

RAILROAD SUIT IS ADJOURNED

Hearing On Injunction Will Be Continued, Dec. 30 Before Judge Covert

Arrangements for the adjournment of the hearing on the injunction in the case of the Grand Trunk Railroad from continuing its construction work on the line of its new line from Grand Trunk to Grand Trunk, Mich., in the Grand Trunk case, will be continued until the 30th of December, 1930, before Judge Covert.

The hearing on the injunction in the case of the Grand Trunk Railroad from continuing its construction work on the line of its new line from Grand Trunk to Grand Trunk, Mich., in the Grand Trunk case, will be continued until the 30th of December, 1930, before Judge Covert.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY
 Commissioner M. A. C. C. Bowman: "Shilling papers for the Goodfellow fund is a great experience. It helps one see how generous most people are, even in hard times."

Instruction until suits to settle negative restrictive easements of property owners are settled. He also speaks of retaining the railroad from building more than two tracks in the city, claiming that the original contract did not provide for such.

In his comments before Judge Covert Friday, Judge Covert announced that suits in which railroad companies were permitted to construct new tracks as they deemed necessary for their business, but not to interfere with their existing lines, would be the first of a long series of suits to settle restrictive easements of property owners. He also announced that he would hold a hearing on the injunction in the case of the Grand Trunk Railroad from continuing its construction work on the line of its new line from Grand Trunk to Grand Trunk, Mich., in the Grand Trunk case, will be continued until the 30th of December, 1930, before Judge Covert.

Hills Police Jail 3 As Disorderly

Three young men whom Bloomfield Hills police say were enjoying a rowdy Christmas celebration Saturday evening will be brought before Judge Floyd S. Bank today to answer charges of being disorderly.

The men, Carson, Springer, 22, 2300 Mass. 21, of 2153 Pickersoon avenue and Barney Hawkins, 26, 4913 Lucky place, all of Detroit, were arrested in an automobile on Woodward avenue by Patrolman Tom Harris and Elmer Keight who noted their automobile registering alone in the parking lot. The young men had been drinking.

cupion and will discourse sweet music during the night on board of the boat all day long. If you can't go, train leaves Birmingham at 8:45 a. m.

"Reaching Detroit we go to the Detroit and Cleveland dock at the foot of Wayne street, a short walk from the depot, boarding the steamer City of Cleveland at once and shortly steam away from the beautiful summer resort, Put-In-Bay with its gay crowd, its large hotels, its wine vaults and Peery's Cave. Three hours are given at this and returning we arrive at Detroit at 6:20 and then have one hour and a half in the beautiful City of Detroit. A good time guaranteed to all. Whitehead and Mitchell, managers."

The "Good Old Days" picture then, 16 years ago, the early rising. The sound of roosters crowing. A bright sun rising. Happy little boys wearing their round little hats. Shiny dresses. Little girls in bright sailor suits. Ladies wearing dresses of brown stain, the stain of which dragged gracefully in the skirt.

Then the train rattle. The ice-creaming heat. The train butchery. Presently the little children, already soiled and more than ready to go to bed. The "Golden Spot" swaying softly in the morning breeze and Woodward avenue is shadowed again with white spirals of horses pranced and whirring engines that caught the eye.

MAY NOT RUN FREIGHT TRAINS THIS WINTER
 Because of the time necessary for the new right-of-way to settle properly and because steel girders for a trestle over the Elwell Mill road have not yet arrived, freight trains may not yet operate over the new Grand Trunk line this winter. Operations were resumed last week after a lay-off of several weeks.

Christmas Seal Sale Progresses
 Although the sale of Christmas seals by the Oakland County Tuberculosis Association is somewhat less than at the same time last year, approximately 50 per cent of the 25,000 letters sent out have been returned and more than $5,500 has been received at headquarters. Mrs. Zeilpha B. Hale, executive secretary, announced.

The sale will be continued until some time in January although it closes officially at Christmas time and workers are confident the total of $10,000 set for the county this year will be reached.

THREE FLEE SCENE OF AUTO COLLISION
 Following a crash on East Maple avenue near Poppleton avenue at 7 p. m. Friday, three men, believed to be bootleggers, escaped in their automobile, Walter Moreland, 171 Work street, assistant cashier of the Birmingham Savings Bank, reported to the police.

The accident occurred when the driver of the machine, in an effort to attempt to avoid striking another car turning out from the curb on Maple avenue, applied his brakes too quickly. His car skidded and struck Mr. Moreland's car, damaging the front axle, headlights, fenders and bumper, of Mr. Moreland's car.

After inspecting the damage, the three men got back into their car and sped away. Mr. Moreland said: "What appeared to be a pack of four were piled in the car. Mr. Moreland said. The escaping automobile bore Texas license plates, he said."
