

OAKLAND COUNTY NEWS

A roof fire at the home of C. Henry Smith, Auburn Heights, was halted Saturday when village residents formed a bucket line and extinguished the blaze before the arrival of firemen. Sparks from a chimney had ignited the shingles and threatened the upper story of the home. Loss was estimated at $100.

Niles Prosser of Lake Orion, employed in a gravel pit in Oakwood, Friday sustained a painful injury to his right eye. Scale from a boiler which Prosser was cleaning was driven into the eye.

Special opportunity for Boy Scouts of Oakland Area Council to earn merit badges in radio was offered Monday when Scout Executive Herbert N. Watson announced that a class in radio will be conducted at 7 p. m. Friday, beginning March 14, at the Hoffman property on West Huron street, opposite Pontiac High School.

Fry Fraser, a graduate of the Marine Corps Radio School and former operator, will act as instructor. Both construction of apparatus and communication by radio-telegraph will be taught. The class will be limited to 15 and the first 15 First Class Boy Scouts to apply will be enrolled.

Following activities took place in Rochester at the Community House: Monday, mother and child clinic; Safat club; Boys' Scout Troop No. 40; Business and Professional Women's club.

Tuesday: Campfire Girls group No. 1; Boys club; Men's Glee club in the evening; Alumni meeting; Young Men's club.

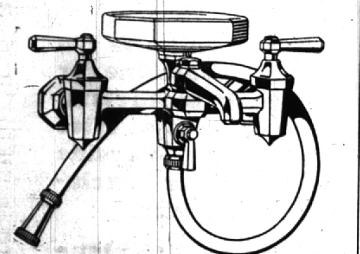

Wednesday: Nutrition class.

How Well can you write "Bon Voyage"?

If your dearest friend were leaving for a long trip—or moving to another town—you certainly could write a graceful FAREWELL LETTER. Just by putting on paper the way you really feel about your friend at this crucial time. True? Then suppose you submit a paraphrase of this letter to the EATON, CRANE & PIKE LETTER WRITING CONTEST. It may win the grand prize of $1000 or one of the 354 other prizes. Come in and register for the contest today.

HAIN'S DRUGS
West Maple Ave.

A wonderful help with the dishes

Let us put this Kohler of Kohler faucet in Octachrome on your sink and you will wonder how you ever managed to get along before!

A swinging spout to send the water just where you want it. One spout for hot, cold, or "medium." A base for rinsing dishes and washing vegetables. A large china soap dish, removable for cleaning. Think of the convenience.

This faucet is in a new, beautiful design, finished in never-fading chromium plate. We install it on old or new sinks. Don't you want one?

W. H. MILLER
PLUMBING AND HEATING
259 E. Maple Phone 532-W

gress in Panama was to have been a visitor in Rochester this week but word was received here to the effect that it is impossible for Dr. Van Hoesen to make the trip at present. However she intends to visit Rochester in the near future.

For the first time in two and one-half years the Berkley fire department made only one run during an entire month, according to a report by Chief C. J. Matern. The department was called to one fire where property endangered was valued at $1,200 but the fire was extinguished with no loss. Volunteers were paid $48 for attending meetings and making the run.

The astonishing tie vote for the nomination for Farmington Township Supervisor is to be decided by the voters of the Township, it was determined Thursday afternoon. Both candidates, Supervisor Harry N. McCracken and Arthur P. Coe, agreed to submit the question to the people at the April election.

In response to the Oakland County Council of Women's request for three Milford club women to be named as members of committees, Mrs. Dan Smith Friday announced the following appointments: Mrs. E. C. Taylor, to the court committee; Mrs. George Johnson; board of supervisors committee and, Mrs. C. J. Kestor, the welfare committee.

Public hearing on the Clarksburg village 1930 budget, which provides for total appropriations of $125,457.16 will be held before the commission in the village on Tuesday, Mar. 15, at 8 p. m. The total to be raised by direct taxation is $54,706.97.

Northbound traffic on Woodward avenue at Eight-Mile road, Ferndale, was slightly congested yesterday morning when part of the pavement on the east side of the street caved in over the water mains installed recently by the Detroit water board. Barricades were erected and traffic was routed around the hole.

