham.

Mrs. and Mrs. Ralph Stone, of Cranbrook road, and Mr. and Mrs. William G. Harry, of Lone Pine road, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Garrison, of Lawrence avenue, Detroit, this evening. The party will dine first at the Colony club, and then attend the performance of "The New Moon."

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Paulus, of Kennesaw avenue, will move Saturday to Hinsdale, Ill., a suburb of Chicago.

MISS HELEN MINTON WILL WED MR. F. J. McDONOUGH MONDAY

ter-in-law of the bride-elect at a luncheon given by Mrs. Donnelly at several charming affairs and a buffet dinner and shower to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crookston, tomorrow for 20 guests. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wilkinson, of Grosse Pointe, are planning a supper dance and shower Tuesday for the couple at their home.

Miss Mable Tallaferr entertained in honor of Miss Minton at a lovely bridge luncheon and shower at the Colony Club yesterday. The luncheon was given at the Colony Club yesterday, the guests being carried out in pale green and yellow with floral decorations of white and yellow snapdragons, Japanese iris, yellow roses, and pink tulips. The guests etched linen table and several pieces of fine china for the bride-elect. Besides the honoree, those in attendance were Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. Thomas Tallaferr, Mrs. George P. Raynald, Mrs. H. A. O'Dell, Mrs. Ralph Crookston, Mrs. Sutherland, Mrs. T. R. Donovan, and Mrs. Irwin H. Neff.

Two small boys enjoyed a birthday party given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Rolf Spinning, of Dorchester road, for their son, Billy, arrived at the age of nine years.

Mrs. Spinning entertained a few friends at dinner at an informal luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Babcock, of Lone Pine road, are looking forward to the arrival today of Mrs. Dora Frank Peck, of Kenilworth, Ill., and Mrs. Arthur Gram, of Winnetka, Ill. This evening, Mr. and Mrs. Babcock will entertain at dinner at their home. Mr. and Mrs. George Salisbury, of Sulfurd road, will give a dinner for their tomorrow evening.

Miss Eleanor Trisisky will be the guest of Mrs. Ralph Crookston over the week end at her home on Birmingham Boulevard, and will attend the wedding of Miss Helen Minton to Mr. Francis Joseph McDonough, Jr., Monday at the Holy Name Church.

Miss George A. Trisisky will be the guest of Mrs. Elliot Slocum Nichols, of her Bloomfield Hills home for the week end prior to the wedding.

Dr. William O. Stevens, Harry L. Wallace, and Frederick Strong will return Sunday from New York City.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Stone, of Harrow road, over the week end, were Mr. and Mrs. J. Knox MacLaughlin and Mrs. Herbert E. Stone, of Cleveland.

Miss Romayne Thompson, of Kenosha, returned Saturday night from a visit in Shaker Heights, Cleveland, to Mrs. Don P. Scott.

After 10 days in New York, Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert F. Swanson returned to their home "Towerknoll," on Lone Pine road.

Wylie H. Villas, of Cleveland, is the house-guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Otis, of Buckingham road. Yesterday, Mrs. Otis entertained at a tea in her home for Mrs. Rickwood W. Bullard and Mrs. James Parker, who have recently moved to the village. Assisting Mrs. Otis were Mrs. Phillip Wygant, Mrs. John W. Bruffett, Mrs. I. J. Osburn, and Mrs. Leigh Lynch.

Mrs. Clarence G. Heimiller, of Overhill road, was one of the special hostesses Tuesday evening at the Detroit College Club dinner. The Rev. M. S. Rice, of the Metropolitan Methodist Church, was guest speaker. Mrs. James Towrie, of Birmingham, also attended the dinner.

Mrs. Gordon Lefebvre, of Oak street, left Monday for Appomattox Manor, City Point, Va., where the will be a guest of Miss Mary Epps.

Following the christening of their son, Horace W. Potter, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Potter entertained 16 guests at tea in their home Saturday evening.

The Rev. Warner L. Forsyth, rector of St. James Episcopal church, and Mrs. Forsyth, left Sunday evening for Alpena, Michigan, where they will be with friends, returning Saturday.

