

BUSY DAYS AHEAD FOR CRANBROOK

Operetta, Dance And Lecture Are On School Program

The calendar of Cranbrook school for the next two weeks is crowded with many activities and entertainments.

Rehearsals are now under way for the junior operetta, "Collegiate," under the direction of Mr. Carl G. Wornberger. The production will be entirely done by the lower classes, forms I and II, and will be the final production of the year. The operetta will be given in the Cranbrook auditorium on the evening of May 31. J. B. Dunlap, of the University of Michigan, will lecture on Virgil next Wednesday evening. He will be presented by the Latin department of the school. On May 8, the boys will hear the Michigan State Glee club.

An informal dance is planned for May 16, Dr. and Mrs. William O. Stevens and members of the faculty will chaperone.

Business Girls Honor Miss Fox

Members of the Business and Professional Women's club will hold a dinner party this evening in the Community House, in place of their regular luncheon, as a farewell to Miss Alice Fox, one of their members, who is leaving town.

After the dinner, a social evening will be enjoyed in their clubroom. Each member is expected to bring a guest. At the recent meeting of the organization held Thursday, the Misses Bernice and Jessie Vaughn, and Miss Genevieve Euler were guests.

LEGION AUXILIARY MEETS

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary will meet Tuesday at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Ernest Burtaw, 540 Riverchase avenue, for business discussions. A total of $93.25 was made on the quilt sale, the drawing for which was held Thursday afternoon in the Community House. Proceeds will go towards the purchase of poppies to be sold Memorial Day. Mrs. E. J. Briggs, of Detroit, was the winner of the poppy quilt, and Mrs. A. T. Taylor, of West Maple avenue, was the winner of the patch work quilt.

Seven villagers of Farnham, Devon, were fined for serenading with tin pans and kettles on an unpopular couple.

St. James League Will Hold Sale

The League of St. James Women will hold a rummage sale in the St. James parish house May 7, 8, 9, and 10, under the direction of Mrs. William E. Elcock. Hostesses for the week will be Mrs. Rena Renfrew, on Wednesday; Mrs. Orren L. Andrews, on Thursday; Mrs. Harry Conning, on Friday; Mrs. Frank Gibbs, on Saturday. Gifts of clothing, furniture, jewelry, or other articles will be gladly received for the sale by Mrs. Elcock, who may be reached by phone at 395-M.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Cleopha H. Miller, 717 Linden street, announce the birth of a son, Jack Utley, Sunday at the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Gellatly, 911 Chester avenue, announce the birth of a son, James Robert, on Tuesday, Joseph Mercy Hospital, Monday.

MICHIGAN LEAGUE MEETS
The Michigan League met yesterday for luncheon at the home of Mrs. T. W. Widenmann, on Pierce street. Discussion, centered around the new organization of the Women's League in Ann Arbor, now under a different administration. Hostesses, besides Mrs. Widenmann, were Mrs. Nancy B. Thomas and Miss Ruth Phelps.

Mr. and Mrs. James Vernet, Jr., will return this week end to their home, on Lahar road, after a week's visit in Chicago.

Mrs. Jessie W. Colton, of Bloomfield Hills, is making a short visit in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Joseph A. Hunter, of "Braeburn," spent Easter week end in Pittsburgh as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Henry P. Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew (Mrs. Vida Freeman) returned to Birmingham Friday after a three and a half month honeymoon in Italy, Africa, Spain, and France. They returned aboard the Roma, which docked the previous evening. The honeymooners spent vacationing in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Calby, of Oakland avenue, entertained in their home at dinner in the Matthews home Tuesday evening.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Eastern Star was held last evening at 8 p. m. in the Masonic Temple.

ANNOUNCE MAY PRODUCTIONS AND PLANS OF VILLAGE PLAYERS

Announcement was made yesterday by Mrs. Arthur J. Halger, chairman of the Village Players, of the dates for the May productions of the society. As in March, the plays will be presented in two sections, May 23 and 24, and tickets for Oakland County guests may be secured.