Irmie Colan, age 34, 22606 Russell street, Hazel Park, arrested by Chief Deputy Sheriff Bernard Schrader at 10:20 p. m. Saturday for violation of the prohibition laws, was released on $1,000 bond for examination Thursday. Colan pleaded not guilty when arraigned before Justice John W. Bovee, Saturday night.

Republicans of Commerce Township will meet for a caucus, Saturday, at 2 p. m., in the town hall at Walling Lake. Selection of a ticket for the April 7 election, for the township, is the chief matter of business to be transacted.

Fire which started in a clothes closet at the home of Howard Rodgers, 1901 Woodruff avenue, Ferndale, caused damage estimated at $150 before it was extinguished by Ferndale firemen. The fire, discovered at 9:55 p. m., is believed to have started by spontaneous combustion.

Trial of Mrs. Marguerite Azinger, age 41, charged with the murder of her husband, Otto H. Azinger, in their home in Royal Oak Oct. 27, was postponed Monday afternoon at the request of Prosecutor Norman C. Orr who asked that a sanity committee be appointed to examine the woman. This committee has not reported the results of its examination.

Two men were captured and a third escaped on foot under a fusillade of police bullets at the end of a mile and a half chase on Commerce road by Orchard Lake officers early Friday morning. Thomas Bradley, 30 years old 202 East Milwaukee street, and Ivan McClain, 37 years old, 16185 Indiana avenue, both of Detroit, were captured.

A Boy Scout court of honor will be held at the Rochester Community House the evening of Mar. 31, with both troops participating. All parents and friends are invited. An interesting program has been arranged.

William Henry Day, age 20, 1229 Princeton road, Berkley and John Freeman, age 18, 2880 Cumberland road, Berkley, charged with breaking and entering the summer home of Judson Bradley in Southfield township the night of Jan. 12 were bound over to the Oakland county circuit court under $500 bond each after their arraignments before Justice John W. Bovee, Thursday.

Both of the youths stood mute and not-guilty pleas were entered by Justice Bovee. They waived examination.

Undersheriff Frank Greenan today is investigating the looting of Vreeland's fur storage house at Walling Lake in which furs valued at more than $1,000 were stolen.

Dr. Bertha Van Hoesen, one of the foremost women doctors of the world, who recently attended the Pan-American Medical congress in Panama was to have been a visitor in Rochester this week but word was received here to the effect that it is impossible for Dr. Van Hoesen to make the trip at present. However she intends to visit Rochester in the near future.

For the first time in two and one-half years the Berkley fire department made only one run during an entire month, according to a report by Chief C. J. Matern. The department was called to one fire where property endangered was valued at $1,200 but the fire was extinguished with no loss. Volunteers were paid $48 for attending meetings and making the run.

The astonishing tie vote for the nomination for Farmington Township Supervisor is to be decided by the voters of the Township, it was determined Thursday afternoon. Both candidates, Supervisor Harry N. McCracken and Arthur P. Coe, agreed to submit the question to the people at the April election.

In response to the Oakland County Council of Women's request for three Milford club women to be named as members of committees, Mrs. Dan Smith Friday announced the following appointments: Mrs. E. C. Taylor, to the court committee; Mrs. George Johnson; board of supervisors committee and, Mrs. C. J. Kestor, the welfare committee.

Public hearing on the Clarksburg village 1930 budget, which provides for total appropriations of $125,457.16 will be held before the commission in the village on Tuesday, Mar. 15, at 8 p. m. The total to be raised by direct taxation is $54,706.97.

Northbound traffic on Woodward avenue at Eight-Mile road, Ferndale, was slightly congested yesterday morning when part of the pavement on the east side of the street caved in over the water mains installed recently by the Detroit water board. Barricades were erected and traffic was routed around the hole.

Irmie Colan, age 34, 22606 Russell street, Hazel Park, arrested by Chief Deputy Sheriff Bernard Schrader at 10:20 p. m. Saturday for violation of the prohibition laws, was released on $1,000 bond for examination Thursday. Colan pleaded not guilty when arraigned before Justice John W. Bovee, Saturday night.

