

PLAYERS NAME THREE CASTS

Roles For One-Act Revivals Jan. 25, Largely Filled By Original Actors

Announcement of the casts for the three one-act plays to be revived Jan. 25 by the Village Players is made today by Mrs. Arthur J. Halgren, librarian of the society.

All three plays were first produced by the Village Players when the organization numbered 10 members. They were so enthusiastically received at their first presentation that it was decided to revive them with the roles filled as nearly as possible by the original actors.

In many cases, however, this was not deemed advisable, for although the majority of the original actors were still with the players, they had already been in roles this year, and it is the policy of the organization to rotate its members as "visible" during the year. Those in the original presentation who have been recast are Mrs. Rolf Spinning, Mr. G. E. Olsen, and Mr. Howard L. Simpson, in "The Man in the Bowler Hat"; Mr. Rolf Spinning, in "Trifles"; and Mr. Loren Robinson, in "The Changeling."

Those in the original presentation who have not been recast are Mr. Harry Muehlman, Mr. Loren Stutch, Mrs. Herbert M. Zerby, Mr. Frank Briscoe, who is no longer a member; and Mr. James Baird (now deceased), in "The Changeling"; and Mrs. George Dweilley, in "Trifles"; and Mr. Tom Murphy, no longer a member, in "The Changeling."

"The Man in the Bowler Hat," by A. A. Milne, directed by G.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY— Mrs. O. H. Hagg, head department investigator: "Conferences on medical and health problems by county and state organizations are invaluable in the advancement of health protection and promotion."

Eileen Olsen and Mrs. E. W. Shattuck, will be cast as follows:

—Mrs. O. H. Hagg, head department investigator: "Conferences on medical and health problems by county and state organizations are invaluable in the advancement of health protection and promotion."

—Mrs. Rolf Spinning, in "Trifles," the second play to be presented, will be directed by Mrs. C. H. Ramsey. Roles will be filled as follows:

—Mrs. Rolf Spinning, in "Trifles," the second play to be presented, will be directed by Mrs. C. H. Ramsey. Roles will be filled as follows:

(Concluded 1 from Page 1)

in cost of operating the village and that the people knew of this was not a member; and Mr. Loren Robinson, Mrs. Fred D. Farrar, Mr. James Baird (now deceased), and Mrs. George Dweilley, in "Trifles"; and Mr. Tom Murphy, no longer a member, in "The Changeling."

SAVE WITH SAFETY 300 AT 1000 The Rexall Store

Guaranteed for Two Years—Lasts a Lifetime.

KANTLEEK Hot Water Bottle $2.50

As far as we know this is the only brand that is guaranteed unbreakable for two years. But you'll get more service than that because KANTLEEK is made of pure Para rubber in one piece without seams or patches. It just can't leak. Sold only at Rexall Stores.

This is National "Kantleek Week"

SHAIN'S The Rexall Store West Avenue Birmingham, Mich.

LOCAL ROYALTY MANAGERS and the Village SHOP GETS MANY ODD REQUESTS

By THE WANDERER

Three of the 50 members of the Birmingham Exchange club are within one point of one another in the record of attendance record during the total of 288 meetings held by their club since its organization, having been at 95 per cent of the 288 meetings, Ralph Moulthrop, Charles J. G. Olsen, and Ralph Wilson third with 92 per cent. This information was given out at the annual report Tuesday night at the 289th meeting, said Ralph Moulthrop, not been conferred to his home for several weeks last year due to his leg, he would be well out in attendance record.

Because of the uncertainty of the weather during the spring months, members of the Birmingham Exchange club have decided to hold an annual spring picnic which will devote their efforts to a show next fall when the weather conditions can be more accurately determined.

SPECIAL OBSERVANCE PLANNED FOR FATHER AND SON WEEK

Special plans for the activities in Birmingham from Feb. 10 to 17 in observance of Father and Son week, which include banquets at the various village churches and a special party, were discussed Sunday by representatives of churches and social organizations.

