

What Is A Mother To Do?

The children are they contented? Or do they become cross in this hot weather, with nothing to occupy their playtime? If by chance you are in a quandary as to how best you can remove these irksome moments from your child's day—surely it would be a wise thing to come in and let us show you our new line of Summer Store junior fiction for the young readers.

La Belle's

"Birmingham's Shop of Books and Gifts"

137 WEST MAPLE TELEPHONE 1225

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Mallerer, of George street, entertained a group of friends August 3, celebrating their first wedding anniversary. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dwanne Beaman, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. George McKnight, all of Detroit, and Dr. and Mrs. Wainman, Miss Margaret Balsey, Stanley Ross, all of Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wall and her daughter, Miss Jane Wall, of Ferris avenue, who have been spending several days in a summer cottage in Wisconsin, arrived home yesterday.

Mr. Clarence Warner, of Worth street, is spending a week at work with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Warner, at Leland, Mich., returned Monday.

Mr. T. M. Faddis, of Woodland avenue, entertained at their cottage on Lake Erie last Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Herrick, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Pyle, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wood, and Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Lee.

Mr. Otto F. Beler and his son, Dean, of Pierce street, motored to Traverse City this week, where they will remain for a week.

Mr. Carrie M. Harris and her two children, Alton and Ida Louise, of 720 Hazel street, left last week to spend the remainder of the summer with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Barstow, of Massena, N. Y.

Mr. Stewart Hanley, of Hillholme, Vaughan road, with Mrs. Frank Hamilton of Detroit, left yesterday by motor for Northport Point where they will remain for a few days. Next week they will go to Spring Lake, where they will enter the Women's Western Michigan Open Golf tournament.

Mr. G. W. J. Linton of Lone Pine road, entertained her D. Y. C. swimming club with a bridge-luncheon last Saturday. There were eight guests present.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bailey who have been visiting on Long Lake and Beach road are moving to the Center Apartments next month.

Mr. G. R. Norton left Monday where they will make their home for the coming year. Dr. Norton further studies year to making his residence in Okemah.

Dr. Norton's practice has been assumed by his brother, Dr. J. W. Norton. Dr. and Mrs. Northport moved to their new home at 1297 Miller road in the village last June.

Mr. Horace P. Shaw is spending two weeks at Mackinac Island.

Mr. E. B. Root of Pierce street, returned Monday from a sojourn of several days at the home of her mother and sister in Adrian, Mich.

Miss Grace Heacock, of Pierce street, accompanied by Mrs. Lyman Green, of Pierce street, spent last Wednesday at the summer home of a friend, Mrs. Minnie Finley, at Union Lake.

Mr. Edward A. Smith, of Redford road, accompanied by her son, Mr. Lawrence E. Smith, went to the home of Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. James Strong, at Pine Lake, where they spent the day, Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Reynolds and son, Jack, of Pierce street, accompanied by a friend from Detroit, spent Tuesday at Bob-Lo Park.

Mr. E. H. Higbie, Jr., of St. Louis, who is the house-guest of her sister, Mrs. Walter G. Morley, was complimented Thursday at a bridge luncheon given by 10 guests by Mrs. Robert C. Traub in her home on Long Lake road.

Mr. Ralph Stone, of "Stonela," Cranbrook road, was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Sawyer, of Highland, Mich. Visiting Mrs. Ralph Stone over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. H. Bradford, Jr., and their small son, Bradford, Jr., who left Bradford with their parents, and Mrs. Stone, Jr., have gone to Nantucket Lodge at Lake Mackinac for two weeks.

Mrs. Sam M. Garber, of Bloomingfield Village, left Saturday for a month's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Jacques, at their summer home in Hampton Bay, L. I.

Mrs. W. G. Wall and her daughter, Miss Jane Wall, of Ferris avenue, who have been spending several days in a summer cottage in Wisconsin, arrived home yesterday.

Mr. Clarence Warner, of Worth street, is spending a week at work with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Warner, at Leland, Mich., returned Monday.

Mr. T. M. Faddis, of Woodland avenue, entertained at their cottage on Lake Erie last Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Herrick, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Pyle, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wood, and Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Lee.

Mr. Otto F. Beler and his son, Dean, of Pierce street, motored to Traverse City this week, where they will remain for a week.