Republicans of Commerce Township will meet for a caucus, Saturday, at 2 p. m., in the town hall at Walling Lake. Selection of a ticket for the April 7 election, for the township, is the chief matter of business to be transacted.

Fire which started in a clothes closet at the home of Howard Rodgers, 1901 Woodruff avenue, Ferndale, caused damage estimated at $150 before it was extinguished by Ferndale firemen. The fire, discovered at 9:55 p. m., is believed to have started by spontaneous combustion.

Trial of Mrs. Marguerite Azinger, age 41, charged with the murder of her husband, Otto H. Azinger, in their home in Royal Oak Oct. 27, was postponed Monday afternoon at the request of Prosecutor Norman C. Orr who asked that a sanity committee be appointed to examine the woman. This committee has not reported the results of its examination.

Two men were captured and a third escaped on foot under a fusillade of police bullets at the end of a mile and a half chase on Commerce road by Orchard Lake officers early Friday morning. Thomas Bradley, 30 years old 202 East Milwaukee street, and Ivan McClain, 37 years old, 16185 Indiana avenue, both of Detroit, were captured.

A Boy Scout court of honor will be held at the Rochester Community House the evening of Mar. 31, with both troops participating. All parents and friends are invited. An interesting program has been arranged.

William Henry Day, age 20, 1229 Princeton road, Berkley and John Freeman, age 18, 2880 Cumberland road, Berkley, charged with breaking and entering the summer home of Judson Bradley in Southfield township the night of Jan. 12 were bound over to the Oakland county circuit court under $500 bond each after their arraignments before Justice John W. Bovee, Thursday.

Both of the youths stood mute and not-guilty pleas were entered by Justice Bovee. They waived examination.

Undersheriff Frank Greenan today is investigating the looting of Vreeland's fur storage house at Walling Lake in which furs valued at more than $1,000 were stolen.

Dr. Bertha Van Hoesen, one of the foremost women doctors of the world, who recently attended the Pan-American Medical congress in Panama was to have been a visitor in Rochester this week but word was received here to the effect that it is impossible for Dr. Van Hoesen to make the trip at present. However she intends to visit Rochester in the near future.

For the first time in two and one-half years the Berkley fire department made only one run during an entire month, according to a report by Chief C. J. Matern. The department was called to one fire where property endangered was valued at $1,200 but the fire was extinguished with no loss. Volunteers were paid $48 for attending meetings and making the run.

The astonishing tie vote for the nomination for Farmington Township Supervisor is to be decided by the voters of the Township, it was determined Thursday afternoon. Both candidates, Supervisor Harry N. McCracken and Arthur P. Coe, agreed to submit the question to the people at the April election.

In response to the Oakland County Council of Women's request for three Milford club women to be named as members of committees, Mrs. Dan Smith Friday announced the following appointments: Mrs. E. C. Taylor, to the court committee; Mrs. George Johnson; board of supervisors committee and, Mrs. C. J. Kestor, the welfare committee.

Public hearing on the Clarksburg village 1930 budget, which provides for total appropriations of $125,457.16 will be held before the commission in the village on Tuesday, Mar. 15, at 8 p. m. The total to be raised by direct taxation is $54,706.97.

Northbound traffic on Woodward avenue at Eight-Mile road, Ferndale, was slightly congested yesterday morning when part of the pavement on the east side of the street caved in over the water mains installed recently by the Detroit water board. Barricades were erected and traffic was routed around the hole.

Irmie Colan, age 34, 22606 Russell street, Hazel Park, arrested by Chief Deputy Sheriff Bernard Schrader at 10:20 p. m. Saturday for violation of the prohibition laws, was released on $1,000 bond for examination Thursday. Colan pleaded not guilty when arraigned before Justice John W. Bovee, Saturday night.

Republicans of Commerce Township will meet for a caucus, Saturday, at 2 p. m., in the town hall at Walling Lake. Selection of a ticket for the April 7 election, for the township, is the chief matter of business to be transacted.

Fire which started in a clothes closet at the home of Howard Rodgers, 1901 Woodruff avenue, Ferndale, caused damage estimated at $150 before it was extinguished by Ferndale firemen. The fire, discovered at 9:55 p. m., is believed to have started by spontaneous combustion.

