

Mrs. Molla Propp

"A little accident," said MRS. MOLLA PROPP, "is just a lucky big one."

WELL, Henry went and did it, my dear. He heard about those radio things for the car and he couldn't sleep until we had one in our car. Of course, he had to show off. So we took the Freds out. Margy and I were in the back seat. And I was telling Henry as we drove along to watch the road and be careful at the corners and not run into a milk truck. Then George turned on the radio. There I was, trying to watch the road for Henry and talking to Margy and listening to Margy and listening to the radio all at the same time. A senator from Washington, D. C. was talking. "Let these warning words," he said in a "ring" from coast to coast. "Look out for that truck!" I yelled. "And what," said the voice, "is around the corner. . . . "A tree!"

Copyright, 1930—John Jensen.

ETTA KETT

Home Talent Vaudeville

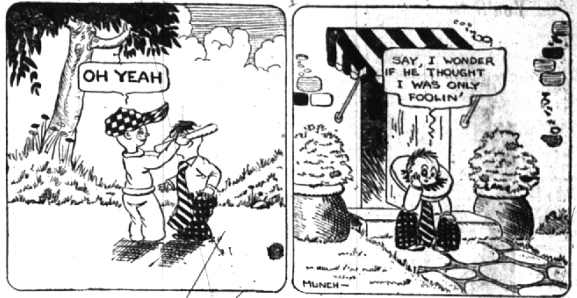

—By PAUL ROBINSON

MAC

Pop Was Right, But—?

—By Munch

Life's Little Laughs

You Can't Outguess Them "By mistake, you cannot marry again. If you do, your husband has clearly specified in his will that his fortune will go to his brother."

Remember Crutch Tipsters? Teacher—What is your father's occupation? Billie—He's a worm's substitute.

Must Be A Good One Applicant—Can I get Clancy's job? He's drowning in the lake. Employer—You're too late. The man who pushed him in has got it.

Whang! "How are you getting along at school, Henry?" asked the father. "Fine," answered the son. "I have learned to say 'thank you' in French."

There Are Paper Diapers Mrs. Smithers was explaining

HIGH PRESSURE PETE

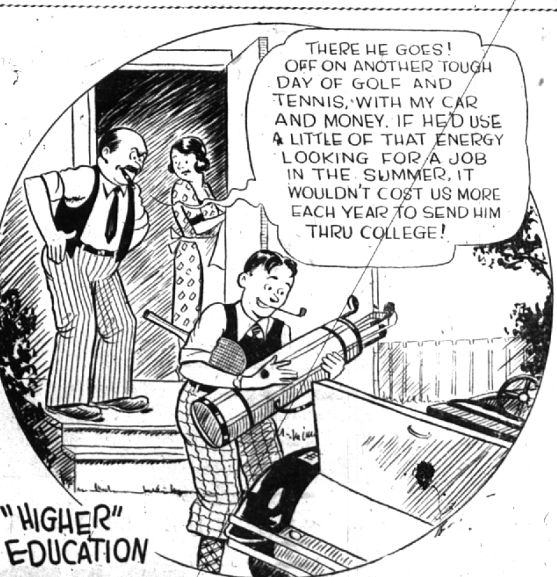

Pleasant Thoughts

—By SWAN

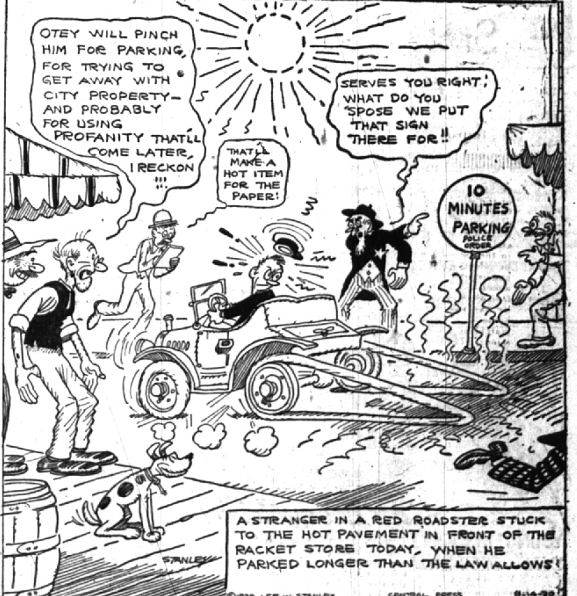

THE GREAT AMERICAN HOME

THE OLD HOME TOWN

Reprinted C. S. Faint Olds.

Stanley

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE CO. On Your Vacation, Telephone Home... And give the family the number of the telephone at which you can be reached Business interests, and the welfare of dear ones at home, are matters of concern whenever you are away. And the family worries about you, too, during your absence. Relieve your anxiety, and enjoy your vacation or business trip more, by frequent Long Distance telephone calls home. And give the family the number of the telephone where you can be called, so you can be reached quickly, if necessary. Long Distance rates are surprisingly low and the service is fast.

the routine to the new cook. "We lunch precisely at one on Wednesday," she said, "as on that day we always go for a spin in the car at two." "Very good, mum," replied the cook, "but I shall have to leave the washin' up till we get back again!"—Lester Mercury.

self madame. They haven't a wrinkle.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Get Married, You Will. "What is this thing, dear?" "Only a pawn ticket." "Why don't you get two so we can both go?"—C. & O. Magazine.

Corrected Classics. Whooie, Gooie, Gander, Whither do you wander? Upstairs and downstairs And in my lady's chamber.

There I met an old man. Who would not say his prayers, and immediately suspecting him of being a Communist, I took him by the left leg and threw him downstairs.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Disgrace Upon Us. The Irish convict had missed an article of his personal kit. He demanded an interview with the governor. The interview was conceded.

"Sorr," began the convict, loudly, "there's a thief in this prison."—Birmingham Gazette.

No Speeding? "Wasn't your egg cooked long enough?" "Yes, but not soon enough."—Motorist.

Darling! "I see here where a man married a woman for money. You wouldn't marry me for money, wpt would you?" "Why, no; I wouldn't marry you for all the money in the world."—Exchange.

And a Nice Little Mortgage. Ike—Girls want a lot nowadays, Mike—Yes, and they want a house on it too.—Banter.

I want to trade this roadster for a coupe. "What's the matter with it?" "Nothing—only I quit chewing tobacco."—Cross Section.

A STRANGER IN A RED ROADSTER STUCK TO THE HOT PAVEMENT IN FRONT OF THE BAKET STORE TODAY, WHEN HE PARKED LONGER THAN THE LAW ALLOWS!

OTHEY WILL PINCH HIM FOR PARKING, FOR TRYING TO GET AWAY WITH CITY PROPERTY—AND PROBABLY FOR USING PROFANITY THAT'LL COME LATER, I RECKON!!!

THAT'LL MAKE A HOT ITEM FOR THE PAPER!

SERVES YOU RIGHT! WHAT DO YOU 'POSE WE PUT THAT SIGN THERE FOR!!

10 MINUTES PARKING PER HOUR

STANLEY