The three best one-act plays of the year given by the Players will be produced again on these two occasions. These will be selected shortly by the members from the following plays: "And Paints Water," "Will O' the Wisp," "Mountains of Bether" which represented the October bill; "A Cup of Tea," "The Drama of Guile" and "Men Played Cards As Women Do," given in December; "The Changing of the Guard," "The Man in the Bowler Hat," "Three Revivals given in January; "Checkmate," "The Drama of Guile" and "The Widows' February; and "Bibleyure," "Undercurrent," and "The Governor," which Players' audiences will see Saturday evening.

An entertaining and diversified program is promised by the Players for Saturday, "Bibleyure," the opener, is a realistic story of life in a burlesque theater, wherein we meet a triangle situation between a burlesque queen, her comedian husband, and the "other" man.

The heavy piece of the evening will be "Undercurrent," which is a dramatic life in the slums. "The Governor" is a satire on American government, written to be read rather than acted. Mrs. Halger said. It concerns a prisoner who appears before a governor asking for a commutation of sentence.

Gyrophytes Give Dance And Bridge
Dancing and bridge will be enjoyed by the Gyrophytes next Wednesday at the Community House. Each member is expected to bring besides his own partner, another couple. Frank Higby is in charge of the arrangements.

Members will be entertained at their Friday meeting by William Orren James, a reporter, who will tell of some of his newspaper experiences. The monthly business meeting of the society will be held May 2.

BOUND OVER FOR TRIAL
Fred Williams and Roy Mosely, two Negroes, who were charged with breaking and entering the Municipal Warehouse last week, appeared for examination in Justice Bruck's court yesterday afternoon. They were bound over to the Circuit court. Bail of $1,000 each was not furnished, and they were remanded to jail. Gerald Lewis, arrested at the same time, was dismissed.

James Morrissey ran up to a policeman in Alton, Ill., and begged to be locked up for safety, when pursued by several women as a thief suspect.

First Baptist Church
Willetts at Bates St.
David C. Woodward, B. D. Minister
Rev. 911 Bates St.
Evening Worship, 7:30 p. m.
Sunday School, 10:30 a. m.
Each member of the family can find a place in the School.

Morning Worship, 11:00 a. m.
The cost of the original drain, with the omission of the Crook road branch of the drain and less than $650,000, but the committee decided the drain should therefore be adjourned for a year.

Harold H. Corson, village engineer, says that Birmingham would pay a comparatively small cost of the construction of the drain.

DETROIT CIVIC THEATER
Miss Bonstelle will appear in the next new bill at the Detroit Civic Theater, opening Monday night, as Fanny Cavendish in "The Royal Family," the comedy of stage folk, written by George S. Kaufman and Edna Ferber, and a proven popular success.

The Royal Family is the type of comedy that catches the audience at once, and keeps it through all three acts. There is the dashing Tony, who has forsaken the stage for Hollywood, and who flees from pursuing princesses and countesses who have fallen for his profile; there is Julie, who is at the peak of her Broadway career as a dramatic

Christian Science Church
Chester and Willetts streets
Church each Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.
Sunday School, 10:30 a. m.
Wednesday evening at 8.

Reading room in the church building is open from 11:30 a. m. until 4:30 p. m. daily except Sundays and holidays. It is open on Wednesdays before and after the service.

"Doctrine of Atonement" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches on Sunday, Apr. 21.

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him" (James 1:5).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Faith, if it be mere belief, is as a pendulum swinging between nothing and something, having to fixity. Faith, advanced to spiritual understanding, is the evidence gained from Spirit, which rebukes sin of every kind and establishes the claims of God" (p. 23).

First Presbyterian Church
10 a. m.—Sunday School. The Sunday School is growing fast. Come and find your place.
11 a. m.—Morning Worship. The music will be occupied by Dr. Earl F. Zeigler, Dean of the Graduate School, Presbyterian Christian Education.

6:15 p. m.—Young People assemble for a social hour and meeting.

St. James' Episcopal
Rev. Warner L. Forsyth Rector
Phonics, Rectory 189, Office 232-6
First Sunday after Easter.
8 a. m. Holy Communion.
11 a. m. Morning Prayer and Sermon.

Church School, 9:45 Junior Classes, 11 a. m. Primary and Kindergarten.
No evening service.