Trial of Mrs. Marguerite Azinger, age 41, charged with the murder of her husband, Otto H. Azinger, in their home in Royal Oak Oct. 27, was postponed Monday afternoon at the request of Prosecutor Norman C. Orr who asked that a sanity committee be appointed to examine the woman. This committee has not reported the results of its examination.

Two men were captured and a third escaped on foot under a fusillade of police bullets at the end of a mile and a half chase on Commerce road by Orchard Lake officers early Friday morning. Thomas Bradley, 30 years old 202 East Milwaukee street, and Ivan McClain, 37 years old, 16185 Indiana avenue, both of Detroit, were captured.

A Boy Scout court of honor will be held at the Rochester Community House the evening of Mar. 31, with both troops participating. All parents and friends are invited. An interesting program has been arranged.

William Henry Day, age 20, 1229 Princeton road, Berkley and John Freeman, age 18, 2880 Cumberland road, Berkley, charged with breaking and entering the summer home of Judson Bradley in Southfield township the night of Jan. 12 were bound over to the Oakland county circuit court under $500 bond each after their arraignments before Justice John W. Bovee, Thursday.

Both of the youths stood mute and not-guilty pleas were entered by Justice Bovee. They waived examination.

Undersheriff Frank Greenan today is investigating the looting of Vreeland's fur storage house at Walling Lake in which furs valued at more than $1,000 were stolen.

Dr. Bertha Van Hoesen, one of the foremost women doctors of the world, who recently attended the Pan-American Medical congress in Panama was to have been a visitor in Rochester this week but word was received here to the effect that it is impossible for Dr. Van Hoesen to make the trip at present. However she intends to visit Rochester in the near future.

For the first time in two and one-half years the Berkley fire department made only one run during an entire month, according to a report by Chief C. J. Matern. The department was called to one fire where property endangered was valued at $1,200 but the fire was extinguished with no loss. Volunteers were paid $48 for attending meetings and making the run.

The astonishing tie vote for the nomination for Farmington Township Supervisor is to be decided by the voters of the Township, it was determined Thursday afternoon. Both candidates, Supervisor Harry N. McCracken and Arthur P. Coe, agreed to submit the question to the people at the April election.

In response to the Oakland County Council of Women's request for three Milford club women to be named as members of committees, Mrs. Dan Smith Friday announced the following appointments: Mrs. E. C. Taylor, to the court committee; Mrs. George Johnson; board of supervisors committee and, Mrs. C. J. Kestor, the welfare committee.

Public hearing on the Clarksburg village 1930 budget, which provides for total appropriations of $125,457.16 will be held before the commission in the village on Tuesday, Mar. 15, at 8 p. m. The total to be raised by direct taxation is $54,706.97.

Northbound traffic on Woodward avenue at Eight-Mile road, Ferndale, was slightly congested yesterday morning when part of the pavement on the east side of the street caved in over the water mains installed recently by the Detroit water board. Barricades were erected and traffic was routed around the hole.

Irmie Colan, age 34, 22606 Russell street, Hazel Park, arrested by Chief Deputy Sheriff Bernard Schrader at 10:20 p. m. Saturday for violation of the prohibition laws, was released on $1,000 bond for examination Thursday. Colan pleaded not guilty when arraigned before Justice John W. Bovee, Saturday night.

Republicans of Commerce Township will meet for a caucus, Saturday, at 2 p. m., in the town hall at Walling Lake. Selection of a ticket for the April 7 election, for the township, is the chief matter of business to be transacted.

Fire which started in a clothes closet at the home of Howard Rodgers, 1901 Woodruff avenue, Ferndale, caused damage estimated at $150 before it was extinguished by Ferndale firemen. The fire, discovered at 9:55 p. m., is believed to have started by spontaneous combustion.

Trial of Mrs. Marguerite Azinger, age 41, charged with the murder of her husband, Otto H. Azinger, in their home in Royal Oak Oct. 27, was postponed Monday afternoon at the request of Prosecutor Norman C. Orr who asked that a sanity committee be appointed to examine the woman. This committee has not reported the results of its examination.

