

When you poke your nose into...

LEARNING SET FIRE PROBLEM

Bloomfield, Troy and Southfield To Get Ultimatum On Fire Protection Meeting on Tuesday

Representatives of Southfield, Troy and Bloomfield Township will confer next Tuesday evening with Birmingham fire committee...

Frequent Delays A proposal that the village purchase additional fire fighting equipment to be paid for by the township...

James W. Parry, village manager, explaining returns for the risk run, Commissioner Tucker says that the meeting would be held at the Municipal Building...

Bloomfield, Troy and Southfield, Michigan, are protected by other municipalities and only certain outlying districts have insurance...

STATE POLICE TRAINING SCHOOL WILL BE CONDUCTED IN VILLAGE

A police training school for southern Oklahoma county sheriffs conducted in the commission chambers of the Municipal building...

Calendar of Coming Events

- Today—Regular meeting of the Bloomfield Hills and District Horticultural Society at the Community House.
Friday, Aug. 15—Dollar Day!
Friday, Aug. 15—Edith Egan will speak at Oakland Hills Golf Club.

THEVES VISIT 11 DENTISTS; STEAL TEETH

Thieves who entered 11 dental offices in Oakland and Macomb counties last week, also stole Birmingham and robbed the offices of Drs. D. M. Johnson and James Reiller.

ALLAN MURRAY, HIS WIFE AND CHILD BURNED WHEN CAR CATCHES FIRE

Returning to Birmingham from Bloomington, Ill., where they had gone to visit relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Murray, of 548 Pierce street, their daughter, Donna Marie, 3 years old, and Murray's sister, Miss Violet Trombley, 26, suffered slight burns and narrowly escaped death when their automobile in which they were riding burst into flames following a collision with a Buick on Saturday morning.

DEPRESSION IN POLAND DUE TO GRAIN SURPLUS, VISITOR SAYS

(By JOHN HILL.) Mr. Hill, the author of the article, has written especially for The Eclectic, is treasurer of the General Motors Association, Chicago, Ill. He has resided 15 months in Poland, and plans to return there in 1931.

DRIVER RELEASED IN AUTO FATALITY

Wm. Ellwood, of Oakland Ave., Freed Of Blame In Crash William Ellwood, of 615 Oakland avenue, who was involved in a crash on July 31, in which a Buick sedan, owned by Cecile Duncan, 21 years old, of Washington, Mich., was instantly killed, was released from jail...

CAR RUNS AWAY; DRIVER IS FINED

William Davis, 647 Connors avenue, Detroit, was found guilty of reckless driving Monday in the court of justice. He was fined $10 and to pay for repairing the porch at 331 North Woodward avenue.

FURNITURE STORAGE SUIT AND EXTRA TROUSERS

264 Broadway, Phone 7024-54. SUIT AND EXTRA TROUSERS Tailoring, 108 S. W. 1st St., Phone 188-5. HYLANDS CAFE 162 South Woodward Avenue, Phone 188-5.

Dollar Day Bargains Sure To Attract Entire Village

Forty-six Birmingham stores selling Dollar Day bargains will have united in a gigantic sale Friday, Aug. 15. An exceptional opportunity for buyers in Birmingham and vicinity will be offered by representative dealers of almost every form of merchandise in the village and an even larger patronage than previous sales has attracted, is expected to take advantage of the day.

Village Schools, Redecorated And Improved, Will Open Sept. 3

Preparations for Dollar Day have been made for many weeks by the business men of the village and remarkable bargains, itemized in the advertising columns of The Eclectic, will be offered by the merchants. Leading businessmen of the village have given their enthusiastic support and efforts have been made to accommodate the great increase of sales.

Band At Hill School

The Hill school will be used next year for the band and orchestra organization at the school. Those who were pupils at Hill school last year, will this fall receive a diploma from this high school.

Depression In Poland Due To Grain Surplus, Visitor Says

(By JOHN HILL.) Mr. Hill, the author of the article, has written especially for The Eclectic, is treasurer of the General Motors Association, Chicago, Ill. He has resided 15 months in Poland, and plans to return there in 1931.

Willis M. Brewer Heads Sanatorium

Willis M. Brewer announced that he would accept the position of general manager of the Michigan State Sanatorium at Howell, Mich. He was appointed to this position by Dr. G. B. Leslie, the medical superintendent of the sanatorium, which Mrs. Bertha Carter, of Pontiac, was severely injured, during the fire at Howell, Mich., on July 10, when he and Mrs. Brewer returned on moving to Howell.

Willis M. Brewer Heads Sanatorium

Willis M. Brewer announced that he would accept the position of general manager of the Michigan State Sanatorium at Howell, Mich. He was appointed to this position by Dr. G. B. Leslie, the medical superintendent of the sanatorium, which Mrs. Bertha Carter, of Pontiac, was severely injured, during the fire at Howell, Mich., on July 10, when he and Mrs. Brewer returned on moving to Howell.

