Our County Government

Oakland County offers a sample of the inability of a scattered group of Supervisors to administer efficiently the affairs of those who provide the taxes. Within the past few weeks much rumer and goans, some of it bordering upon scandal, have emanated from the county star as Pontiac. A strong group of the Supervisors, under the leadership of chairman Robert Y. Moore, of Bloomfield Township, sementent upon investigating certain phases of the county's problems, chiefly surrounding the manner in which Willis M. Brewer, chairman of the Board of Auditors, was spending the county's money for available of Auditors, was spending the county's money for available of the surrounding the manner was an an acceptance of Auditors, was spending the county's money for available of the mud. You know, put an only walk around the manner was a surrounding the surr various things.

As you may recall, Mr. Brewer resigned his office, effective June 15, a few hours before the special report of the Supervisors' ways and means committee was filed; the report contained vague statements relative to extravagance, etc., and thus endeth the situation.

In the meantime, however, the public is wondering why so much smoke failed to develop a spark of fire. All of which, we believe, aids in creating a feeling of dislike for the present methods of conducting country government in Michigan.
