

SOCIETY IN BIRMINGHAM AND THE HILLS

MANY EXPECTED AT GARDEN FETE TO BE GIVEN BY CHURCH GROUPS

Large crowds are expected to attend the garden party to be given Saturday at the George T. Hendrix estate by the League of St. James Women and St. Margaret's Guild. Thirty tables for the bridge party, which will be held in the Hendrix home have already been laid, according to Mrs. L. M. Pyle, who is in charge of the bridge party.

The featured booth at the fair will be the garden booth, at which all kinds of garden and lawn accessories, including hats for garden wear, will be sold. Members of the Guild and the League under the direction of Mrs. George Salisbury, have been meeting every Tuesday and Friday for the past month painting the various articles to be sold. Hooked rugs and an old-fashioned quilt, made in the mountain district of North Carolina, will be among the articles offered at the booths.

The tea, which will be served throughout the Hendrix home, as well as the bridge tables, has been planned by Mrs. Warner Forsyth, Mrs. Robert Preble and Mrs. L. M. Baker, will pour. Members of St. Cecilia's choir will make the music and assist at the candy booth under the direction of Mrs. Mrs. A. Wall and Mrs. Donald T. Stanton.

Mrs. Orren Andrews will have charge of the baked goods booth, and will be assisted by Mrs. W. G. Hutchinson, Mrs. W. F. Herdich, and Mrs. I. C. Johnson. Mrs. Tom Coulson is general chairman, and Mrs. Lane Bishop is chairman of decorations.

CHURCH WILL BE WEDDING SCENE

Miss Francis Giles To Wed Theodore Stahl
Church On June 28

Announcement was made yesterday by Miss Frances Wolfe Giles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Giles, of Knox street, of plans for her wedding to Mr. Theodore H. Stahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Stahl, Jr., of Long Lake road, Bloomfield Hills. The ceremony will be read by the Rev. Warner Forsyth in the St. James Episcopal church, June 28 at 4 p. m.

Miss Giles will be attended by Eleanor Young, of Brampton, Ont., as maid of honor; Ruth Stahl and Hester Giles as bridesmaids; and Caroline Giles as junior bridesmaid. Lawrence Smith will be best man, while C. Estlin and Harold Smith, ushers. Following the wedding, a small reception will be held at the Stahl home. The couple will go to Jackson for the summer and return to Birmingham in the fall to take up their permanent residence here.

The engagement was announced last March by Mrs. and Mrs. Giles and several showers had since been given in honor of the bride. Mrs. Albert Boyer, of Carter avenue, Detroit, entertained several weeks ago at a miscellaneous shower, and Mrs. Charles Burgess recently gave a linen shower for the bride-to-be. Guests were Mrs. Adams school, at which Miss Giles and Miss Gertrude G. Charles Weatherhead, Mrs. G. Knox street, complimented Miss Giles at a bridge party and miscellaneous shower.

LOVELY CEREMONY IS PLANNED FOR BALDWIN-DE LORIA WEDDING

A wedding of interest to recent Baldwin High school graduates will be that of Miss Lillabelle Baldwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Baldwin, to Mr. Louis De Loria, son of Mrs. V. L. West, of Detroit. The Rev. David Leonard Woodward will perform the ceremony, to be held at the Baldwin home Saturday afternoon.

The bride will be attired in a satin gown of egg-shell color, fashioned on princess lines, with a train. She will wear an egg-shell shade veil, trimmed with old English lace, pearls, and orange blossoms. Miss Baldwin's two sisters, Mrs. Nelson Bell and Mrs. Harold Kean, who will attend her, will have gowns of taffeta, made alike except for color. Mrs. Bell's being orchid, and Mrs. Kean's peach. Their mother will wear a brown chiffon-velvet ensemble.

Mr. DeLoria's brother, Earl Couch, will be best man. Following the wedding, supper will be served in the Baldwin home. On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. West will entertain the couple at a reception in their home in Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. De Loria will take a motor trip south, and will be home on Lincoln avenue, Birmingham.

Recently, Mrs. R. A. Williams gave a shower for the bride-to-be, entertaining 22 guests from Birmingham, Flint, Ferndale, and Detroit. A shower was given Tuesday by Miss Avis Gravin and Miss Esther Kist at the Gravin home on Merrill street. Mrs. James Andrews will honor Miss Baldwin at a linen shower this afternoon.

SOCIETY TO ASSEMBLE SATURDAY AT NUPTIALS IN CHRIST CHURCH

Society will gather Saturday at Christ Church for the wedding of Miss Margaret Collingwood Harry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Harry, of "Redruth," Lone Pine road, to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Elsworth Galloupy, of Boston Boulevard, Detroit.

