LAST RITES HELD FOR MRS. PARRY

Native of Bloomfield Hills Died Sunday After Brief Illness

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 p. m. from the S. O. Wylie Bell Funeral Home, for Mrs. Mary Evelyn Benedict Parry, a former villager, who died Sunday evening at the Detroit Women's Hospital following a brief illness.

Mrs. Parry, who was 46 years old, is survived by her husband, Mr. Dare E. Parry; an aunt, Mrs. Ellen C. Benedict, and a cousin, Miss Clara Benedict, both of Bloomfield Hills. Burial was at the South Oak Hill Cemetery, Pontiac. The services were read by Albert W. Wasey of the First Church of Christ Scientist.

Although Mrs. Parry was a resident of Detroit at 1706 Glencourt for 20 years, she leaves a large number of friends in Birmingham. Mrs. Parry was born on the Benedict estate, which is now the Trowbridge Farms in Bloomfield Hills where she spent her childhood. Her schooldays were spent at the Old Hill School where she was graduated with the class of 1903. Among her classmates who are now living are Mrs. Iva Felder Dear, of Pierce street, Mrs. Harry Allen, of West Maple avenue, and Mrs. George Matheson of Royal Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. Dare had celebrated their twenty-seventh wedding anniversary June 4. They had been childhood sweethearts and were married one week previous to Mrs. Parry's graduation in 1903. Although she was never affiliated with any organizations she played an active part in social and charitable works in Birmingham, as well as in Pontiac and Detroit.

The Moral Effect of Security . . . .
When one has wisely safeguarded his interests from loss he knows he can survive adversity.
But when one is unprepared to meet life's problems, not only are values lost, but hope itself seems to vanish.
Adequate insurance safeguards property, enhances its value and strengthens one's moral courage through the certainty of protection.
