

COUPLET

MISS ESTHER JOHNSON TO MARRY MR. WILEY E. GROVES ON SATURDAY

Simplicity will mark the wedding of Miss Esther Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, of Newberry, Mich., Saturday afternoon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Groves, in the East Room of the Community House. The marriage will be solemnized by the Rev. E. M. Aldine in the presence of about 50 friends and relatives of the couple.

The bride will wear a beige dress trimmed in lace, of silhouette design, the hem reaching the floor, and a hat of matching shade. The bridal bouquet will be of white roses. Her sister, Miss Emma Jackson, of Detroit, will be her only attendant and will wear a dress of yellow crepe with hat and shoes to match. Mr. Howard Groves, brother of the groom, will be the best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Groves will leave on their wedding trip through Western Michigan, immediately following the ceremony and will be at home in Birmingham after two weeks.

Miss Groves, who is residing in Birmingham, was graduated from Newberry High School in 1919 and from the Ypsilanti Normal School in 1921. Mr. Groves is a graduate of Baldwin High school with the class of 1915 and of the University of Michigan class of 1919.

Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Farrar will leave today by motor for Benton Harbor where Mrs. Farrar will spend some time with her parents Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Hinkin of Chicago at their summer home.

Misses Virginia and Mary Farrar will be with their mother and Mr. Farrar will return to Birmingham.

The home of Mrs. James Oliver, on Villa road, was the scene of a lovely luncheon Wednesday afternoon for 25 guests in honor of Mrs. Wilbur Topping. Mixed spring flowers were used for the tables and the tea service was of pewter ware.

Mrs. Stowe D. Baldwin, of Dorchester road, plans to leave about July 1 with her daughter, Betty for Glenn Lake, near Traverse City, where she will spend several weeks. Mrs. Mary Baldwin will leave July 1 for the Girl Scout camp in the Irish Hills for the summer. Her brother, Douglas, will leave at the same time for camp, Chickagami, near Alpena also for the summer months.

Mr. Norman Lyle was hostess Wednesday at the Ladies' Day luncheon and golf events at the Birmingham Golf Club. Many Birmingham women were present and enjoyed golf in the morning and bridge, followed by luncheon in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlow N. Davock of Birmingham, and Mrs. Clarence Davock of Detroit will entertain in honor of their sons, Harlow Jr., and Alfred, at a dance Friday night at the Detroit Country Club at Grosse Pointe.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher, Sr., of Aspen Road is leaving next Tuesday for California to be gone several months.

Miss Alta Symons, of Brown street, and Miss Mahol Lacombe, of Manor road, will depart next Monday for a two weeks' sojourn in the East. While there they will visit friends in New York and Boston.

Miss Frances Wolfe Giles, who is to be married June 28, at St. James Episcopal Church, was honored last Saturday afternoon at a kitchen shower given by Mrs. L. G. Welch and Mrs. Warner Forsyth at the home of the latter on Wilmont drive.

Mrs. Arabel Bigelow was hostess to the Ladies' Auxiliary Society of Franklin on the occasion of its regular monthly meeting at her home of Bates street last Thursday afternoon. A potluck luncheon was served to 50 guests.

Miss Emma Christiansen, public school nurse, left yesterday with her parents for a sojourn of a few weeks at her home in Grant, Mich. Miss Christiansen will go from Grant to Battle Creek where she will stay for the remainder of the summer.

Miss Marion Trumbull, bride-elect, is to be entertained at the home of Miss Mabel Greenough of Pontiac, Friday afternoon. Miss Greenough was a sorority sister and classmate of Miss Trumbull at Michigan State College where Miss Trumbull was in the class of 1929.

Miss Howard of East Lansing who is to be maid of honor for Mrs. W. O. Smith's daughter, Miss Helen, in honor of the bride next Saturday evening.

Mrs. Nancy B. Thomas, librarian of Baldwin Public Library, will visit Friday for a few days to visit to her former home in Escanaba, Mich.

Miss Rosemary Lamond of Cranbrook entertained 16 guests Friday evening at a reception and whist party in honor of Miss Kerstin Berglund, recently of Stockholm, Sweden.

Mrs. J. M. Rainey, of Oakland avenue, with her sister, Mrs. Louise Miller, of Farmington, departed yesterday for Denver, Colo., where they will spend the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. R. E. Noyes, of Southfield, who has been visiting her son, Arthur, at Columbus, O., has returned to Birmingham home on Franklin road.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stahl are entertaining in honor of their son, Theodore, and his fiancée, Miss Frances Wolfe Giles, at a bridge party at their home in Bloomer next Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Gass, of Southfield, left last Thursday for a two-weeks' tour of the East. While gone, Mrs. Gass will attend the National Convention of the United Presbyterian Church at Greensburg at a delegate from the Southfield United Presbyterian Church.

Lawrence E. Smith, accompanied by Richard Knox, a classmate, will return today from his studies at Michigan State College to be with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Edward A. Smith of Lakeside road. After a two weeks' visit Mr. Knox, formerly of Detroit, will motor to Los Angeles to make his home with his parents.

