ADAMS JR. FIVE BEATS R.O., 30-11

Local Boys Get Early Lead; Exhibit Offensively

A strong offense and an impenetrable goal zone defense enabled the Adams Junior High team to swamp the Royal Oak Junior High cagers 30-11, after losing their first game last week to the Baldwin Juniors.

Equal chances for victory were apparent at the opening during the last part of the first period Adams began a sparkling attack with Schwartz passing to Sabom and Sabom in the goal area to score eight points to the opponents' four.

Royal Oak showed a spirited defense under its own basket but were outclassed by the Adams team. Several of Schwartz's shots from the double line went astray because of baskets "Dug shots" by Brown and Sabom never hit the rim.
