And All the Employees WISH YOU A Merry Christmas

The Deeper Significance

Of course, we all know and celebrate Christmas, a day of gifts and good cheer and a wonderful dinner and good fellowship, but we should not lose sight of the fact that the deeper significance of Christmas is religious in nature. Surely, it seems to us, the birthday of One who came to save the world is worthy of a reverence that should be in the hearts of us all.

CHRISTMAS, Kris'ma the day celebrated in all Christian Countries as the day of the birth of Christ, "the Prince of Peace," the "King of Kings." That day, by common consent December 25, is marked by special religious services in various Churches.

The "Spirit of Christmas" the Spirit of giving, charitable deeds, exchanging gifts and love for our fellowmen.

The "Christmas Tree," and without the Christmas tree and Santa Claus for the little folks the day would be incomplete.