Miss Harry will be attended by her sisters Mrs. George Coleman and Mrs. George G. Coleman, assisted by Miss Olive Ann Brown, Miss Janet Skae, Mrs. George S. Lodge, Jr., Mrs. Howard B. Shingler, Mrs. John R. Grylls, as maids of honor. Mr. Robert Lorimer will be best man, and George C. DeGroot, Mr. William R. Harry, St. Rogers I., Marquis, Mr. George S. Lodge, Jr., Mr. DuPont, Mr. Newbro, Mr. Stanley Kresge, Mr. Hamilton R. Patterson, and Mr. Edward Kost will be ushers.

The services will be read by the Rev. Dr. Samuel S. Marquis, of Christ Church, and will be assisted by William B. Kinder, of St. Joseph's Episcopal church, in Detroit. Following the ceremony, the bride and groom will reside in Gross Pointe. Miss Harry made her debut two years ago at "Redruth," and is a graduate of the Bennett school. She is a member of the Junior League and of the Tau Beta association. Mr. Galloupy is a graduate of the University of Michigan and of Leland Stanford University.

Miss Harry has been extensively entertained during the past two weeks. Affairs of this week include a bridge luncheon given at the Colony club by Mrs. Jesse Lawrence Woods and Mrs. Carter Sales; and a bridge tea given yesterday by Mrs. J. Lawrence Buell, Jr., and Mrs. Storm Vanderveer at the Buell home. Miss Janet Skae will be hostess at the spinster dinner, Mrs. George C. Lodge, Jr., home at the "rehearsal dinner" Thursday and Mrs. Clarence Booth will give a luncheon Saturday for members of the bridal party.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Thompson at a Memorial Day picnic at "Kennoways" were Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Hawksworth, Mr. and Mrs. Rex L. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Bymer, and Mrs. Frederick G. Ray.

Cotton Materials Stage Comeback by Using Latest Fabric Styling in Designs

BY HARRIET
IT is smart to wear cotton frocks this summer. Take one look at them and it is easy to understand why. So chic and attractive are the new wide-waive pique suits, the slung-sleeve frocks, the slinging-outlets and the slinky, dotted Swiss, voile and printed cotton dresses that every woman will want some of them.

Perhaps the noticeable thing about the comeback cotton materials are staging in their readiness to utilize all the latest fabric styling in their designs. Prints are as attractive and delicately flattering as silks, colors are as vivid, clear and lovely or as delicately pastel as the finest chiffons.

The care with which these new cotton fashions are made inures their chic. Tailored trousers, dress suits, blouses, and soft dressmaker outfits are all done in the best style manner.

There are many kinds of cotton of best quality that women will find useful and enchantingly lovely this summer. The poplin suit has the following in place the fitted tailored suit has its representatives and the little bolero is not left behind.

THE TEST is the sleeveless cardigan suit that takes the little skirt—sleeved bolero to complete it. A sports ensemble of this type is made of delicate pink cotton with white stripes. The bolero is of white pink dots. The skirt of the suit has a pleated lower part below an elaborately cut yoke of bandings attached for tailored effect.

The pearl buttons are on each side of the pockets and there is a slitted banding around the edges of the sleeveless cardigan. The blouse has a russy little front of tucks, lace and a yoke at the neck. The sleeveless bolero has back cuts with lace and tucks and bows. A pique bow tie tops it.

An illustration of the tailored suit has the following in place the fitted tailored suit has its representatives and the little bolero is not left behind.

Latest in the new summer cottons is the sleeveless cardigan suit, left, of pink pastel cotton pique. Also new is the velvet bolero jacket and attached hat, right, to top summer frocks.

Green is made with fared back revers which give it a jaunty and tailored look. It has a little pocket in which a hanky may be inserted for more color.

This jacket is especially good over a Jaquard madras in a very faded green made with pleated skirt, no sleeves and a shirt collar.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. L. Flintermann, of Strawberry Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Flintermann, visited Dr. and Mrs. Frederick B. Buesser at Harsens Island on Memorial Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison J. Strickland, of Wintonburg road, spent the week end in Chicago as the guests of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Benedict.

A Memorial Day picnic was given in their home by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Muehlman, of Suttfield road. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Farrar, Dr. and Mrs. George P. Raynauld, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lefebvre, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Simpson, Miss Mary Stuart Clarke, Mrs. Max Groves, Mr. and Mrs. Lora E. Fellows, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Stahl, Mr. and Mrs. George Dweilley, and Mr. and Mrs. George Dweilley. Following supper all members of the party motored to Franklin where they attended the performance of "Remote Control," presented there by the Detroit Players.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. I. Herbert, of Suttfield road, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Tilston, of Hazelwood avenue, spent the week end at Millet lake.
