Horrible Stories

For instance, we could tell you that the lowner carried no insurance, and you'd wag your head in sorrow and say "what a shame!" I have a share that a shame! I have the wan't a fool. However, he made one mistake!

After the fire he had many things on his mind. He had to rent temporary quarterly, hire a contractor, meet mortgage payments, attend to the insurance adjustment. Then along came the rent fell and it wasn't convenient to pay.

to pay.

If he'd paid a $4.68 premium he would be getting a tent check for $100 every inporth now! He should have had Rent Insurance. So should you.
