

Nearly $112,000 is offered this year by the state of Michigan for the management of agriculture in a record-breaking premium and prize list that is expected to make the eighty-first Michigan State Fair, Aug. 21 to Sept. sixth, the largest, the biggest and most successful in its history. Coupled with this is an entertainment program, headed by the Stampede, with cowboy and cowgirl champions from the famous Cheyenne, Pocatello, Calgary and Fort Worth sound-up, performing stunts to be seen on the grandstand. This event, introduced to Michigan last year at the State Fair with record-making attendance, will be presented on a scale far bigger than before. Al Sweet's cowboy band will play during the grandstand events.

An additional feature of the fair this year will be the appearance of the famous Creator's Con Band, which will present concert evening in the Auditorium and on the afternoon of the opening day.

The premium list, totaling $117,748, is $8,000 greater than last year, and is especially attractive to the boys and girls of the B. clubs, with a total of $11,000 in prizes and premiums. This is $6,000 more than was awarded last year and is in line with the policy of the state to encourage the farm youth and train them in the latest and most successful methods of stock raising and general farming. Another feature for the farm youth is the State Fair Boys' School. One boy from each county who has the highest average standing on the regular eighth grade examination and on a special agricultural examination, will be given a trip to this school with expenses paid. During the Fair will be given an intensive course in agriculture. More than 1,500 alumni of this school have been invited to attend.

Soldiers to Drill

Many new features have been obtained including one of the track troops of the New York State Police, which will present stunts in fancy riding and drilling. A company of infantry from Ft. Wayne will give exhibitions of drilling and army maneuvers.

An Indian village, with a large number of Indians brought direct from the Indian reservations of the West, will be established on the infield, directly in front of the grandstand, where the Indians can be seen going about their daily tasks just as they do on their reservations. They also will take part in some of the events of the Stampede. Each evening a spectacular display of aerial fireworks will be presented in front of the grandstand at the conclusion of the Stampede performance.

The racing program presents $12,300 in prizes with the 2:15 trot for the Governor's Cup on Wednesday, Sept. 3, the cup to be presented by Governor Fred W. Green. The Canadian government is to take an active part in the fair, with an exhibit in the Coliseum. This exhibit will show what crops are raised in Canada and give a comprehensive view of the Dominion's natural resources. It also will show prospective tourists the points of interest in Canada.

The Horse Show this year is expected to surpass any past one. One boy from each county is expected to take its place in the rank with those at Springfield and Michigan City. A large number of society exhibitors, who will show their animals in the show ring.

Auto races, with the foremost dirt track drivers of the country competing, will be the feature of the closing day.

Children will be admitted free on Tuesday, designated Children's Day. Free tickets are to be distributed to the children throughout the state and many of the events will be free to them, with reduced rates on others.

Thursday will be Farmer's Day and Friday Detroit Day.

When the Occasion Arises

that you need an Undertaker, it is then you will appreciate the more that, besides being able to procure the necessary furnishings at an expense to suit your wishes—the appointments will be high class, and the obsequies carried out with that dignified solemnity so desired and yet so lacking in most present-day funerals.

We have the reputation of being without a peer in carefully considered equipment and sympathetic and appropriate procedure.

Quarantine Lifted At Juvenile Home

The quarantine at the Oakland County Juvenile Home on Telegraph road has been lifted and the authorities there are no longer handicapped because of the recent series of diphtheria cases, officials reported Tuesday.

Three boys actually were infected with the disease, the other 13 being classed as "carriers" and segregated from the rest of the children. It was reported. Three of these children classed as "carriers" are still segregated, but their illness does not handicap the treatment of the regular business of the institution. It is reported.

DETROIT CIVIC THEATER

Romance, hearty laughter, and the British Navy—these unite to make "The Middle Watch," an unusually delightful and amusing story of sailors and their charming feminine friends. It will be presented at the Detroit Civic Theater next Monday evening.

"Every nice girl loves a sailor," is an old saying that here is given true again, and the rollicking, satirical story of gallantry and laughter has captured London where it has had a lengthy run, and also has taken New York by storm.

The joint authors are Ian Hay, who wrote "The First Hundred Thousand," and Stephen King Hall, also an officer in the British Navy, and the son of a British Admiral. It is correct in every detail, has a hilarious plot, a gay, lovable set of characters. The farce is spun around two beautiful young girls who, having missed the last tender to shore, must spend the night aboard the cruiser undetected by officers.

What happens when the Admiral of the Navy suddenly decides to visit the cruiser as sleeping quarters for himself results in a series of laughable situations.

During the intermission coffee will be served on the mezzanine and music will be furnished by the Civic Theater Orchestra for dancing.

Now is the time to save money on your renewal subscription. After The Eccentric's "Everybody Wins Campaign" the subscription price is going to be raised from $1.50 per year to $2.00 (in Oakland County). Help your favorite candidate now and save.