(Concluded 5 from Page 1)

aid of mankind to further the cause of its tenants.

Clarence Viets, superintendent of the Birmingham public schools, declared that the educational system of the country, always alert to the changing demands of an ever-changing civilization, stood back of all laws and regulations, the need for which was emphasized by the boys and girls, for he said, "if law is enforced at home, the school, church, and the community have little difficulty with the children."

(Concluded 3 from Page 1)

of the agricultural sections will begin Apr. 1, but that the other communities will be questioned by the branch office for Oklahoma and Washington counties, he said, will be located in the Ricker Building in Ferndale after Feb. 1. Almost all of the 150 members selected, he added.

(Concluded 4 from Page 1)

gan for excellency in debating, Birmingham has been presented with this symbol of fine oratory every year that it has been awarded by the Weldon Drug Co. of Baldwin will again support the negative side in the last debate of the preliminary series in which they will meet Dearborn, there, Friday, Jan. 24 at 7:30 p. m.

COMMUNITY HOUSE EMPLOYMENT SHOP GETS MANY ODD REQUESTS

By THE WANDERER

One day last fall an irate old gentleman rushed into the Employment Shop of the Community House. "You people ought to run a training school for maids," he shouted. "That maid you sent my daughter a terrible. She whistles, she sings, she doesn't know her place. Here he presented a carefully written list of offenses, things she did, which 'got on his nerves.' Not only did he make the suggestion that the Community House run a maid's training school, he also explained just how it should be done. It ought to be added, in justification to the maid in question, that she was perfectly satisfactory to her employers, and only this one old gentleman had fault to find.

Wide as the community of the village is, the Community House, it is one of a long list of strange requests and incidents that come before the staff of the Community House. There have been requests for a punch-bowl, for an automobile pump, and for a bobbed cut.

On the night of the beloved snow storm, the early part of December, a woman called up the Community House from Detroit saying her daughter was in Birmingham at a party, and that she was afraid for her to come home. She requested that the daughter be put up for the night in the Community House. Although there is no provision for overnight guests there, she was accommodated. A man called on the night of the snow storm to get them back to Illinois. He had a truck, and started out in it, with the children of the first day, and they had only $30 for all their expenses.

(Concluded 7 from Page 1)

exception in favor of carrying out the program and purchased lots in the third block, for the first block to be taken over was the so-called third block, on which our library stands.

A beautiful building, both inside and out, it is an inspiration to everyone who enters it. The first block to be taken over was the so-called third block, on which our library stands.

(Concluded 9 from Page 1)

B. Williams, Robert Y. Moore, and H. Lloyd Clawson.

T. R. Donovan was re-elected president, and Charles E. Randall, new vice-president, Harry L. Wallace, and Elmer C. Huston, were chosen at the meeting, and M. T. Jarvis and O. P. Peterson were elected cashier and assistant cashier. Chester H. Smith, formerly vice-president, was made chairman of the board.

(Concluded 8 from Page 1)

The completion of this project is attributed to any other village planning and I sincerely hope that the people will show their interest in the work of their commissioners and in the enhancement of the beauty of the village by going to the polls on election day and voting affirmatively for this project.

(Concluded 6 from Page 1)

game, the one-mile race will be run off. Points will be awarded for all those placing in the race, and the champion of the carnival will be awarded a perpetual trophy of loving devotion to be donated by B. L. McNellis, local jeweler.

(Concluded 6 from Page 1)

game, the one-mile race will be run off. Points will be awarded for all those placing in the race, and the champion of the carnival will be awarded a perpetual trophy of loving devotion to be donated by B. L. McNellis, local jeweler.