Willis M. Brewer Heads Sanatorium

Willis M. Brewer announced that he would accept the position of general manager of the Michigan State Sanatorium at Howell, Mich. He was appointed to this position by Dr. G. B. Leslie, the medical superintendent of the sanatorium, which Mrs. Bertha Carter, of Pontiac, was severely injured, during the fire at Howell, Mich., on July 10, when he and Mrs. Brewer returned on moving to Howell.

Two Trees On Oak St. To Come Down

The petition of the White Star Refining Co. to cut down two trees at the corner of Woodward avenue and Oak street, in the construction of a driveway into a proposed gasoline station at that corner, was granted by the village commission Monday night after the report of E. M. Olin, landscape architect, indicated that the trees were in the way of the driveway.

Structure To Be Erected At Cost Of Several Hundred Thousand Dollars

The growth of population and business in Birmingham and vicinity during the past five years has been rapid and steady and the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. proposes to build one of its largest branch office buildings here within the next three years at a cost of several hundred thousand dollars.

Expansion Planned

Officials of the company in Detroit report that although the architects have not yet submitted plans for the building, it is expected it will be several stories high with the most modern equipment. Whether the dial system will be installed depends upon the advances made in the electrical program at the plant last Monday announced the building would be constructed within the next few years.

Take $3,000 Worth Of Household Goods While Owner Is Away

Oakland County deputy sheriff today was continuing his search for the thieves who broke into the home of Waldemar P. Adams, 1141 Maple road, near Lasher road and stole clothing, household goods and china valued at approximately $3,000.

66,000 GALLONS OF WATER USED IN JULY

During the month of July when the drought had seriously affected the midwest area, Birmingham water supply never was threatened, although more than 66,000 gallons of water, or more than twice the amount ever used in any month, was used, James W. Parry, village manager, reports.

Delay Granted In Liquor Case

Atty. Declares Hill's Ordinance Unconstitutional; Trial of F. L. Stevens and Byron Anderson by the circuit court at Howell, Mich., was postponed until August 20 in Justice F. L. Stevens' court.

Close Barnum Pool, Aug. 23

The Barnum school swimming pool will be closed Aug. 23 for 10 days for cleaning and painting. Miss Ann Reid, of the school, is in charge of the pool.

News of Your Neighbors

Miss Dorothy Brabb, of West Maple avenue, will be hostess at a luncheon Friday to Mrs. William Blakes, of Howell, Mich. Mrs. Blakes is the wife of the late William Blakes, of Howell, Mich.

News of Your Neighbors

Mrs. Carleton Fox, of Riverside avenue, will return tonight from a trip to Fort Wayne, Ind. Mrs. Fox is the wife of the late Carleton Fox, of Fort Wayne, Ind.

News of Your Neighbors

Mr. James Patterson, of Frank street, accompanied by Mr. Howes Shaw, of Harmon avenue, and Mr. G. Essen Olson, of Adams road, will be in town tonight from a trip to Fort Wayne, Ind. Mr. Patterson is the wife of the late James Patterson, of Fort Wayne, Ind.

News of Your Neighbors

Mrs. Frank Lawrence of Southfield, returned recently from a trip to Wisconsin where he has been spending several weeks at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. W. Adams, of Southfield avenue and at present her home-guest.

News of Your Neighbors

Mrs. Frank Lawrence of Southfield, returned recently from a trip to Wisconsin where he has been spending several weeks at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. W. Adams, of Southfield avenue and at present her home-guest.

News of Your Neighbors

Mrs. Frank Lawrence of Southfield, returned recently from a trip to Wisconsin where he has been spending several weeks at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. W. Adams, of Southfield avenue and at present her home-guest.

News of Your Neighbors

Mrs. Frank Lawrence of Southfield, returned recently from a trip to Wisconsin where he has been spending several weeks at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. W. Adams, of Southfield avenue and at present her home-guest.

News of Your Neighbors

Mrs. Frank Lawrence of Southfield, returned recently from a trip to Wisconsin where he has been spending several weeks at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. W. Adams, of Southfield avenue and at present her home-guest.

News of Your Neighbors

Mrs. Frank Lawrence of Southfield, returned recently from a trip to Wisconsin where he has been spending several weeks at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. W. Adams, of Southfield avenue and at present her home-guest.

News of Your Neighbors

Mrs. Frank Lawrence of Southfield, returned recently from a trip to Wisconsin where he has been spending several weeks at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. W. Adams, of Southfield avenue and at present her home-guest.

News of Your Neighbors

Mrs. Frank Lawrence of Southfield, returned recently from a trip to Wisconsin where he has been spending several weeks at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. W. Adams, of Southfield avenue and at present her home-guest.

News of Your Neighbors

Mrs. Frank Lawrence of Southfield, returned recently from a trip to Wisconsin where he has been spending several weeks at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. W. Adams, of Southfield avenue and at present her home-guest.

News of Your Neighbors

Mrs. Frank Lawrence of Southfield, returned recently from a trip to Wisconsin where he has been spending several weeks at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. W. Adams, of Southfield avenue and at present her home-guest.

News of Your Neighbors

Mrs. Frank Lawrence of Southfield, returned recently from a trip to Wisconsin where he has been spending several weeks at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. W. Adams, of Southfield avenue and at present her home-guest.