Methodist Episcopal Church
Maple Ave. W. at Henrietta St.
Robert Marentis Atkins, Pastor
Sunday School 10 a. m. Classes for everyone. The parents are invited to attend Sunday School with their children and while the Junior Classes are in session, may join the Berean Class and Men's Bible Class.

Morning Worship 11 a. m. Sermon Subject: "The Blind Who Will Not See."
Epworth League 6:15 p. m. For the Young People.
Evening Worship 7:30 p. m. Sermon Subject: "The Glory of The Suffering."

Fellowship Service 7:30 p. m. Wednesday Evening.
A cordial welcome is extended to those who would worship with us at these services.

United Presbyterian Church
On Woodward at Forest
Henry S. Evans, Minister
Bible School, 10 a. m.
Morning Worship, 11:15 a. m.
This Church tries, to the best of its ability, to be a true representative of this Village, which is Religion; not mere Denominationalism.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

E. T. Engel, coach Baldwin high school basketball team: "Victories in an athletic contest are desirable, of course, but not always necessary. A sense of real sportsmanship and fair play, even in defeat, is most desired in any contest."

ism, not mere pious forms for use on Sundays exclusively, but Religion that is vital and influential on week-days as well. If that is what you want to find in Church, we invite you to worship with us."

PROPOSED DRAIN DELAYED A YEAR

Board Decides Birmingham Garden Project Is Not Practical

There is not sufficient practical ability to warrant the construction of the Birmingham Gardens Drain, a project originally estimated at $740,000, it was determined by the special committee studying the project yesterday, according to Arthur W. Soucier, county drain commissioner.

The cost of the original drain, with the omission of the Crook road branch of the drain and less than $650,000, but the committee decided the drain should therefore be adjourned for a year.

Harold H. Corson, village engineer, says that Birmingham would pay a comparatively small cost of the construction of the drain.

DETROIT CIVIC THEATER
Miss Bonstelle will appear in the next new bill at the Detroit Civic Theater, opening Monday night, as Fanny Cavendish in "The Royal Family," the comedy of stage folk, written by George S. Kaufman and Edna Ferber, and a proven popular success.

The Royal Family is the type of comedy that catches the audience at once, and keeps it through all three acts. There is the dashing Tony, who has forsaken the stage for Hollywood, and who flees from pursuing princesses and countesses who have fallen for his profile; there is Julie, who is at the peak of her Broadway career as a dramatic

star; and Gaven, the grand-daughter, who shocks the clan by marrying a non-professional and declaring she will forsake the theater. And over them all Fanny Cavendish, the grandmother, rules with a rod of love and courage, with a sharp tongue and an invincible spirit that dominates the entire play.

Miss Bonstelle will be supported by her regular company, with Martha Morton, George Macready, Emily Ross and Walter Sherwin in prominent roles.

BRIGGS FAMILY WILL SEE RACES

Their Horse, "Forelock," Will Try For Cup In Maryland Events

Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Briggs, of "Walhai Hall," accompanied by their non-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. Dean Robinson, will leave Friday for Baltimore, where they will witness the Maryland Hunt Club races, which are Mrs. Briggs says, the outstanding event in the East. The Misses Margaret-Phillips Standart, Ellen Scafe, and Viola Hammond will also attend the races, which will be run off Saturday.

Mrs. Briggs' horse, "Forelock," is entered in the race, and is a leading competitor for the cup, having given outstanding performances at the Bloomfield Open Hunt club races last November and on other occasions. "Sea Soldier," a splendid horse well known in racing circles in this vicinity, and expected to play a brilliant part in the races Saturday, died last week of pneumonia.

"Sea Soldier," Mrs. Briggs said further, was a son of "Man O' War," who also sired "Purple Pirate," a horse belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Briggs. He was owned by a syndicate near Chicago, and had raced at the Bloomfield Open Hunt club, where he was defeated last November, and in Essex, where he was victorious.

On May 3, Mr. and Mrs. Briggs and Mr. and Mrs. James G. Goudie also of Bloomfield Hills, will sail on the Bremen for Europe. They will return on June 1, after which Mrs. Briggs will open "Walhai Hall" for the summer season.