COMMUNITY HOUSE EMPLOYMENT SHOP GETS MANY ODD REQUESTS

By THE WANDERER

One day last fall an irate old gentleman rushed into the Employment Shop of the Community House. "You people ought to run a training school for maids," he shouted. "That maid you sent my daughter a terrible. She whistles, she sings, she doesn't know her place. Here he presented a carefully written list of offenses, things she did, which 'got on his nerves.' Not only did he make the suggestion that the Community House run a maid's training school, he also explained just how it should be done. It ought to be added, in justification to the maid in question, that she was perfectly satisfactory to her employers, and only this one old gentleman had fault to find.

Wide as the community of the village is, the Community House, it is one of a long list of strange requests and incidents that come before the staff of the Community House. There have been requests for a punch-bowl, for an automobile pump, and for a bobbed cut.

On the night of the beloved snow storm, the early part of December, a woman called up the Community House from Detroit saying her daughter was in Birmingham at a party, and that she was afraid for her to come home. She requested that the daughter be put up for the night in the Community House. Although there is no provision for overnight guests there, she was accommodated. A man called on the night of the snow storm to get them back to Illinois. He had a truck, and started out in it, with the children of the first day, and they had only $30 for all their expenses.

(Concluded 7 from Page 1)

exception in favor of carrying out the program and purchased lots in the third block, for the first block to be taken over was the so-called third block, on which our library stands.

A beautiful building, both inside and out, it is an inspiration to everyone who enters it. The first block to be taken over was the so-called third block, on which our library stands.

(Concluded 9 from Page 1)

B. Williams, Robert Y. Moore, and H. Lloyd Clawson.

T. R. Donovan was re-elected president, and Charles E. Randall, new vice-president, Harry L. Wallace, and Elmer C. Huston, were chosen at the meeting, and M. T. Jarvis and O. P. Peterson were elected cashier and assistant cashier. Chester H. Smith, formerly vice-president, was made chairman of the board.

(Concluded 8 from Page 1)

The completion of this project is attributed to any other village planning and I sincerely hope that the people will show their interest in the work of their commissioners and in the enhancement of the beauty of the village by going to the polls on election day and voting affirmatively for this project.

(Concluded 6 from Page 1)

game, the one-mile race will be run off. Points will be awarded for all those placing in the race, and the champion of the carnival will be awarded a perpetual trophy of loving devotion to be donated by B. L. McNellis, local jeweler.

(Concluded 6 from Page 1)

game, the one-mile race will be run off. Points will be awarded for all those placing in the race, and the champion of the carnival will be awarded a perpetual trophy of loving devotion to be donated by B. L. McNellis, local jeweler.

COMMUNITY HOUSE EMPLOYMENT SHOP GETS MANY ODD REQUESTS

By THE WANDERER

One day last fall an irate old gentleman rushed into the Employment Shop of the Community House. "You people ought to run a training school for maids," he shouted. "That maid you sent my daughter a terrible. She whistles, she sings, she doesn't know her place. Here he presented a carefully written list of offenses, things she did, which 'got on his nerves.' Not only did he make the suggestion that the Community House run a maid's training school, he also explained just how it should be done. It ought to be added, in justification to the maid in question, that she was perfectly satisfactory to her employers, and only this one old gentleman had fault to find.

Wide as the community of the village is, the Community House, it is one of a long list of strange requests and incidents that come before the staff of the Community House. There have been requests for a punch-bowl, for an automobile pump, and for a bobbed cut.

On the night of the beloved snow storm, the early part of December, a woman called up the Community House from Detroit saying her daughter was in Birmingham at a party, and that she was afraid for her to come home. She requested that the daughter be put up for the night in the Community House. Although there is no provision for overnight guests there, she was accommodated. A man called on the night of the snow storm to get them back to Illinois. He had a truck, and started out in it, with the children of the first day, and they had only $30 for all their expenses.

(Concluded 7 from Page 1)

exception in favor of carrying out the program and purchased lots in the third block, for the first block to be taken over was the so-called third block, on which our library stands.

A beautiful building, both inside and out, it is an inspiration to everyone who enters it. The first block to be taken over was the so-called third block, on which our library stands.