Mr. Carrie M. Harris and her two children, Alton and Ida Louise, of 720 Hazel street, left last week to spend the remainder of the summer with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Barstow, of Massena, N. Y.

Mr. Stewart Hanley, of Hillholme, Vaughan road, with Mrs. Frank Hamilton of Detroit, left yesterday by motor for Northport Point where they will remain for a few days. Next week they will go to Spring Lake, where they will enter the Women's Western Michigan Open Golf tournament.

Mr. G. W. J. Linton of Lone Pine road, entertained her D. Y. C. swimming club with a bridge-luncheon last Saturday. There were eight guests present.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bailey who have been visiting on Long Lake and Beach road are moving to the Center Apartments next month.

Mr. G. R. Norton left Monday where they will make their home for the coming year. Dr. Norton further studies year to making his residence in Okemah.

Dr. Norton's practice has been assumed by his brother, Dr. J. W. Norton. Dr. and Mrs. Northport moved to their new home at 1297 Miller road in the village last June.

Mr. Horace P. Shaw is spending two weeks at Mackinac Island.

Mr. E. B. Root of Pierce street, returned Monday from a sojourn of several days at the home of her mother and sister in Adrian, Mich.

Miss Grace Heacock, of Pierce street, accompanied by Mrs. Lyman Green, of Pierce street, spent last Wednesday at the summer home of a friend, Mrs. Minnie Finley, at Union Lake.

Mr. Edward A. Smith, of Redford road, accompanied by her son, Mr. Lawrence E. Smith, went to the home of Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. James Strong, at Pine Lake, where they spent the day, Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Reynolds and son, Jack, of Pierce street, accompanied by a friend from Detroit, spent Tuesday at Bob-Lo Park.

Mr. E. H. Higbie, Jr., of St. Louis, who is the house-guest of to their home on Oak Knob after motoring to Nipigon Point for a week's visit.

Mrs. Robert C. Hargreaves with her children, Ruth and Bobby, of Cranbrook road, will return Saturday night from a two weeks' vacation at Charlevoix.

Mrs. William G. Harry of Lone Pine road is spending the season at her summer home on Mackinac Island. Mr. Harry returned from Mackinac last week.

Miss Betty Brede, of Lake Park drive, is hostess this week to her cousin, Miss Nancy McGregor, of Walkerville, Ont. Miss McGregor will return to her home the latter part of the week.

Mrs. R. H. Mann, of Greenwood avenue, arrived home Monday from a week's stay at Camp Interlochen in northern Michigan, where she was visiting her daughter, Katherine, who is a counselor at Camp Interlochen.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Parker, of Oakland avenue, returned recently from a visit of several days at Camp Charlevoix. While there they celebrated Father's Day with their son, who is in camp for the summer.

Mr. James Patterson, of Frank street, accompanied by Miss Westhaver of Detroit, spent the week-end at Camp Interlochen, returning to Birmingham last Monday.

Miss Florence Grant, of Oak street, who has been spending the past two weeks with Miss Heaton in her cottage at the Belvedere Club, Charlevoix, will return home tomorrow.

Miss Emily Leech Walker, of Beaver road, returned home Saturday from a six weeks' sojourn with friends in Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClellan, of Rivewood, and Mr. Harris of Oak Knob street, went last Thursday to "T" Lake to spend a week at their summer home.

Miss Pearl Lamb, of Knox street, was hostess to three friends last Saturday for luncheon and bridge. The guests were Mrs. Jack Lamb, of Park street, Mrs. Robert McClellan, of Rivewood, and Mrs. Fred Trumbull, of Ridgechale avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ford and their daughter, Miss Oala, of Knox street, have just returned from an extended motor trip through northern Michigan, where they travelled for three weeks. Saturday they will go to Pine Lake to spend a week at their summer home.

Miss Lacie Bell, of Knox street, is spending the week with her uncle, Mr. Purdy, of Southfield road.

HONORING Miss Martha H. Scott, of Washington, D. C., the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Grylls, Mrs. C. A. Newcomb, Jr. entertained at luncheon at the Orchard Lake Country club yesterday.

Last Saturday, Miss Monzelle Hoffmann, of Charing Cross road, returned from her studies at Columbia College of Expression at Chicago to be with her parents for the remainder of the summer.

