SCHOOL PAPER
GETS NEW AID

Staff Changes Made On
Maroon And White For Next Term

The staff of the Maroon and White, the official publication of Baldwin High School, has been altered for the next school term due to the resignation of several staff members who were carrying so many activities, as well as the addition of new appointments to the staff.

Derwood Harris, formerly of the sports staff, was given the position of business manager to fill the vacancy left by Kenneth Wade. Ward Conwell has been named as reporter for the staff. Robert Lyons will work on the editorial staff and its Wellman and Gail Hull are the new Junior High reporters. The paper has just completed a very successful term both financially and from the standpoint of its improved paper according to staff members. The circulation department increased its sales over four times as many as last year. Beginning next week the annual subscription campaign will open. Better results than ever before, with a subscription of about 500 students are anticipated.

Play Depicted In Novel

The silhouettes are considered a novel way of introducing the characters arousing much interest concerning the production which will be presented Thursday evening Mar. 6. According to the faculty directors, Miss Dorothy Allen and Miss Rundle, the play will be of an entirely different type than the usual play given in high schools as it does not involve mainly romance. The leading parts are enacted by men, and there are only three girls parts. Practice for "The Meanest Man in the World," a three act comedy-drama, will begin promptly.

Jr. Football Chasers
Split Two Games

Birmingham's junior hockey club, after losing to the Cooley High School puck chasers, 3 to 1 on Friday, recovered enough the next day to defeat the Cranbrook School sextet, 2 to 0 in the game at the second annual ice carnival at Quanton Lake.

In the former game, Wilson was injured in a collision and suffered a cut on the forehead which prevented him from engaging in the contest with the Cranbrook team. Brien and Paterson, however,
