New Games Added To Recreation Facilities

Three new games, Grideraft, an extremely popular football game, Quiseraft, and a miniature basketball sport were added to the Quiseraft Room of the Y. M. C. A. this week by Irwin H. Neff, Jr., director of games.

Boys home from school and on vacation in Birmingham are expected to make the "Y" headquarters for recreation.

In addition to ping-pong and volleyball, Ring-O-Rings, checkers and chess, groups for working in leathercraft, archery, and drama are being formed as rapidly as the boys become interested.

Outdoor hikes, skating parties, and outdoor games will also be scheduled to start from the "Y" building on different days during vacation weeks.

Pope Family Active

Gustave D. Pope returned Friday from Washington, where he attended the conferences of the Central Committee of the American National Red Cross organization. The Poles are expecting Gustave, Jr., home from Yale to spend the holiday season, though John Pope, working in the Chase National Bank in New York City, may not be able to return home.

Miss Lee Pope, daughter of the family, has been appearing in minor roles in the last two Detroit Civic Theater plays, "Scandal" and "School for Scandal" is one of the most promising students in the Bonstelle Dramatic School. A friend of Miss Pope's, Miss Peggy Hart, is also studying at the Bonstelle school, and lives in Birmingham.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

Letter D. Hill chairman of Oakland County Road Commission and president of Bloomfield Hills Village.

"What's that? ... I would take a chance on shooting a deer with a bow and arrow, instead of a high-powered rifle. Well, to tell you the exact truth, I think a deer is just as safe as far as I am concerned—if I have the Indian's primitive weapon. But maybe I'd be better off with a slingshot. Who knows?"

Red Cross Roll-Call Nets $950 Fund

A total of $950 has been received to date by Mrs. Harold H. Corson for the annual Birmingham Red Cross roll-call and fund-raiser, the best ever returned in the village. Further returns are being received by mail.

Complete lists of the workers in the Red Cross campaign conducted this year under the direction of the "Child-Caring Agencies of Oakland County." "Just because we are having to make provisions for the younger generation, through child-caring agencies, is no indication that we

Sunday afternoon at 4:30 in the Methodist Episcopal church, the Christmas party and cantata staged by the Sunday School was given. Mrs. Robert D. Lynd was chairman of the arrangements. Numerous primary and junior numbers were included on the program.

Oakland County Women Hear Judge

"Lack of religious education" lies back of all juvenile delinquency, according to Judge Dan McCallister in his talk to the Oakland County Council of Women assembled at the Community House Tuesday morning to hear his discussion of the "Child-Caring Agencies of Oakland County."

"Just because we are having to make provisions for the younger generation, through child-caring agencies, is no indication that we are slipping backward in the general trend of behavior," Judge McCallister explained, however, "It is a step ahead in social organization," he said. "More than 800 children are being cared for in Oakland County through these governmental welfare agencies," the Judge continued.

Semi-private organizations that take care of the cases of girls from 12 to 20 years of age, were explained by the Judge and by a representative of the Girls' Protective League. Many cases of delinquency are due to unfavorable family conditions," both agreed.

To make procedure in cases of delinquency clear to individual women of the Oakland County Council, a chart of the agencies caring for juvenile cases in all stages will be arranged by a committee of the organization which will be named at the next meeting.

Hold Primary Party Dec. 30

Instead of holding their party before Christmas, the children of the primary Sunday School grades of the Methodist Episcopal church will await until Tuesday, Dec. 30, to hold their primary party. Refreshments to their heart's content from two to five o'clock in the primary room of the church, Miss Ella

Who Said I Was Scotch This Year?

NO!... is my answer!

EVERYBODY will hear from me with generous gifts this year!

Of course, I know they will cost me less than any time in the last ten years. But that doesn't make me Scotch! I can spend as much as last year and give MORE to everybody.

It's time to CELEBRATE price-tumbles—a glorious time to celebrate. It's CHRISTMAS!

—Santa Claus

P. S. Don't worry, boys and girls! Everything's coming your way! It's an avalanche of gifts you'll get this Christmas. No one ever said Santa Claus was Scotch and got away with it. Watch Chimneys and trees and stockings. You'll like Christmas this year. It will be a generous, happy Christmas—the happiest ever.