(Concluded 9 from Page 1)

B. Williams, Robert Y. Moore, and H. Lloyd Clawson.

T. R. Donovan was re-elected president, and Charles E. Randall, new vice-president, Harry L. Wallace, and Elmer C. Huston, were chosen at the meeting, and M. T. Jarvis and O. P. Peterson were elected cashier and assistant cashier. Chester H. Smith, formerly vice-president, was made chairman of the board.

(Concluded 8 from Page 1)

The completion of this project is attributed to any other village planning and I sincerely hope that the people will show their interest in the work of their commissioners and in the enhancement of the beauty of the village by going to the polls on election day and voting affirmatively for this project.

(Concluded 6 from Page 1)

game, the one-mile race will be run off. Points will be awarded for all those placing in the race, and the champion of the carnival will be awarded a perpetual trophy of loving devotion to be donated by B. L. McNellis, local jeweler.

(Concluded 6 from Page 1)

game, the one-mile race will be run off. Points will be awarded for all those placing in the race, and the champion of the carnival will be awarded a perpetual trophy of loving devotion to be donated by B. L. McNellis, local jeweler.

COMMUNITY HOUSE EMPLOYMENT SHOP GETS MANY ODD REQUESTS

By THE WANDERER

One day last fall an irate old gentleman rushed into the Employment Shop of the Community House. "You people ought to run a training school for maids," he shouted. "That maid you sent my daughter a terrible. She whistles, she sings, she doesn't know her place. Here he presented a carefully written list of offenses, things she did, which 'got on his nerves.' Not only did he make the suggestion that the Community House run a maid's training school, he also explained just how it should be done. It ought to be added, in justification to the maid in question, that she was perfectly satisfactory to her employers, and only this one old gentleman had fault to find.

Wide as the community of the village is, the Community House, it is one of a long list of strange requests and incidents that come before the staff of the Community House. There have been requests for a punch-bowl, for an automobile pump, and for a bobbed cut.

On the night of the beloved snow storm, the early part of December, a woman called up the Community House from Detroit saying her daughter was in Birmingham at a party, and that she was afraid for her to come home. She requested that the daughter be put up for the night in the Community House. Although there is no provision for overnight guests there, she was accommodated. A man called on the night of the snow storm to get them back to Illinois. He had a truck, and started out in it, with the children of the first day, and they had only $30 for all their expenses.

(Concluded 7 from Page 1)

exception in favor of carrying out the program and purchased lots in the third block, for the first block to be taken over was the so-called third block, on which our library stands.

A beautiful building, both inside and out, it is an inspiration to everyone who enters it. The first block to be taken over was the so-called third block, on which our library stands.

(Concluded 9 from Page 1)

B. Williams, Robert Y. Moore, and H. Lloyd Clawson.

T. R. Donovan was re-elected president, and Charles E. Randall, new vice-president, Harry L. Wallace, and Elmer C. Huston, were chosen at the meeting, and M. T. Jarvis and O. P. Peterson were elected cashier and assistant cashier. Chester H. Smith, formerly vice-president, was made chairman of the board.

(Concluded 8 from Page 1)

The completion of this project is attributed to any other village planning and I sincerely hope that the people will show their interest in the work of their commissioners and in the enhancement of the beauty of the village by going to the polls on election day and voting affirmatively for this project.

(Concluded 6 from Page 1)

game, the one-mile race will be run off. Points will be awarded for all those placing in the race, and the champion of the carnival will be awarded a perpetual trophy of loving devotion to be donated by B. L. McNellis, local jeweler.

(Concluded 6 from Page 1)

game, the one-mile race will be run off. Points will be awarded for all those placing in the race, and the champion of the carnival will be awarded a perpetual trophy of loving devotion to be donated by B. L. McNellis, local jeweler.

