This church opens wide its doors so that "whoever will may come."
The following services are meant for you:

Sunday School, 10 A. M.
Morning Worship, 11:00 A. M.
The Lord's Supper will be celebrated at this service and the passion service will be on "The Leadership of Christ." The special music will also add to the sacredness of this service. Worship here.

Young People's Union, 6:30
P. M.
The Loyal B. Y. will be led by Alice Homberger and Mr. Woodward will lead the seniors on the subject of "Life Service." Both groups expect their members and friends to come.

Evening Service, 7:30 P. M.
"Choosing a Mate" is the important and interesting theme of the pastor's sermon. This is of vital interest to all young people and should be seriously considered. The music will be helpful as well.

"Church Night", Wednesday,
6:40 P. M.
Come and enjoy the splendid program of worship and study.
You can't afford to miss it!

RUSSIA MAKES USE OF UNCLE SAM'S BUSINESS BRAINS

Even if Russia doesn't like Uncle Sam's diplomatic manners she is utilizing his mechanical and business ability to the utmost. Contracts amounting to millions of dollars have been let in the United States by the Soviet government. One of the most ambitious projects undertaken by the Russians is the construction of a town, 300 miles east of Moscow, near Nishni Novgorod, for a population of approximately 35,000. The town is to be the seat of an automobile plant which is to turn out 100,000 Ford cars yearly. Actual designing is being done by engineers of a Cleveland company, but the construction will be done by Russian labor. Above, a map showing location (X) of the town, the signing of the contract by G. A. Bryant, Jr., of Cleveland, and Soviet officials (note the costumes of the Russians), and, inset of H. F. Miter, of Cleveland, in charge of the work.

Lord men depart from evil" (Prov. 15:10).
The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Katherine Eddy: "Truth is God's remedy for error of every kind, and Truth destroys only what is untrue" (p. 142).

The "Tonics" held their reguall enjoyed themselves as only "Tonics" can. Although the ses-here it is. Now girls, do your

A Mill street man dreamed his way ran away with another man, and woke up and told her about it. "And what did you do?" she asked. "I just shouted 'Glory! and let you go,' and that's why this Mill street man wears a shade over his eye."

THE PROGRAM OF JESUS
FOLLOWING his baptism, Jesus spent 40 days in the wilderness. What happened during that period we have opportunity to see in later references to Jesus as going to the wilderness and to the mountain to pray. On one occasion we are told that when his ministry seemed at the very height of its popularity Jesus went into the mountain and continued all night in prayer.

It is in such passages that we have an opportunity to grasp the meaning of his real humanity. He revealed the divine life and character in his human life, and we entirely misunderstand the nature and work of Jesus if we do not think of him as truly man.

Preparing for His Work

His divine ministry and life work developed in human ways.
He felt his own need of strength.
He was subject to temptation.
He went through a preparation for his life work just as some lesser prophet and teacher might have done. Thus we can see that probably this period in the wilderness was a period of contemplative meditation and preparation fitting him, as his work and ministry.
The ministry of a few years, but his teachings and example that have left their divine impress on the whole life of humanity all through the centuries, was not something hastily conceived or achieved. It was a ministry prepared in discipline and in communion with the Father.

It is difficult for us to grasp fully the human aspect of Jesus who was manifested at the very outset of his ministry. He came not as some theoretical teacher or philosopher with an abstract conception of life. He brought his teaching immediately into the practical range of daily life, and he brought it, also, immediately into the atmosphere of the power that could transform life and character—the power of the love of God. Thus there came first of all his call to men to repent, to turn from their sinful ways and seek the Kingdom of Heaven which he declared to be at hand.

Program Near at Hand

What did Jesus mean by this Kingdom of Heaven? There has been much dispute among scholars concerning its exact meaning, but we need not be too questioning about the fact that Jesus made it near at hand. Whether we interpret a later reference to the Kingdom of God as meaning that it was within the hearts of believers or in their midst, there can be no question about the reality of the teaching of Jesus that the Kingdom of God was near to men. Thus it was that repenance was not merely a turning away from sin but it was a turning to love and righteousness, an acceptance of life at its best.

Truly the program of Jesus is comprehensive.
"I am come," he said, "that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly."
