PACKARD-WARD NUPTIALS HELD

Ceremony Performed At Home Of Bride's Parents On Brown Street

A wedding of interest to a large number of Birmingham residents last week was that of Miss Mary Beulah Packard, daughter of Mrs. Holmes D. Packard, of Brown street, to Dr. Byron David Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ward, of Ann Arbor. The event took place in the home of the bride at 8 P. M. Wednesday. The Rev. David Curry, of Philadelphia, officiated.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin with a tight bodice, short puff sleeves, and a long skirt with an uneven hem line. A tight-fitting cape banded with rose point lace confined to her head a veil of ivory tulle. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Norman Shepperd, of Pleasant Ridge, a sister of the bride, attended her as matron of honor. She wore a frock of pale green chiffon which was made with a cape over a sleeveless bodice. The skirt was long and full. Her bouquet was of pink roses and orchid sweet peas.

Jean Shepperd was flower girl and David Shepperd train bearer. Norman Shepperd served as best man.

The bride's table was centered with a large wedding cake. Ivory candles in crystal candelabra were also used.

Dr. and Mrs. Ward left for a motor trip through Northern Michigan, and will be at home to their friends after July 15 at the home of the bride's mother on Brown street.