Mr. Donald Bell, of Elm street, who has been making a visit of a week at the home of Miss Betty Crawford at the Crawford Estate on Orchard Lake returned to his home last Wednesday.

Mrs. Joseph Stroup, of Elm street, accompanied by her two sons, Carl and Bob, went to Van Etten Lake last week where they will remain for several weeks at their summer home.

Mrs. Anania Purdy, of Detroit, accompanied by her two granddaughters, Miss Mariana Bell, of Knox street, and Miss Helen Purdy, of Howell, returned last Thursday from a month's trip through the west. On their trip they visited Denver, Kansas City, Wichita, and several places in Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. John Marchant, of Knox street, returned last Thursday from a motor trip in the west. The Marchants were gone a month, and visited Salt Lake City, Yellowstone Park, and Hollywood.

THE regular monthly luncheon and business meeting of the League of St. James Women was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. A. C. Utter, on Southfield avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Elliott and their daughter, Marjorie Ann, of Townsend street, will leave August 15 for a two weeks' stay at Hubbard Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Lane and their son, Billy, are spending these two weeks at the Bloomfield Hills Country club.

Mrs. Walter H. Herdich, of Baldwin avenue, entertained in her home Tuesday at luncheon, complimenting Miss Elizabeth Bailey, of Washington, D. C., the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Brabson, Jr., of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Morgan and their children, William Jr. and Jean, will arrive this weekend from Nashville, Tenn., to spend a week as the guests of Mrs. Frederick H. Holt, of Linden drive. Mrs. Morgan is Mrs. Holt's niece.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilcox returned to their home on Adams road Sunday after a two weeks' stay in Ft. Huron, London, Ont., and Kenosha, Wis.

NOVEL invitations, promising weird happenings, have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Dwight L. Cooke, of Bloomfield Village. The guests are bidden to come next Saturday evening in old clothes, equipped with flashlights, and in case of rain, slickers and rubbers.

Miss Bennett Carr, of Henley drive, entertained five of her friends at a dinner-dance at Plum Hollow Golf Club last Saturday. Miss Carr's guests were Miss Catherine Carr, Miss Veneta Cook, Mr. Robert Voss, Mr. Floyd Doherty, and Mr. Eugene Reynolds.

Mrs. Richard H. Kalfuss and her daughters, Nina and Virginia, of Poppleton avenue, returned last week from two months' visit in New York City.

More Society news on page two, part three.

Business Surveys are just common sense

Before you locate a new business investigate. And don't do it just at odd moments. Employ the services of a Realtor. He has his finger always in the business pulse of the neighborhood—and is pledged to give you unprejudiced advice and service.

It pays to consult a REALTOR

a member of the Birmingham Real Estate Board

Robert R. Allen
D. Don Broadway
Stephen & Blagden
Charles G. Collins, Inc.
C. J. Butler
W. E. Calkins & Tillman
James A. Eaton
C. W. Edwards & Son
Marshall Hunt
C. W. Johnson
E. C. Jackson
W. H. Jones
Caldwell-McCann Co.
David L. Lewis
David Livingston
C. L. Lusk
The Marketing Land Co.
John B. Saunders
C. W. Smith
H. H. Shover
W. H. Shover & Wasey
Wesley & Moore
Mrs. E. E. Holton

The Garden & Landscape Co.

Grass Seed Garden Seed Fertilizers
Trees, Shrubs, Plants - Supplies and Accessories

SEE US when you plan your Fall Planting. We also carry a complete line of seeds, fertilizers, and garden accessories.

In Birmingham at Woodward and Willets

(POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT)

VOTE FOR
A. C. ADAMS
for
CORONER

Republican Primary—
Oakland County
YOUR VOTE WILL BE APPRECIATED

The Date Has Been Set!

WEDNESDAY

In Birmingham

FRIDAY AUGUST 15

Sponsored by the Merchants of Birmingham, August 15th will be an event of values! Sharp reductions and a policy of more for less will mark Dollar Day, when you can shop thriftily and S-A-V-E-!

See next week's paper for complete details of the many values which will be offered in Birmingham shops and stores.

