$24,050 Fire Loss In Village In May

Fire loss in the village in May was $24,050, covered by insurance to the extent of $12,050, the May report of the Birmingham Fire department reveals. Loss in the townships amounted to $7,100, of which $3,000 was net loss. The fire department answered 13 alarms, nine of which were from within the village. One inhalator call was answered.

Only five gallons of chemical were used, in contrast to 775 gallons of water, used with the Booster pump. Eight hours were spent in fire fighting, and 50¾ miles were traveled enroute to fires.

OAKLAND COUNTY NEWS

Arthur D. Towle, 56 years old, is being held in the Pontiac City Hospital today on a charge of slaying his wife, Mrs. Ida Metcalf Towle, 40, last Saturday night, at Milford. In a dying statement made to Charles L. Wilson, chief assistant prosecuting attorney, Mrs. Towle is reported to have accused her husband of shooting her because she refused to become reconciled with him following their separation several weeks ago. Towle is in the hospital recovering from a self-inflicted gun-shot wound. He attempted to take his own life after shooting his wife, the police report.

At the special elections held in Oxford Monday and Tuesday for the purpose of granting a franchise to the Consumers Power Co., the right to do a gas business in the village of Oxford, 115 expressed their willingness, two spoiled their vote, and one was opposed in the Township while in the village vote 84 were perfectly satisfied and one dissatisfied.

"As a result of a visit of Birmingham Exchangeites to the Milford Exchange Club Monday evening the Milford Club became interested in the Oakland county Y. M. C. A. camp project near Hale to the extent of appropriating $30 to be used in promoting attendance of local boys at the camp. The money will be at the disposal of a committee of club members to be used according to the committee's best judgment.

Raids on two village homes by Berkley police early Sunday morning resulted in the arrest of two men, charged with violations of the prohibition laws. They are Arthur Turcotte, age 44, 3516 Oakshire avenue, and Bigley Grace, age 29, 3447 Phillips avenue.

Appointment of two new patrolmen and the promotion of Sgt. Joseph M. Parker to the rank of a lieutenant, was announced by Chief William T. Lorimer of the Royal Oak police department in a general order Monday. The new patrolmen, authorized by the commission in the 1930-1931 budget, are Thomas H. Kelley and William J. Linville.

John A. Merritt, former president of Royal Oak, when it was a village, and prominent in real estate activities there, died Tuesday morning in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital of injuries suffered in an automobile collision Sunday at Dequindre and Fifteen Mile road.

Michael Machala of Detroit, driver of the machine which collided with one operated by Carl Sheldon of Detroit, is held at the county jail in Pontiac.

Open Jr. Tennis Tourney Friday

Plans have been announced for a Junior "open" tournament to be staged at the Birmingham Tennis Club courts starting Friday morning. "Duke" Mills, who is handling arrangements, states that all junior tennis players are eligible and that it is not necessary to be a member to participate in this, the first tournament of the season at the local club. He will accept entries until Thursday night. The matches will be for singles play only and a handsome loving cup, now on display in the window at Shain's Drug Store, will be awarded the winner. The finals will be held Saturday afternoon.

Craig Richey, president of the Club, has succeeded in making arrangements with Jack Somerville, pro at the Detroit Tennis Club for the past several years, to teach the net game on the courts of the local club this summer. It is expected that classes will be arranged, in addition to the individual instruction which will be given by the new professional.

CHURCH PICNIC, JUNE 21

The second annual picnic of the Nardin Park Methodist Church, Detroit, will be held Saturday at Bloomfield Township Park. About 90 people are expected to attend the dinner, which will be served at 7:00 p. m. followed by bridge and dancing. Mr. H. E. Parker, director of the choir, is in charge of the affair.
