Plan Pre-Easter Prayer Services

Every Monday night from now on members of the First Baptist Church will have five different cottage prayer meetings in the five precincts of the village. It is announced by the Rev. David Leon Woodward, pastor of the church, that the purpose of these meetings, Mr. Woodward said, is to "deepen the spiritual life and to train them in the personal work, winning people to Christ and the Church." Two weeks of the meetings have been held. At the first meeting 94 attended and an increase was recorded at the meeting last Monday.

The Rev. W. F. Bostick, pastor of the Bedford Baptist Church of Detroit, will be the principal speaker at a special week of pre-Easter services held during the week of Apr. 8 through the 14.
