Flower Festival And Garden Party At Cranbrook, June 21

Further plans for the flower festival and garden party which will be held at the Cranbrook Greek Theater, June 21, are being formulated by members of the Women's auxiliary of Christ Church and of the Bloomfield Hills and District Horticultural society.

Posters for advertising the affair are now being made by members of the lift-drawing class, conducted at the Cranbrook Academy of Art by David Evans. They will be exhibited in store windows in Birmingham, and auctioned off at the festival. Many other interesting features are promised for the occasion.

Home-made cakes, made from unusual recipes, will be sold at the sale-goods booth, under the direction of Mrs. Bertha Wesbrook and Mrs. Frank Parker. In many cases, the recipes will be included, Mrs. O'Dell says.

Children, too, will find diversion at the festival. Especially arranged for them will be a fish pond with Mrs. Benjamin Micou in charge. Mrs. W. O. Stevens will have charge of fortune-telling.

Wedding Plans Are Announced. Miss Claire Gillett Will Be Bride of H. C. McQueen On June 30. Birmingham friends of Miss Claire Gillett, until five years ago a resident of Birmingham, will be interested in her wedding which was announced yesterday.

A distinguished assemblage of Grosse Pointe, Detroit, and Bloomfield Hills society attended the impressive ceremony which united in Marriage Miss Margaret Collingwood, Harry of Redruth's, Long Pine Street and Mrs. West Hedley Gallows, of Detroit, Saturday afternoon.

The bridesmaids were Miss Olive Ann Brown, Mrs. Howard M. England, Mrs. J. R. Grells, Mrs. J. Lawrence Buehl, Jr., Miss Janet Skae and Mrs. George Higgins. Their dresses were similar in design to that of the bride, differing only in color, their being of peach soufflé. Yellow snappers were their arm bouquets.

Parties are held for June bride. The bride will wear a mahogany shade ensemble suit, trimmed with tan Kadiak fur. Her hat will be of brown braid. Her mother's dress will be of pale primrose silk, with slippers to match.
