CHIMNEY BLAZE IS EXTINGUISHED

Approximately $25 damage was done to the home of Joe Jacobette, 151 Oakland avenue, Sunday at 11 a. m. when sparks from the chimney set the roof afire. The blaze was extinguished by the Birmingham Fire department.

Small fires over the week end gave the members of the Birmingham Fire department an opportunity to test the efficacy of their new "Booster" pump. It was constructed by members of Company 1 and, according to Vernon Griffith, captain, contains several features which make it superior to any other device in combating rural fires. Grass fires Saturday and Sunday numbered four.