COMMUNITY HOUSE EMPLOYMENT SHOP GETS MANY ODD REQUESTS

By THE WANDERER

One day last fall an irate old gentleman rushed into the Employment Shop of the Community House. "You people ought to run a training school for maids," he shouted. "That maid you sent my daughter a terrible. She whistles, she sings, she doesn't know her place. Here he presented a carefully written list of offenses, things she did, which 'got on his nerves.' Not only did he make the suggestion that the Community House run a maid's training school, he also explained just how it should be done. It ought to be added, in justification to the maid in question, that she was perfectly satisfactory to her employers, and only this one old gentleman had fault to find.

Wide as the community of the village is, the Community House, it is one of a long list of strange requests and incidents that come before the staff of the Community House. There have been requests for a punch-bowl, for an automobile pump, and for a bobbed cut.

On the night of the beloved snow storm, the early part of December, a woman called up the Community House from Detroit saying her daughter was in Birmingham at a party, and that she was afraid for her to come home. She requested that the daughter be put up for the night in the Community House. Although there is no provision for overnight guests there, she was accommodated. A man called on the night of the snow storm to get them back to Illinois. He had a truck, and started out in it, with the children of the first day, and they had only $30 for all their expenses.

(Concluded 7 from Page 1)

exception in favor of carrying out the program and purchased lots in the third block, for the first block to be taken over was the so-called third block, on which our library stands.

A beautiful building, both inside and out, it is an inspiration to everyone who enters it. The first block to be taken over was the so-called third block, on which our library stands.

(Concluded 9 from Page 1)

B. Williams, Robert Y. Moore, and H. Lloyd Clawson.

T. R. Donovan was re-elected president, and Charles E. Randall, new vice-president, Harry L. Wallace, and Elmer C. Huston, were chosen at the meeting, and M. T. Jarvis and O. P. Peterson were elected cashier and assistant cashier. Chester H. Smith, formerly vice-president, was made chairman of the board.

(Concluded 8 from Page 1)

The completion of this project is attributed to any other village planning and I sincerely hope that the people will show their interest in the work of their commissioners and in the enhancement of the beauty of the village by going to the polls on election day and voting affirmatively for this project.

(Concluded 6 from Page 1)

game, the one-mile race will be run off. Points will be awarded for all those placing in the race, and the champion of the carnival will be awarded a perpetual trophy of loving devotion to be donated by B. L. McNellis, local jeweler.

(Concluded 6 from Page 1)

game, the one-mile race will be run off. Points will be awarded for all those placing in the race, and the champion of the carnival will be awarded a perpetual trophy of loving devotion to be donated by B. L. McNellis, local jeweler.

Announcing A SWEEPING Auction Sale

The entire stock of The Italian Art Importers will be sold at auction commencing

JANUARY 23RD and continue until entire stock is sold.

Included in this collection are some wonderful antique pieces in Italian marble statuary, Venetian silk shawls, carved figured bronze, Grasso vase and lamps, Bookends, Italian cameos and signed reproductions of famous paintings, oils and hundreds of articles too numerous to mention.

Articles in this collection may be inspected prior to days of auction.

Italian Art Importers

314 STATE ST. DETROIT

Two doors west of Washington Boulevard

Announcing A SWEEPING Auction Sale

The entire stock of The Italian Art Importers will be sold at auction commencing

JANUARY 23RD and continue until entire stock is sold.

Included in this collection are some wonderful antique pieces in Italian marble statuary, Venetian silk shawls, carved figured bronze, Grasso vase and lamps, Bookends, Italian cameos and signed reproductions of famous paintings, oils and hundreds of articles too numerous to mention.

Articles in this collection may be inspected prior to days of auction.

Italian Art Importers

314 STATE ST. DETROIT

Two doors west of Washington Boulevard

Announcing A SWEEPING Auction Sale

The entire stock of The Italian Art Importers will be sold at auction commencing

JANUARY 23RD and continue until entire stock is sold.

