DISCUSS LAYING OF WATER MAIN

Commission Puts Problem Of Piping From Derby Well Up To Ogden

The proposal of the Walsh, James and Wasey Co., realtors, to pay the cost of a six-inch water main from the new Derby well to the village water mains in the north section, for permitting the village to lay 12-inch mains through the Walsh, James and Wasey property by a more direct route and at a considerable saving to the village, was discussed at the regular meeting of the village commission Monday night.

After a brief debate, in which Commissioner Lawrence Hulbert expressed the belief that such a contract would obligate the village to further annexation—an action to which he is decidedly opposed —James W. Parry, village manager, and Clare H. Ogden, village attorney, were instructed to investigate the proposal further. They were also asked to determine a more satisfactory contract, if it could be arranged, between the real estate company and the village.

Mr. Parry explained that the estimated cost of the 12-inch mains to the village water system was $11,662 and that the cost of the six-inch pipe, for which the real estate company agreed to pay, was $6,654.

STATE AID IN GRADE SEPARATIONS SOUGHT

The question of State aid to municipalities building grade separations was discussed Tuesday at the Michigan Plan Conference, held at Ann Arbor.

James W. Parry, village manager, represented Birmingham at the conference, which was attended by village managers and executive officers of Michigan municipalities.

Many cities are faced with the problem of grade separations, and to smaller municipalities the cost is often prohibitive, the conference decided. It was decided that a committee to care for the question might be appointed, and that through such a committee a method of state aid might be worked out. No definite action was taken, however.

A secretary, treasurer, and board of directors for the coming year were elected at the meeting.

SPEEDER FORFEITS $20

Sam Wolok, 2319 Grand avenue, Detroit, arrested for driving a motor car 48 miles per hour through Birmingham, forfeited a $20-bond before Justice Malcolm S. Hunt in court Wednesday morning.

Movies Of German Play To Be Shown

A five-reel moving picture of the "Passion Play" of Oberammergau will be given at the First Baptist Church this Sunday evening at eight o'clock. This is an unusual opportunity to see a reproduction of the famous "Passion Play" which is played only every 10 years in the quaint European town of Oberammergau. Organ selections will accompany the picture and Mr. Protheroe will sing "The Old Rugged Cross." A real spiritual program is planned.

This service is opened to the community. There will be no admission charge but a free will offering will be taken at the close of the service.

SMOKE IS SEEN, BUT FIREMEN FIND NO FIRES

A false alarm called the Birmingham Fire Department to the S. O. Wylie Bell funeral home, East Maple and Elm streets, Monday afternoon, when a passerby noticed smoke coming from basement windows. Firemen answering found men burning refuse in the basement.

This was the second false alarm in a week. Thursday a report was turned into the police department by a child, and relayed to the fire department, that there was a fire at 540 E. Maple avenue. Firemen responding found no such address.

The department was called Thursday to the Ladue Service Station, 360 South Woodward avenue, when employes found smoke coming up the stairs from the basement. The small truck responded, and firemen reported finding the furnace so choked with paper and refuse that the pipes would not draw.
