Your Banker Knows

If you want a larger mortgage your banker will first determine the present value of your property. If it has increased he will insist upon larger insurance protection to safeguard his investment from loss, in case of fire.

If your banker needs that added protection, it is convincing evidence that you also need it to protect your equity in your property.

We will review your insurance needs without obligation and advise you.

CHURCHES GO ON SUMMER SCHEDULE

Local Pastors Plan Vacations, Fill Pulpits With Others

Summer programs for Birmingham churches show many changes, with supply preachers in the pulpits and nonchalant reduction of services. The St. James Episcopal church will have its regular eight and eleven o'clock morning services during July, although a change in the time will be announced for August by Rev. Warner L. F. Ryth will take his vacation. During his absence, the pulpit will be filled by G. D. Davis, rector of St. George's Episcopal church in Walkerville, Ont. He will be in vacation on a fishing trip on the north shore of Lake Superior.

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook: "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "We shall obey and adore in proportion as we apprehend the divine nature and love Him understanding, willing no more over the corporality, but rejoicing in the affluence of our God" (p. 140).

St. James' Episcopal Rev. Warner L. F. Ryth, Rector Phases: Rector, 189; Office 2356 Fourth Sunday after Trinity. 8 a. m. Holy Communion, 11 a. m. Morning Prayer and Evensong.

Chapel of the Holy Name On Lincoln Blvd. Woodland Sunday Masses, 8, 9, 11, 12. Holy Day Masses, 7, 9. Baptisms Sunday at 2 p. m. Tenth Sunday after Trinity, August 4 to 6; Saturday evening, 7 to 9; Before the early Masses.

First Baptist Church Willis at Bates St. David Leon Woodward, B. D. Minister. Res. 911 Bates St. Phone 1312; Church 1061. Come all ye faithful and worship in His House. All of the following passages from the Christian Science textbook: "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "We shall obey and adore in proportion as we apprehend the divine nature and love Him understanding, willing no more over the corporality, but rejoicing in the affluence of our God" (p. 140).

Services at Christ church will be held as usual throughout the summer except Sunday. The services will be discontinued. Rev. Henry S. Evans, of the United Methodist church, will officiate at the outdoor supper services that will be held as usual. He plans to take his vacation in August and will be replaced by Rev. Andrew Cresswell, of Pontiac, Aug. 3, and by Rev. G. F. Sutton, of Drayton Plains, Aug. 10.

The Christian Science church will hold its meetings as usual throughout the summer. The evening meetings, however, have been discontinued, and will be resumed Sept. 14. The only change at the First Presbyterian church for the summer is the discontinuation of the young people's meetings.

An eleven summer program was announced by the Rev. R. M. A. Alkins, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, on July 29 and 27, Aug. 3, 24, and 31. Mr. R. M. A. Alkins, who won the highest solo honors at the Chicago glee festival, will preach and sing. On Aug. 3, Mrs. Sara Allen will celebrate her 90th birthday. Mr. Richards will dedicate a song to her and Mr. Fred Mallender will deliver a tribute to her on behalf of the congregation. Mrs. Allen has been a member of the church for 77 consecutive years, and was a teacher in the Sunday school for 55 years. She is the mother of Luther D. Allen, of East Long Lake road, Bloomfield Hills.

F. G. Poole, director of Religious Education for the Detroit Conference, will preach Aug. 17 at the Methodist Episcopal church. Sunday school will be held each Sunday at 11 a. m. On July 27, Mr. Alkins will preach in the Indiana Methodist church. Early in August, he will go to Stephens Bay at Muskoka, Ontario, to join his family, who have been there since the middle of June.

Services will be held as usual during July at the Bennaville Avenue Congregational church. The evening service will be dispensed with, and only the Sunday school will meet at 10:30, according to Rev. Glenn Lapping, pastor of the church. The church will be held on the Rev. Name Lapping, pastor of the church. The church will be held on the Rev. Name Lapping, pastor of the church.

SAFE IS ROBBED Thieves opened the safe belonging to the Standard company filling station on Bowers Tuesday night with a sledge hammer and dynamite. The safe was filled with $15 to $20, according to police. The lock and combination of the safe were demolished.

Venemandal, Holland, is said to have the world's only public beak market.