Mrs. Carl E. Huyette and Miss Hannah Huyette, of Lone Pine road, who are in New York to attend the wedding of Miss Mally Harding, will return to Hills May 1. Miss Huyette will be maid of honor at her cousin's marriage.

More Society items on next page, and on page two, part three.

Alice Voorheis To Be Wed Next June

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Alice D. Voorheis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Voorheis, of Huletts street, to Rufus W. Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Snyder, of Charlotte, Mich.

Miss Voorheis was graduated from Michigan State College in 1922. She is on the teaching staff of the South College Cooperative Nursery School at Northampton.

Mr. Snyder was graduated from Michigan State College in 1922 and Penn State College in 1925. He is assistant metallurgical engineer for the American Steel and Wire Co., Worcester, Mass. The wedding will take place in June.

DECORATIVE FABRICS FOR THE HOME

Curtains - Draperies - Upholstery

Studio of Interior Decorating

Claire Hurmurt

Telephone Birmingham 2362

266 So. Woodward Birmingham, Michigan

Announcement

of interest to you

So that we may give you better service WE ARE MOVING OUR SHOE STORE with REPAIR DEPT to our NEW LOCATION

WEST MAPLE Avenue next to McBride's Sweet Shop.

Won't You Call On Us there AFTER MAY FIRST?

ERB'S

SHOES FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

HATS

Reduced for Friday Only

Choice of 100 New Spring Hats at $5.00

Every smart style . . . color . . . in an extensive group of up-to-the-minute hats.

MODEL HATS

Just one of a style $10

The Irene Shop

223 S. Woodward Theater Bldg.

Beauty Consultation

We are pleased to announce that Miss Crown will be at our store from Monday to Saturday

(Except Wednesday)

Miss Crown comes direct from The Pierre Beauty Salons of New York and Paris, and will be pleased to counsel with you regarding the care of your face.

We most cordially invite you to come in and meet Miss Crown.

Monday to Saturday

April 28-May 3 (Except Wednesday)

A Triple Advantage in Products Pierre

They are adapted for your personal needs and impart the refinement of beauty. The finest and purest ingredients are used for cleansing, stimulating and strengthening the skin tissue. They may be purchased in travel size, for experimental purposes.

Let the Pierre representative at our store help with your beauty problems.

Cleansing Cream . . . $5.15, $2.50 Basic Cream . . . $1.00, $2.00, $3.50 Bleaching Cream . . . $1.00, $1.75 Astringent Lotion . . . $1.00, $2.50 Powder Pierre in 8 shades . . . $2.50 Rouge Pierre in 4 shades $1.00, $1.50 Travel Box, $6.00. Refillable on demand.

More Society items on next page, and on page two, part three.

W.C. WILSON D.R. BIRMINGHAM, MICH. PHONE 25

W.C. WILSON D.R. BIRMINGHAM, MICH. PHONE 25

W.C. WILSON D.R. BIRMINGHAM, MICH. PHONE 25

W.C. WILSON D.R. BIRMINGHAM, MICH. PHONE 25

W.C. WILSON D.R. BIRMINGHAM, MICH. PHONE 25

Appetizing Surroundings

Make the meal a doubly pleasant occasion—Dine at The French Village

IN THE HEART OF DETROIT BASEMENT MAJESTIC BUILDING WOODWARD AT MICHIGAN

Luncheon—Everything from Sandwiches and Sodas to Fine Luncheon and Special Evening Dinner at 77¢ 11 A. M. to 7 P. M. Except Sunday

Every morning at 10 a recipe contest will be broadcast over WJR.

After your shopping tour or before the theatre make it a delightful part of the occasion to dine at The French Village.

Brennan, Fitzgerald & Sinks

More Society items on next page, and on page two, part three.

IT IS with Pleasure that the Wabeek Corporation announces the opening of

D. J. Healy Shops

in the

Wabeek Building

The formal opening of a D. J. Healy Shop in Birmingham will take place during the coming week.

The opening of this shop in the Wabeek Building is another evidence of the esteem and confidence Detroit concerns have in our Village and in the Bloomfield Hills District.