After spending two months in European travel, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Rice, of Nicolet road, are expected home this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt A. McDonald, of Hilltop lane, are visitors in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lefebvre, of Oak street, accompanied by a group of Birmingham friends, will set sail next week on a racing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Lefebvre and her sister, Miss Mary Stewart-Clarke, of Huntington, West Va., are in Oakdale, Ont., for the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hale, of Dewey street, enjoyed their vacation recently to Toronto, Montreal, and Quebec, returning last week by way of Quebec.

Mrs. Edward J. Butler of Oak Knob, West Long Lake road, and Mrs. T. L. Luscombe of 1128 West Maple avenue left Tuesday for a motor trip north to St. Ignace. They will spend a week or 10 days at Black Lake.

Miss Kathryn Butler, of Oak Knob, West Long Lake road, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Duane McGeechay of Melvindale, Mich.

Mrs. Frank Cox, of Greenwood avenue, entertained a group of friends for tea at her home last Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roswell G. Curtis with their children, Roswell, Jr. and Barbara Jean, have returned

Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Morley, was complimented Thursday at a bridge luncheon given by 10 guests by Mrs. Robert C. Traub in her home on Long Lake road.

Mr. Ralph Stone, of "Stonela," Cranbrook road, was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Sawyer, of Highland, Mich. Visiting Mrs. Ralph Stone over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. H. Bradford, Jr., and their small son, Bradford, Jr., who left Bradford with their parents, and Mrs. Stone, Jr., have gone to Nantucket Lodge at Lake Mackinac for two weeks.

Mrs. Sam M. Garber, of Bloomingfield Village, left Saturday for a month's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Jacques, at their summer home in Hampton Bay, L. I.

Mrs. W. G. Wall and her daughter, Miss Jane Wall, of Ferris avenue, who have been spending several days in a summer cottage in Wisconsin, arrived home yesterday.

Mr. Clarence Warner, of Worth street, is spending a week at work with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Warner, at Leland, Mich., returned Monday.

Mr. T. M. Faddis, of Woodland avenue, entertained at their cottage on Lake Erie last Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Herrick, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Pyle, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wood, and Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Lee.

Mr. Otto F. Beler and his son, Dean, of Pierce street, motored to Traverse City this week, where they will remain for a week.

Mr. Carrie M. Harris and her two children, Alton and Ida Louise, of 720 Hazel street, left last week to spend the remainder of the summer with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Barstow, of Massena, N. Y.

Mr. Stewart Hanley, of Hillholme, Vaughan road, with Mrs. Frank Hamilton of Detroit, left yesterday by motor for Northport Point where they will remain for a few days. Next week they will go to Spring Lake, where they will enter the Women's Western Michigan Open Golf tournament.

Mr. G. W. J. Linton of Lone Pine road, entertained her D. Y. C. swimming club with a bridge-luncheon last Saturday. There were eight guests present.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bailey who have been visiting on Long Lake and Beach road are moving to the Center Apartments next month.

Mr. G. R. Norton left Monday where they will make their home for the coming year. Dr. Norton further studies year to making his residence in Okemah.

Dr. Norton's practice has been assumed by his brother, Dr. J. W. Norton. Dr. and Mrs. Northport moved to their new home at 1297 Miller road in the village last June.

Mr. Horace P. Shaw is spending two weeks at Mackinac Island.

Mr. E. B. Root of Pierce street, returned Monday from a sojourn of several days at the home of her mother and sister in Adrian, Mich.

Miss Grace Heacock, of Pierce street, accompanied by Mrs. Lyman Green, of Pierce street, spent last Wednesday at the summer home of a friend, Mrs. Minnie Finley, at Union Lake.

Mr. Edward A. Smith, of Redford road, accompanied by her son, Mr. Lawrence E. Smith, went to the home of Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. James Strong, at Pine Lake, where they spent the day, Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Reynolds and son, Jack, of Pierce street, accompanied by a friend from Detroit, spent Tuesday at Bob-Lo Park.

Mr. E. H. Higbie, Jr., of St. Louis, who is the house-guest of

WEDNESDAY

In Birmingham

FRIDAY AUGUST 15

Sponsored by the Merchants of Birmingham, August 15th will be an event of values! Sharp reductions and a policy of more for less will mark Dollar Day, when you can shop thriftily and S-A-V-E-!

See next week's paper for complete details of the many values which will be offered in Birmingham shops and stores.