Included in this collection are some wonderful antique pieces in Italian marble statuary, Venetian silk shawls, carved figured bronze, Grasso vase and lamps, Bookends, Italian cameos and signed reproductions of famous paintings, oils and hundreds of articles too numerous to mention.

Articles in this collection may be inspected prior to days of auction.

Italian Art Importers

314 STATE ST. DETROIT

Two doors west of Washington Boulevard

Announcing A SWEEPING Auction Sale

The entire stock of The Italian Art Importers will be sold at auction commencing

JANUARY 23RD and continue until entire stock is sold.

Included in this collection are some wonderful antique pieces in Italian marble statuary, Venetian silk shawls, carved figured bronze, Grasso vase and lamps, Bookends, Italian cameos and signed reproductions of famous paintings, oils and hundreds of articles too numerous to mention.

Articles in this collection may be inspected prior to days of auction.

Italian Art Importers

314 STATE ST. DETROIT

Two doors west of Washington Boulevard

Announcing A SWEEPING Auction Sale

The entire stock of The Italian Art Importers will be sold at auction commencing

JANUARY 23RD and continue until entire stock is sold.

Included in this collection are some wonderful antique pieces in Italian marble statuary, Venetian silk shawls, carved figured bronze, Grasso vase and lamps, Bookends, Italian cameos and signed reproductions of famous paintings, oils and hundreds of articles too numerous to mention.

Articles in this collection may be inspected prior to days of auction.

Italian Art Importers

314 STATE ST. DETROIT

Two doors west of Washington Boulevard

Announcing A SWEEPING Auction Sale

The entire stock of The Italian Art Importers will be sold at auction commencing

JANUARY 23RD and continue until entire stock is sold.

Included in this collection are some wonderful antique pieces in Italian marble statuary, Venetian silk shawls, carved figured bronze, Grasso vase and lamps, Bookends, Italian cameos and signed reproductions of famous paintings, oils and hundreds of articles too numerous to mention.

Articles in this collection may be inspected prior to days of auction.

Italian Art Importers

314 STATE ST. DETROIT

Two doors west of Washington Boulevard

Announcing A SWEEPING Auction Sale

The entire stock of The Italian Art Importers will be sold at auction commencing

JANUARY 23RD and continue until entire stock is sold.

Included in this collection are some wonderful antique pieces in Italian marble statuary, Venetian silk shawls, carved figured bronze, Grasso vase and lamps, Bookends, Italian cameos and signed reproductions of famous paintings, oils and hundreds of articles too numerous to mention.

Articles in this collection may be inspected prior to days of auction.

Italian Art Importers

314 STATE ST. DETROIT

Two doors west of Washington Boulevard

Announcing A SWEEPING Auction Sale

The entire stock of The Italian Art Importers will be sold at auction commencing

JANUARY 23RD and continue until entire stock is sold.

Included in this collection are some wonderful antique pieces in Italian marble statuary, Venetian silk shawls, carved figured bronze, Grasso vase and lamps, Bookends, Italian cameos and signed reproductions of famous paintings, oils and hundreds of articles too numerous to mention.

Articles in this collection may be inspected prior to days of auction.

Italian Art Importers

314 STATE ST. DETROIT

Two doors west of Washington Boulevard

claims. The Corduroy Tire Co. Mrs. Rodgers claims sold her husband 600 shares of stock in the Corduroy Tire Co. on May 3, 1929, and the money for the stock which she declares she later found was value, was obtained through the mortgage on the Birmingham property.

When she learned that steps were about to be taken to foreclose on the mortgage, she asked the court to halt it.

Charles A. Smith Funeral Today

Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. this afternoon for Charles A. Smith, who died at 3 a. m. Tuesday at his home at 504 Brown street. Rev. David Leon Woodward will officiate at the services which will be held at the residence. Burial will be in Greenwood cemetery.