Two men were captured and a third escaped on foot under a fusillade of police bullets at the end of a mile and a half chase on Commerce road by Orchard Lake officers early Friday morning. Thomas Bradley, 30 years old 202 East Milwaukee street, and Ivan McClain, 37 years old, 16185 Indiana avenue, both of Detroit, were captured.

A Boy Scout court of honor will be held at the Rochester Community House the evening of Mar. 31, with both troops participating. All parents and friends are invited. An interesting program has been arranged.

William Henry Day, age 20, 1229 Princeton road, Berkley and John Freeman, age 18, 2880 Cumberland road, Berkley, charged with breaking and entering the summer home of Judson Bradley in Southfield township the night of Jan. 12 were bound over to the Oakland county circuit court under $500 bond each after their arraignments before Justice John W. Bovee, Thursday.

Both of the youths stood mute and not-guilty pleas were entered by Justice Bovee. They waived examination.

Undersheriff Frank Greenan today is investigating the looting of Vreeland's fur storage house at Walling Lake in which furs valued at more than $1,000 were stolen.

Dr. Bertha Van Hoesen, one of the foremost women doctors of the world, who recently attended the Pan-American Medical congress in Panama was to have been a visitor in Rochester this week but word was received here to the effect that it is impossible for Dr. Van Hoesen to make the trip at present. However she intends to visit Rochester in the near future.

For the first time in two and one-half years the Berkley fire department made only one run during an entire month, according to a report by Chief C. J. Matern. The department was called to one fire where property endangered was valued at $1,200 but the fire was extinguished with no loss. Volunteers were paid $48 for attending meetings and making the run.

The astonishing tie vote for the nomination for Farmington Township Supervisor is to be decided by the voters of the Township, it was determined Thursday afternoon. Both candidates, Supervisor Harry N. McCracken and Arthur P. Coe, agreed to submit the question to the people at the April election.

In response to the Oakland County Council of Women's request for three Milford club women to be named as members of committees, Mrs. Dan Smith Friday announced the following appointments: Mrs. E. C. Taylor, to the court committee; Mrs. George Johnson; board of supervisors committee and, Mrs. C. J. Kestor, the welfare committee.

Public hearing on the Clarksburg village 1930 budget, which provides for total appropriations of $125,457.16 will be held before the commission in the village on Tuesday, Mar. 15, at 8 p. m. The total to be raised by direct taxation is $54,706.97.

Northbound traffic on Woodward avenue at Eight-Mile road, Ferndale, was slightly congested yesterday morning when part of the pavement on the east side of the street caved in over the water mains installed recently by the Detroit water board. Barricades were erected and traffic was routed around the hole.

Irmie Colan, age 34, 22606 Russell street, Hazel Park, arrested by Chief Deputy Sheriff Bernard Schrader at 10:20 p. m. Saturday for violation of the prohibition laws, was released on $1,000 bond for examination Thursday. Colan pleaded not guilty when arraigned before Justice John W. Bovee, Saturday night.

Republicans of Commerce Township will meet for a caucus, Saturday, at 2 p. m., in the town hall at Walling Lake. Selection of a ticket for the April 7 election, for the township, is the chief matter of business to be transacted.

Fire which started in a clothes closet at the home of Howard Rodgers, 1901 Woodruff avenue, Ferndale, caused damage estimated at $150 before it was extinguished by Ferndale firemen. The fire, discovered at 9:55 p. m., is believed to have started by spontaneous combustion.

Trial of Mrs. Marguerite Azinger, age 41, charged with the murder of her husband, Otto H. Azinger, in their home in Royal Oak Oct. 27, was postponed Monday afternoon at the request of Prosecutor Norman C. Orr who asked that a sanity committee be appointed to examine the woman. This committee has not reported the results of its examination.

Two men were captured and a third escaped on foot under a fusillade of police bullets at the end of a mile and a half chase on Commerce road by Orchard Lake officers early Friday morning. Thomas Bradley, 30 years old 202 East Milwaukee street, and Ivan McClain, 37 years old, 16185 Indiana avenue, both of Detroit, were captured.

A Boy Scout court of honor will be held at the Rochester Community House the evening of Mar. 31, with both troops participating. All parents and friends are invited. An interesting program has been arranged.