The Trans-Siberian railway stretching over 10,000 miles is the longest in the world.

star; and Gaven, the grand-daughter, who shocks the clan by marrying a non-professional and declaring she will forsake the theater. And over them all Fanny Cavendish, the grandmother, rules with a rod of love and courage, with a sharp tongue and an invincible spirit that dominates the entire play.

Miss Bonstelle will be supported by her regular company, with Martha Morton, George Macready, Emily Ross and Walter Sherwin in prominent roles.

star; and Gaven, the grand-daughter, who shocks the clan by marrying a non-professional and declaring she will forsake the theater. And over them all Fanny Cavendish, the grandmother, rules with a rod of love and courage, with a sharp tongue and an invincible spirit that dominates the entire play.

Miss Bonstelle will be supported by her regular company, with Martha Morton, George Macready, Emily Ross and Walter Sherwin in prominent roles.

star; and Gaven, the grand-daughter, who shocks the clan by marrying a non-professional and declaring she will forsake the theater. And over them all Fanny Cavendish, the grandmother, rules with a rod of love and courage, with a sharp tongue and an invincible spirit that dominates the entire play.

Miss Bonstelle will be supported by her regular company, with Martha Morton, George Macready, Emily Ross and Walter Sherwin in prominent roles.

star; and Gaven, the grand-daughter, who shocks the clan by marrying a non-professional and declaring she will forsake the theater. And over them all Fanny Cavendish, the grandmother, rules with a rod of love and courage, with a sharp tongue and an invincible spirit that dominates the entire play.

Miss Bonstelle will be supported by her regular company, with Martha Morton, George Macready, Emily Ross and Walter Sherwin in prominent roles.

star; and Gaven, the grand-daughter, who shocks the clan by marrying a non-professional and declaring she will forsake the theater. And over them all Fanny Cavendish, the grandmother, rules with a rod of love and courage, with a sharp tongue and an invincible spirit that dominates the entire play.

Miss Bonstelle will be supported by her regular company, with Martha Morton, George Macready, Emily Ross and Walter Sherwin in prominent roles.

star; and Gaven, the grand-daughter, who shocks the clan by marrying a non-professional and declaring she will forsake the theater. And over them all Fanny Cavendish, the grandmother, rules with a rod of love and courage, with a sharp tongue and an invincible spirit that dominates the entire play.

Miss Bonstelle will be supported by her regular company, with Martha Morton, George Macready, Emily Ross and Walter Sherwin in prominent roles.

star; and Gaven, the grand-daughter, who shocks the clan by marrying a non-professional and declaring she will forsake the theater. And over them all Fanny Cavendish, the grandmother, rules with a rod of love and courage, with a sharp tongue and an invincible spirit that dominates the entire play.

Miss Bonstelle will be supported by her regular company, with Martha Morton, George Macready, Emily Ross and Walter Sherwin in prominent roles.

star; and Gaven, the grand-daughter, who shocks the clan by marrying a non-professional and declaring she will forsake the theater. And over them all Fanny Cavendish, the grandmother, rules with a rod of love and courage, with a sharp tongue and an invincible spirit that dominates the entire play.

Miss Bonstelle will be supported by her regular company, with Martha Morton, George Macready, Emily Ross and Walter Sherwin in prominent roles.

star; and Gaven, the grand-daughter, who shocks the clan by marrying a non-professional and declaring she will forsake the theater. And over them all Fanny Cavendish, the grandmother, rules with a rod of love and courage, with a sharp tongue and an invincible spirit that dominates the entire play.

Miss Bonstelle will be supported by her regular company, with Martha Morton, George Macready, Emily Ross and Walter Sherwin in prominent roles.

star; and Gaven, the grand-daughter, who shocks the clan by marrying a non-professional and declaring she will forsake the theater. And over them all Fanny Cavendish, the grandmother, rules with a rod of love and courage, with a sharp tongue and an invincible spirit that dominates the entire play.