Surviving Mr. Smith are one son, Henry Smith, of Jackson, Miss.; one daughter, Mrs. Frank Smith, who lives in Birmingham, and two brothers, Orval Smith, of Grand Haven, Mich., and Aury Smith, of 687 Southfield avenue.

52 Issues of The Eccentric $1.50

FILES SUIT TO HAVE MORTGAGE SET ASIDE

Mrs. Caroline Wooster Redfern, formerly of Birmingham, now residing in Detroit, Friday entered suit in the Oakland County Circuit Court against the Corduroy Tire Company of Grand Rapids to set aside a mortgage for $6,000 she claims was obtained from her by fraud.

Mrs. Redfern is the wife of Gladwin W. Redfern and the daughter of the late James P. Wooster, who died in Birmingham upon which the mortgage was obtained, she

Your Rent Check With Our Compliments

Of course your house will never burn down. Others do, but you are quite sure yours never will. But possibly the roof may burn off or the house may burn half down and then you'll have to move out for two or three months.

Suddenly you will be worried by a flood of extra details: Engaging a contractor; attending to the insurance adjustment; perhaps even arranging to refinancing the mortgage.

But the rent of your temporary quarters can be paid by the Hartford Fire Insurance Company, if you will pay a very little premium now. That will be one worry off your mind.

So run (don't walk) to the nearest telephone, and ask us about Rent Insurance.

J. B. HOWARTH & SON REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE

PHONE 321 FIRST NATIONAL BANK BLDG.

claims. The Corduroy Tire Co. Mrs. Rodgers claims sold her husband 600 shares of stock in the Corduroy Tire Co. on May 3, 1929, and the money for the stock which she declares she later found was value, was obtained through the mortgage on the Birmingham property.

When she learned that steps were about to be taken to foreclose on the mortgage, she asked the court to halt it.

Charles A. Smith Funeral Today

Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. this afternoon for Charles A. Smith, who died at 3 a. m. Tuesday at his home at 504 Brown street. Rev. David Leon Woodward will officiate at the services which will be held at the residence. Burial will be in Greenwood cemetery.

Surviving Mr. Smith are one son, Henry Smith, of Jackson, Miss.; one daughter, Mrs. Frank Smith, who lives in Birmingham, and two brothers, Orval Smith, of Grand Haven, Mich., and Aury Smith, of 687 Southfield avenue.

52 Issues of The Eccentric $1.50

FILES SUIT TO HAVE MORTGAGE SET ASIDE

Mrs. Caroline Wooster Redfern, formerly of Birmingham, now residing in Detroit, Friday entered suit in the Oakland County Circuit Court against the Corduroy Tire Company of Grand Rapids to set aside a mortgage for $6,000 she claims was obtained from her by fraud.

Mrs. Redfern is the wife of Gladwin W. Redfern and the daughter of the late James P. Wooster, who died in Birmingham upon which the mortgage was obtained, she

Your Rent Check With Our Compliments

Of course your house will never burn down. Others do, but you are quite sure yours never will. But possibly the roof may burn off or the house may burn half down and then you'll have to move out for two or three months.

Suddenly you will be worried by a flood of extra details: Engaging a contractor; attending to the insurance adjustment; perhaps even arranging to refinancing the mortgage.

But the rent of your temporary quarters can be paid by the Hartford Fire Insurance Company, if you will pay a very little premium now. That will be one worry off your mind.

So run (don't walk) to the nearest telephone, and ask us about Rent Insurance.

J. B. HOWARTH & SON REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE

PHONE 321 FIRST NATIONAL BANK BLDG.

ABSOLUTELY FREE

One Bowl and Two Goldfish

Given with each 67c purchase of HEINZ GOODS

Our Special Price Sale on all Heinz Goods Continues Until Saturday Night. BIG SAVINGS!

Heinz 57 Varieties at Special Prices! This is a Real Opportunity!

The Inner Grocery Co.

116 SOUTH WOODWARD BIRMINGHAM

Phone 645-646