The following Birmingham young people were appointed as delegates to the Diocesan Church conference of the Episcopal Church which is held at Hillsdale, Mich.: The Misses Jessie Prentice, Sally Kalk, Beth Ranney, Bernine McCormick, Eleanor Bishop, Mary Betty Brown, and Mr. Billy Crutchank. They will leave Birmingham today to be gone 10 days.

Miss Mildred Patterson, of 444 West Frank street, a student at Michigan State College, returned to Birmingham yesterday for the summer.

Miss Jean Robeson, returned recently from New York where she has been attending the Friend Academy and will remain with her grandmother Mrs. A. E. Morris of Hazelhurst avenue. Mrs. Morris left Monday by motor for a trip West and will remain indefinitely.

Many Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills women attended the ladies bridge luncheon at the Oakland Hills Country Club Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Fred H. Rollins, of Red Gables Farm, Bloomfield Hills, was hostess for the day, assisted by Mrs. Frank Bladen, Mrs. William Bonds, Mrs. Edward C. Biosa, and Miss Addie Sly. This was the second social event at the club for the ladies this season.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wermuth, of Lakeside avenue, will leave Friday for a three months tour of the States and will visit New Orleans, California, and return by way of the Yellowstone National Park. They will be accompanied by their daughters Miss Lenore, Miss Rebecca, and Miss Anne Lou and Miss G. Steinbauer.

The ball room of the Fox and Hounds Inn will be the scene Fri-

BOOTH ESTATE WILL BE SCENE OF FLOWER FESTIVAL, SATURDAY

The Greek amphitheater at Cranbrook will be the scene of a flower festival and garden party, June 21, planned by the members of the Women's Auxiliary of Christ Church and of the Bloomfield Hills and District Horticultural Society.

The advertising posters for the affair, which were designed by the life-drawing class of the Cranbrook Academy of Art conducted by David Evans, are now exhibited in the various Birmingham stores windows and will be auctioned off at the festival.

The affair will be opened with a tea early in the afternoon and supper will be served at tables placed on the lawns about the pool of the theater. An attractive lemonade and ice cream booth will be operated by several Bloomfield Hills girls including Miss Barbara Traub, who is in charge. She will be assisted by Miss Romayne Thompson, Miss Betty Blanchard, Miss Mary Isabel Dorley, Miss Mary Kathleen Morley, Miss Nora Glancy, Miss Louise Glancy, and Miss Adele Shaw.

An unusual array of home-made specialties will be on display in a booth operated by Mrs. Bertha Westbrook and Mrs. Frank W. D. Thompson. An attractive interest will be the flower booth of which Mrs. Edith Forbush, Mrs. Kennedy will be in charge. G. W. Kennedy will be in charge of the children who are at the festival.

For the benefit of the children's fund, Mrs. W. O. Smith has provided and Mrs. Benjamin Micon will have charge of the refreshments which will direct the fortune telling booth and Mrs. Elizabeth Wallace the candy booth. There will also be booths devoted to the selling of garden hats, tools, and fertilizer.

The refreshment arrangements

MRS. W. D. THOMPSON

is in charge of Mrs. Warren Booth, and Mrs. C. Theron Van Dusen. The supper committee is composed of Mrs. G. W. J. Linton, Mrs. Joseph Page, Mrs. Harry Wallace, Mrs. Frank W. Shull, Mrs. Bert McDonald and Mrs. Henry P. Macomber. Mrs. Albert J. Stahl is general chairman of the affair and Mrs. W. D. Thompson, Mrs. Clarence Booth, Mrs. W. C. Harris, Mrs. Campbell Harvey, Mrs. Frank Werneken, and Miss Mary Taliaferro are also taking an active part.

Mrs. Joseph Page, of Long Lake road, entertained Wednesday for her mother-in-law, Mrs. James Couzens, at luncheon and bridge at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

Mrs. Sue Denny Evans, of Harmon avenue, left Tuesday for Atlantic City, N. J., where she will visit her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Parker at their summer home.

Miss Betty Brede, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Brede, of Lakeside Drive, was hostess at a luncheon at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club in honor of the Misses Jean De Flon and Betty Strickler, who are now guests of Mrs. Katherine Mann, of the Greenwood avenue. The table was tastefully decorated with peonies, and those present besides the honor guests were Miss Mary Hutchinson, Miss Ruth Potter, and Miss Miss Jane Wilson.

Miss Jane Geserich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Geserich, of Harmon avenue, returned today from a weeks stay with friends in St. Louis.

Complimenting Miss Jean De Flon and Miss Betty Strickler, who are house guests of their daughter, Miss Katherine, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Mann entertained at a dinner dance at the Oakland Hills Country Club Saturday evening.

The guests included the Misses Ruth Potter, Joan Winborn, Catherine Carr, Doris Cox, Betty Brede, Jane Wilson, Nancy McGregor, and Messrs. C. O. City Back, George Cooney, Eero Saarson, Robert Voss, Earl Maxwell, Roderick Cox, Stewart Rainey, Tim Neal and George Wilson.