Miss Bonstelle will be supported by her regular company, with Martha Morton, George Macready, Emily Ross and Walter Sherwin in prominent roles.

star; and Gaven, the grand-daughter, who shocks the clan by marrying a non-professional and declaring she will forsake the theater. And over them all Fanny Cavendish, the grandmother, rules with a rod of love and courage, with a sharp tongue and an invincible spirit that dominates the entire play.

Miss Bonstelle will be supported by her regular company, with Martha Morton, George Macready, Emily Ross and Walter Sherwin in prominent roles.

star; and Gaven, the grand-daughter, who shocks the clan by marrying a non-professional and declaring she will forsake the theater. And over them all Fanny Cavendish, the grandmother, rules with a rod of love and courage, with a sharp tongue and an invincible spirit that dominates the entire play.

Miss Bonstelle will be supported by her regular company, with Martha Morton, George Macready, Emily Ross and Walter Sherwin in prominent roles.

star; and Gaven, the grand-daughter, who shocks the clan by marrying a non-professional and declaring she will forsake the theater. And over them all Fanny Cavendish, the grandmother, rules with a rod of love and courage, with a sharp tongue and an invincible spirit that dominates the entire play.

Miss Bonstelle will be supported by her regular company, with Martha Morton, George Macready, Emily Ross and Walter Sherwin in prominent roles.

star; and Gaven, the grand-daughter, who shocks the clan by marrying a non-professional and declaring she will forsake the theater. And over them all Fanny Cavendish, the grandmother, rules with a rod of love and courage, with a sharp tongue and an invincible spirit that dominates the entire play.

Miss Bonstelle will be supported by her regular company, with Martha Morton, George Macready, Emily Ross and Walter Sherwin in prominent roles.

star; and Gaven, the grand-daughter, who shocks the clan by marrying a non-professional and declaring she will forsake the theater. And over them all Fanny Cavendish, the grandmother, rules with a rod of love and courage, with a sharp tongue and an invincible spirit that dominates the entire play.

Miss Bonstelle will be supported by her regular company, with Martha Morton, George Macready, Emily Ross and Walter Sherwin in prominent roles.

star; and Gaven, the grand-daughter, who shocks the clan by marrying a non-professional and declaring she will forsake the theater. And over them all Fanny Cavendish, the grandmother, rules with a rod of love and courage, with a sharp tongue and an invincible spirit that dominates the entire play.

Miss Bonstelle will be supported by her regular company, with Martha Morton, George Macready, Emily Ross and Walter Sherwin in prominent roles.

The Vogue is Plymouth Pewter

Of all smartest of all Gifts is Plymouth Pewter. It fits into every home and blends with any China or Glass. A console set of Candelabra and Bowl gives a colonial effect to the modern table. It possesses the grace and charm of that centerpiece Great Grandmother once cherished. Plymouth Pewter has a soft lasting luster and does not tarnish. Every piece of it is a direct copy of Early American Pewter. Such items as a Vase, Coffee Pot, Compote or Ice Tub make most acceptable Wedding Gifts, for the vogue is Plymouth Pewter.

La Belle's
137 WEST MAPLE AVENUE
Birmingham's Shop of Gifts
TELEPHONE 1225

Big Savings

25% to 35%

A Portion of Our Bedding Department

a Good INNER SPRING MATTRESS $11.95

Today and Every Day

EVERY ARTICLE AT THE WOLVERINE PRICE LOW ALL THE TIME

BUY DIRECT FROM

Wolverine Warehouse Store
FRANKLIN ROAD at G. T. R. R. PONTIAC
OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL 9 P. M. PHONE PONTIAC 5141

SPRING MODES in FOOTWEAR OF DISTINCTION

Fine craftsmanship is everywhere evident in the beautiful Hornung shoes for Spring! Styles are definitely of the 1930 mode, with attention to detail which marks them to be of unusual and superior quality.

Come in, see the Hornung showing of footwear for Spring—in shades to match or accentuate your costume.

CLOVEE HORNUNG
SHOES FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN
WARREN BUILDING - BIRMINGHAM 1364

WARREN BUILDING - BIRMINGHAM 1364

GIRL SCOUT SALE OF SANDERS BAKED GOODS

Saturday April 26—167 North Woodward Avenue—All Day