William Henry Day, age 20, 1229 Princeton road, Berkley and John Freeman, age 18, 2880 Cumberland road, Berkley, charged with breaking and entering the summer home of Judson Bradley in Southfield township the night of Jan. 12 were bound over to the Oakland county circuit court under $500 bond each after their arraignments before Justice John W. Bovee, Thursday.

Both of the youths stood mute and not-guilty pleas were entered by Justice Bovee. They waived examination.

Undersheriff Frank Greenan today is investigating the looting of Vreeland's fur storage house at Walling Lake in which furs valued at more than $1,000 were stolen.

Dr. Bertha Van Hoesen, one of the foremost women doctors of the world, who recently attended the Pan-American Medical congress in Panama was to have been a visitor in Rochester this week but word was received here to the effect that it is impossible for Dr. Van Hoesen to make the trip at present. However she intends to visit Rochester in the near future.

For the first time in two and one-half years the Berkley fire department made only one run during an entire month, according to a report by Chief C. J. Matern. The department was called to one fire where property endangered was valued at $1,200 but the fire was extinguished with no loss. Volunteers were paid $48 for attending meetings and making the run.

The astonishing tie vote for the nomination for Farmington Township Supervisor is to be decided by the voters of the Township, it was determined Thursday afternoon. Both candidates, Supervisor Harry N. McCracken and Arthur P. Coe, agreed to submit the question to the people at the April election.

In response to the Oakland County Council of Women's request for three Milford club women to be named as members of committees, Mrs. Dan Smith Friday announced the following appointments: Mrs. E. C. Taylor, to the court committee; Mrs. George Johnson; board of supervisors committee and, Mrs. C. J. Kestor, the welfare committee.

Public hearing on the Clarksburg village 1930 budget, which provides for total appropriations of $125,457.16 will be held before the commission in the village on Tuesday, Mar. 15, at 8 p. m. The total to be raised by direct taxation is $54,706.97.

Northbound traffic on Woodward avenue at Eight-Mile road, Ferndale, was slightly congested yesterday morning when part of the pavement on the east side of the street caved in over the water mains installed recently by the Detroit water board. Barricades were erected and traffic was routed around the hole.

Irmie Colan, age 34, 22606 Russell street, Hazel Park, arrested by Chief Deputy Sheriff Bernard Schrader at 10:20 p. m. Saturday for violation of the prohibition laws, was released on $1,000 bond for examination Thursday. Colan pleaded not guilty when arraigned before Justice John W. Bovee, Saturday night.

Republicans of Commerce Township will meet for a caucus, Saturday, at 2 p. m., in the town hall at Walling Lake. Selection of a ticket for the April 7 election, for the township, is the chief matter of business to be transacted.

Fire which started in a clothes closet at the home of Howard Rodgers, 1901 Woodruff avenue, Ferndale, caused damage estimated at $150 before it was extinguished by Ferndale firemen. The fire, discovered at 9:55 p. m., is believed to have started by spontaneous combustion.

Trial of Mrs. Marguerite Azinger, age 41, charged with the murder of her husband, Otto H. Azinger, in their home in Royal Oak Oct. 27, was postponed Monday afternoon at the request of Prosecutor Norman C. Orr who asked that a sanity committee be appointed to examine the woman. This committee has not reported the results of its examination.

Two men were captured and a third escaped on foot under a fusillade of police bullets at the end of a mile and a half chase on Commerce road by Orchard Lake officers early Friday morning. Thomas Bradley, 30 years old 202 East Milwaukee street, and Ivan McClain, 37 years old, 16185 Indiana avenue, both of Detroit, were captured.

A Boy Scout court of honor will be held at the Rochester Community House the evening of Mar. 31, with both troops participating. All parents and friends are invited. An interesting program has been arranged.

William Henry Day, age 20, 1229 Princeton road, Berkley and John Freeman, age 18, 2880 Cumberland road, Berkley, charged with breaking and entering the summer home of Judson Bradley in Southfield township the night of Jan. 12 were bound over to the Oakland county circuit court under $500 bond each after their arraignments before Justice John W. Bovee, Thursday.

Both of the youths stood mute and not-guilty pleas were entered by Justice Bovee. They waived examination.