Mrs. C. C. L'Honnemied entertained at her home on Dorchester road for her niece, Miss Katherine Mann, at a bridge luncheon Tuesday afternoon. The table was charmingly decorated with delphinium and roses and green tapers.

The Misses Jean De Flon, Betty Strickler, Mary Jane Wilson, Betty Brede, Nancy McGregor, Mary Hutchins, Mary Donyal Mann.

Miss Madeline Holmes of Evanston, Ill., formerly of Birmingham, is the guest of Mrs. Edward Wasey who recently returned to her home on Greenwood avenue from California where she has been residing for the past year.

Miss Romayne Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, of Bloomfield Hills, is the guest of Miss Helen McVey of Cleveland.

About 100 invitations were issued to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills women to the tea given by Mrs. John S. Newberry at her Grosse Pointe home Wednesday, in honor of the women who assisted in the Symphony drive. The tea was a very lovely affair and the Detroit Symphony orchestra entertained with an excellent program.

Several members of the Bloomfield Hills unit of the Farm and Garden Club attended the semi-annual convention of the Michigan division of the National Farm and Garden Association held Wednesday afternoon at Saginaw.

Mrs. Frank E. Parker of Lone Pine road entertained at a bridge luncheon at her home in honor of Mrs. William Lerschen who will leave July 1 for a European trip.

Mrs. I. J. Osban entertained for eight of her friends at luncheon and bridge Monday afternoon at her home in Tooting Lane. Spring flowers were attractively arranged on the tables and appointments were carried out in a color scheme of pink and blue.

Mrs. Clarence W. Gall, of Pierce street, has as her guest her niece, Mrs. Robert Allan, of Denver, Colo., and her sister, Mrs. G. A. Benedict, who arrived Tuesday night and will stay until Friday.

The League of St. James Women entertained at a surprise tea in honor of Mrs. Sophie Case, Tuesday afternoon at the Community House, the occasion being her eightieth birthday anniversary. Mrs. Case was presented with a birthday cake and other offerings of felicitation. Mrs. Case makes her home with her son, Mr. Julian M. Case on Lakeside drive.

Mrs. J. H. Munzy entertained 16 guests at an informal bridge luncheon Monday at her home on Lahser road.

Mr. A. R. Glaney, Jr., of Lone Pine road, left Thursday for the Princeton Military Camp, Watertown, N. J., where he will remain for six weeks.

Miss Delphine Vlahy, of Long Lake road, will leave July 1 for Watertown, N. J., where she will be the guest of Miss Mary Weldon.

Miss Mary Matheson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Matheson, arrived home Monday from Chevy Chase School and will spend the summer vacation at her home "Willowbrook" in Bloomfield Hills.

Mrs. Edward Askin Skag, of Bloomfield Hills, is in Whitefield, N. H., as the guest of Miss Charlotte Casgrain.

Laurence W. Martindale and W. D. Knox, of Birmingham, left Saturday morning to drive to Yellowstone Park. They expect to be gone two weeks.

52 Issues of The Eccentric $1.50.

For Your Summer Cottage

- Lamps and Summer Shades
- Salad Sets
- Ice Tea Sets
- New Vases
- Beverage Trays
- Serviettes and Napkins

"Take Along a Good Book On Your Vacation"

La Belle's
"Birmingham's Shop of Books and Gifts"
137 WEST MAPLE TELEPHONE 1225

STUDEBAKER

BUILDER OF CHAMPIONS

appoints
Welliver & Farrand Motor Sales
450 South Woodward Avenue
as Studebaker Distributor in BIRMINGHAM

Studebaker takes pleasure in announcing this splendid representation for Studebaker motor cars. Owners will here find a quality of service both new and gratifying.

The latest in motor car styles is exemplified by the smart new Studebaker-built sixes and eights. And these cars are as unique in performance as they are in appearance, for Studebaker holds more official stock car records for speed and endurance than all other makes combined!

Studebaker Models and Prices

The President Eight	$1795 to $2595	The Dictator Eight	$1195 to $1415
The Commander Eight	1495 to 1695	The Studebaker Six	895 to 1125

PRICES AT THE FACTORY

Welliver & Farrand Motor Sales
C. MOOD WELLIVER
LEE H. FARRAND
SPECIAL DISPLAY
Saturday, June 21st, from 8 A. M. to 10 P. M.
See these champion cars in their new Studebaker home

Your Vacation
The call to the open... have you heard it? Of course! Vacation time is here and what a splendid opportunity to enjoy a season of beauty and happiness... Before you leave to other parts, equip yourself from the Woodward Pharmacy... the store of personal service.

PICNICS - - - - OUTINGS
The many accessories for picnics including luncheon sets, thermos bottles, bathing caps, water wings and other items can be obtained here with a guarantee of satisfaction.

WE DELIVER JUST PHONE 766
Woodward Pharmacy
GROVER B. COOK, PH. G.
FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING