

The man who walks past you on the street, and whom you may not even know, is filled with the generous desires, urges and impulses that you are your fellow men.

ESCAPING GAS EDWARDS LIVES OF MAN, SISTER

The average citizen, if asked the question, "What do you owe your government?" might be expected to base his reply on his most recent income tax return.

Police Find Bodies Of Wm. Jones, 73, And Sister, 76, In Home On Bates

Overcome by gas escaping from the kitchen stove, William H. Jones, 73 years old, a former member of the state legislature, and Miss Catherine Jones, 76 years old, his sister, were found dead Saturday night in their home at 671 Bates street.

SEATED AT TABLE

Upon entering the house Detective Henry James and George Stephenson found both Miss Jones and her brother dead at the kitchen table. Gas from the stove had been burning on the stove and a coffee pot, half filled with water, had been on the stove.

Police Find Bodies Of Wm. Jones, 73, And Sister, 76, In Home On Bates

Funeral services were held at 10 a. m. Tuesday from their residence at 671 Bates street. Burial was in the family lot at Elmwood cemetery and Mr. Jones was buried at Evergreen cemetery.

LEGION PLEDGES TO RELIEVE IDLE

Birmingham's Legionnaires have pledged their co-operation as an organization to assist in the work of relief and unemployment work of the village through the Birmingham Relief Society.

Trunks and Bags From Detroit Railway Station, Special Rates

Trunks and bags from Detroit Railway station, special rates. Call 2667.

News of Your Neighbors

Celebrating her birthday, Miss Gertrude L. Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carleton McHugh of Kensington road, entertained at her 47th birthday celebration at the home of her mother.

Need for Appreciation of American Citizenship Emphasized By J. R. Adams

American citizenship, the most valuable heritage of any citizen, is appreciated only when a citizen or a woman is in possession of the historical facts of his country.

That, in substance, is what James R. Adams, of Kenosha avenue, told Birmingham Rotary club members at the Community House, in a talk on "The Heritage of American Citizenship."

Whoever of himself with soul, so dear, who never of himself has said, As home his footsteps he has traced, Who knows his native land?

SMITH AND JAMES ASSISTANTS

E. J. Fallon Selected Chief Aide By Prosecutor-Elect On Tuesday

Clarence L. Smith, prosecutor-elect, Tuesday announced the selection of E. J. Fallon, former secretary of William H. Gallagher in Detroit, as his chief assistant.

STORES STAY OPEN UNTIL NINE O'CLOCK

Many Birmingham merchants have decided to keep their stores open until nine o'clock in order to enable shoppers more opportunity at a time for selection of Christmas gifts.

HONOR UPPLS ORGANIZED

Ester Rainey, Virginia Hugg Win Awards, 23 To Graduate

Ester Rainey, and Virginia Hugg, who were awarded 23 and 24 respectively last year, were again named as winners of the Rainey-Hugg award.

ORGANIZE NEW CHURCH HERE

Officers; Complete Organizing Plans; Accept Charter Members

Organization of the Bennaville Ave. Methodist Church will be completed tomorrow night when the first conference will be held under the direction of Dr. A. J. Field, district superintendent.

Musical Gives $100 To Charity

The board of the Thursday Musical has donated $100 to the Birmingham Public Library.

GUY W. JENSEN ASSISTANT BY TOY AS ASSISTANT PROSECUTING ATTY.

Guy W. Jensen, former member of the Birmingham School Board who resigned Nov. 10 after four years service, Monday was appointed assistant prosecuting attorney.

Mr. Jensen is 48 years old and is now living in Detroit at 7415 Capital avenue. His family, however, still maintains its residence here at 647 Madison avenue.

Mr. Jensen is a member of the Detroit Bar and is also a member of the Michigan State Bar.

BIRMINGHAM HOMES FOR SALE

Home home on quiet street, modern, 3 bedrooms, garage, pool, etc. $10,000. Call 2667.

Active Mason

Mr. Jensen has served as treasurer and vice-president of the Detroit Lodge, No. 10, of the Grand Lodge of Michigan.

BLOOMFIELD WOODS

Home among trees, best evening, beautiful view, $12,000. Call 2667.

EARLY EDITION!

The next issue of The Birminghameclectic will be published on Monday morning, Dec. 22. All advertising and news copy, therefore, must be in the office of The Eclectic by Saturday, Dec. 20.

Success Exceeds Last Year Total; More Still Coming In

Because the regular publication date of The Eclectic falls on Christmas Day this year, and in order to afford village merchants an opportunity to advertise their merchandise several days prior to Christmas, this change in publication date was found advisable.

FIRE CHIEF JOBS DECLINED BY GRIFFITH

Parry Also Tells Commission He Will Conform With Ruling

THORNTON AT POST

With the refusal of Vernon W. Griffith to accept the post of Chief of the Birmingham Fire Department, the commission has appointed James W. Parry, village manager, to the position.

Give To Needy

Through the central welfare office, many needy families will be given to the Goodfellows organization and baskets of food will be distributed to them.

Thanks Are Given

The appreciation of the Goodfellows for the support and co-operation of the public, the Community House and the individual men who assisted in the clerical work at the organization headquarters is expressed in the following letter.

Calendar of Coming Events

Today—Swim contest, Baldwin, at Barnum pool. Christmas cantata, Barnum school. Relebak examining new officers, 6:30 dinner at Community House, Judge Frank Govett's report, Child Conference. Tomorrow—Junior League plays for children, 8 p. m. M. C. A. movie show. Presentation of football letters at 8 p. m. A. A. U. W. round-table discussion, open to the public, 8 p. m. Public Library. Monday, Dec. 22—School board meeting, 8 p. m., at the Community House. Reunion of Baldwin classes of '27, '28, '29, and '30. 8 p. m. American Legion feather-dance at the Community House. Tuesday, Dec. 30—Primary dept. Christmas party at the M. E. Church. Furniture Storage—1224 1/2 1st St. Tel. 1224-44. For Sale—Christmas trees, call 2667. For Sale—Christmas trees, call 2667. For Sale—Christmas trees, call 2667.