Undersheriff Frank Greenan today is investigating the looting of Vreeland's fur storage house at Walling Lake in which furs valued at more than $1,000 were stolen.

Dr. Bertha Van Hoesen, one of the foremost women doctors of the world, who recently attended the Pan-American Medical congress in Panama was to have been a visitor in Rochester this week but word was received here to the effect that it is impossible for Dr. Van Hoesen to make the trip at present. However she intends to visit Rochester in the near future.

For the first time in two and one-half years the Berkley fire department made only one run during an entire month, according to a report by Chief C. J. Matern. The department was called to one fire where property endangered was valued at $1,200 but the fire was extinguished with no loss. Volunteers were paid $48 for attending meetings and making the run.

The astonishing tie vote for the nomination for Farmington Township Supervisor is to be decided by the voters of the Township, it was determined Thursday afternoon. Both candidates, Supervisor Harry N. McCracken and Arthur P. Coe, agreed to submit the question to the people at the April election.

In response to the Oakland County Council of Women's request for three Milford club women to be named as members of committees, Mrs. Dan Smith Friday announced the following appointments: Mrs. E. C. Taylor, to the court committee; Mrs. George Johnson; board of supervisors committee and, Mrs. C. J. Kestor, the welfare committee.

Public hearing on the Clarksburg village 1930 budget, which provides for total appropriations of $125,457.16 will be held before the commission in the village on Tuesday, Mar. 15, at 8 p. m. The total to be raised by direct taxation is $54,706.97.

Northbound traffic on Woodward avenue at Eight-Mile road, Ferndale, was slightly congested yesterday morning when part of the pavement on the east side of the street caved in over the water mains installed recently by the Detroit water board. Barricades were erected and traffic was routed around the hole.

Irmie Colan, age 34, 22606 Russell street, Hazel Park, arrested by Chief Deputy Sheriff Bernard Schrader at 10:20 p. m. Saturday for violation of the prohibition laws, was released on $1,000 bond for examination Thursday. Colan pleaded not guilty when arraigned before Justice John W. Bovee, Saturday night.

Republicans of Commerce Township will meet for a caucus, Saturday, at 2 p. m., in the town hall at Walling Lake. Selection of a ticket for the April 7 election, for the township, is the chief matter of business to be transacted.

Fire which started in a clothes closet at the home of Howard Rodgers, 1901 Woodruff avenue, Ferndale, caused damage estimated at $150 before it was extinguished by Ferndale firemen. The fire, discovered at 9:55 p. m., is believed to have started by spontaneous combustion.

Trial of Mrs. Marguerite Azinger, age 41, charged with the murder of her husband, Otto H. Azinger, in their home in Royal Oak Oct. 27, was postponed Monday afternoon at the request of Prosecutor Norman C. Orr who asked that a sanity committee be appointed to examine the woman. This committee has not reported the results of its examination.

Two men were captured and a third escaped on foot under a fusillade of police bullets at the end of a mile and a half chase on Commerce road by Orchard Lake officers early Friday morning. Thomas Bradley, 30 years old 202 East Milwaukee street, and Ivan McClain, 37 years old, 16185 Indiana avenue, both of Detroit, were captured.

A Boy Scout court of honor will be held at the Rochester Community House the evening of Mar. 31, with both troops participating. All parents and friends are invited. An interesting program has been arranged.

William Henry Day, age 20, 1229 Princeton road, Berkley and John Freeman, age 18, 2880 Cumberland road, Berkley, charged with breaking and entering the summer home of Judson Bradley in Southfield township the night of Jan. 12 were bound over to the Oakland county circuit court under $500 bond each after their arraignments before Justice John W. Bovee, Thursday.

Both of the youths stood mute and not-guilty pleas were entered by Justice Bovee. They waived examination.

Undersheriff Frank Greenan today is investigating the looting of Vreeland's fur storage house at Walling Lake in which furs valued at more than $1,000 were stolen.

Dr. Bertha Van Hoesen, one of the foremost women doctors of the world, who recently attended the Pan-American Medical congress in Panama was to have been a visitor in Rochester this week but word was received here to the effect that it is impossible for Dr. Van Hoesen to make the trip at present. However she intends to visit Rochester in the near future.

For the first time