U. S. EXAMPLE PAID TRIBUTE

Syrian Student Of Theology Lauds America In Talk To Rotarians

"Palestine, or the Near East, gave you the Christ; now you are giving Him back to us," Abraham Lincoln said, "All I am or ever hope to be I owe to my angel mother. I can say all that I love my country of Palestine ever will be well to America." This glowing tribute was paid to the United States in one of the best talks on international relations ever given before the Birmingham Rotary club by Rev. Peter E. Soudah, a Syrian student of philosophy at the University of Michigan, at the Community House here Monday noon.

A Worthy Heritage

Perhaps "One cannot grind with the waters that have passed," but the years that have flowed rapidly and silently down the River of Time often leave a worthy heritage long after they have passed.

The years that this organization has stood for a mortuary service growing constantly better are still adding lustre to a good reputation.
